

GIANTS TAKE FIRST FROM REDS 5 TO 3; POUND FISHER HARD

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 22—Jimmie Ring, Red pitching ace, was granted a leave of absence from the Reds, Wednesday. His mother, in Brooklyn is dangerously ill and despite the fact his absence will make in the Red pitching staff, Moran left Ring get away.

The Reds passed up an opportunity to close in on the Dodgers Wednesday when the Giants were permitted to walk off with the long end of a 5 to 3 score. Had Moran, sent Saltee to start the game, the score would probably have had a different ending. Saltee relieved Fisher, after the Giants had pounded 5 runs in three innings, and held them in check for the rest of the frame.

City, Factory and Suburban Teams Scramble For Championship Honor

Baseball teams and league in Richmond are about to indulge in a wild scramble for championship honors.

The Saturday Afternoon league and Suburban league are in the midst of a stiff championship race, and the Richmond Eagles, Giants and Hagerstown are claiming and counter-claiming the semi-pro championship of Wayne county.

But the lesser lights, the ones that play baseball for the fun and consider a game with five or six errors to the side a good game, have become imbued with the superiority stuff.

Hodge Issues Challenge. George Hodge, who, as manager of the A. S. M. Commercial league team last year, made a reputation as a convincing talker, has come forth with a sweeping challenge to the Commercial league. George has been adding the destinies of the Harvester league, formerly the A. S. M. league, and wants to see which is superior.

And George incidentally challenges the Home Telephone company for a game at Exhibition park next Wednesday. The Phoners are recognized as the class of the Commercial league and the team having the best chance to tame Hodge's wild men.

The First National and Dickinson Trust bankers have been having a sweet little baseball series all their own this summer. But the Second Nationals have grown ambitious and are anxious to try out the Commercial leaguers. Himes Dairyman or the Fenner team will take care of them, however.

Class of Own. The class shown by the Richmond Eagles in recent games puts them head and shoulders above the other claimants for county honors—Hagerstown and Richmond Giants. The Eagles have used this lineup in the last four games and will continue with it for the rest of the season—providing it continues to win.

Fans say that Hagerstown should go out and make a reputation for itself before claiming the championship of the county. Hagerstown plays a few strong teams and then loads up when Richmond is to be played. That is not a true comparison of strength, however. A series of games between the Richmond Giants and Hagerstown would show comparative strength. The Eagles are believed to be superior to the Giants. The showing both

BABE RUTH GREATER MAGNET THAN COBB

When Jacob Ruppert and Til Huston last winter paid 130,000 in real, cold cash for the services of Babe Ruth, opinion was divided as to the wisdom of the investment, says Daniels, in the New York Sun and Herald.

A good many baseball men who were regarded as shrewd followers of the game, with an uncommon supply of business acumen, said that the sum named was out of kilter with the value of the player to the New York club, both in the field and as a box office attraction.

They placed emphasis on the fact that an injury might put the home run king out of the game for the entire season. Ask Ruppert and Huston now regarding the business side of their investment and they will chuckle and break into a broad smile. They risked and already have won.

For the first time in the history of the New York American league club, fans are being turned away not only at the Polo grounds, but on the road as well.

On their recent tour in the west the Yankees played to 200,000 persons, and Huston figures that before the season is over the club will have played to a paid admittance of a million and a half. If this dope proves correct—and there is every reason to believe that it will—the Yankees will set a new major league attendance record for a season.
