

PEPPY PLAYING GIVES EAGLES 2 RUN LEAD OVER DAYTON BREWS

Pep and dash enabled the Richmond Eagles to cop a 2 to 0 scrap from the Dayton Lily Brews at Exhibition Park Sunday afternoon.

It was an abbreviated performance, as rain caused Manager Everett Haas, of the Eagles, to call the game at the end of the sixth inning. The teams hung around awhile, but after 15 minutes it would have required boats to play.

Russ Hawekotte pitched his best game of the season against the Lily Brews, allowing but four hits. He accounted for 12 of 18 put-outs via the whiff route. His control was not perfect, as he cut loose with two wild pitches, hit one man and gave a free ticket to first.

Hit With Effect.
The center of the Eagle batting order accounted for the Eagle offensive. Byrket, first sacker, got three hits out of three times up, including a two-bagger. He swiped two bases. Reddinghaus and Holmes got one hit each. Holmes scored both runs.

The second inning was the only time the Brews assumed a dangerous attitude. Smith led off with a single. Kerns attempted to sacrifice, but forced Smith at second and was killed off at first himself as a result of a fast double play. Logan made the put-out at second unassisted. It was a timely play, as Yormig came through with a hit that would have been good for a run. Hitchin ended the inning by grounding to Byrket.

The Eagles scored in the second and sixth. After Smith had fled to Kerns in the second, Reddinghaus singled to center. He stole second on the first pitched ball, but was extinguished at third on a fielder's choice of Holmes' grounder. Holmes got to second on the put-out, however. Byrket came through with a single that scored Holmes. Haas fled to Smith.

After two were gone in the sixth inning, Holmes singled to right and later scored on Byrket's slashing double to center. As the rain was coming down in torrents, Haas lifted a puny foul fly to Holton and called the game. The score:

SHAMROCKS LOSE CLOSE CONTEST AT ELDORADO

The hard-luck Shamrocks tried hard but finally were forced to accept the short end of a 2 to 1 count at Eldorado, Sunday afternoon.

It was the hardest battle Eldorado has had all season. The game lasted eight innings, rain sending fans and players to cover after that time. Juday and Haas composed the Eldorado battery.

RICHMOND SENATORS AND LYNN HALTED, FIRST INNING, SUNDAY

The Richmond Senators and Lynn assembled at Lynn Sunday afternoon and started the game. Before the first inning was over, however, the Storm King came into his own and fans, players and scorers called it a day. No runs or hits were made.

NEW MADISON WALKS OFF WITH BIG END OF 3 TO 0 SCORE

The re-organized Centerville baseball team failed to get results at New Madison Sunday afternoon, the home team walking off with a 3 to 0 score at the end of the fifth inning. The regulation time for a game was played, both teams batting in the fifth. Mages and Haas composed the New Madison battery.

COLLECTION COST LESSENED.

The cost of collecting $73,608,766.91, by the internal revenue office for Indiana during the last fiscal year amounted to $313,129.55, according to figures made public by William L. Elder, collector. The expense, which covers all salaries and equipment, represents 42 cents on each $100 collected. The collection of $59,500,000 during the preceding fiscal year was made at a cost of 52 cents on each $100.

LUQUE CHECKS RUSH OF BROOKLYN TEAM

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 19.—More than 20,000 fans saw the Reds, with the aid of Senor Adolfo Luque, down the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4 to 1 at Redland Field, Sunday. Luque had wonderful control of the sphere, allowing but one Dodger to get past first base in eight innings. The Reds staged a 4 run rally in the fourth but were helpless after that.

Manager Pat Moran announced Walter Reuther as pitching choice for Monday's game. Big Ed Pfeffer was named for the Dodgers. The score of Sunday's game:

DISCOVER "WHITE MULE"

INDIANAPOLIS, July 19.—Fifteen gallons of "white mule" whisky were dug up yesterday in a cornfield on the farm of Charles Stevens on the Cooper road, near Thirteenth street, by Lieut. Cox, Sergt. Dean and Mounted Policeman Stonehouse. The liquor, which was in three five-gallon jugs, had been "planted" between the rows.

A number of other large jugs were found buried in the field but an investigation disclosed that the corks had rotted in the ground, causing the liquor to flow out. Stevens and Boris Mike, who said he worked on the farm, were arrested on charges of operating a "blind tiger."

PLACE ROAD SIGNS

AMES, Ia., July 19.—Many road signs were placed on telephone and telegraph poles along the 99 primary highways in Iowa last week. The maintenance department of the state highway commission interested 94 counties of the state in the work.
