

$10,000 IS NEEDED FOR ROAD REPAIRS IN PREBLE COUNTY

EATON, O., July 22.—In anticipation of a special road levy that was adopted by the electors of Preble county, at the election in last November, the county commissioners have authorized sale of certificates of indebtedness in the total sum of $10,000, the money to replenish the county road repair fund until the special road levy is available.

Teachers to Meet.
August 30 to September 3, are announced as the dates for the annual Preble County Teachers' institute, which will be held in Eaton. Superintendent W. S. Fogarty will preside.

Among the instructors and lecturers will be: Dr. J. L. McBrien, Washington, D. C., rural school specialist; W. E. Kershner, secretary Ohio teachers' retirement board; Vernon Riegel, state superintendent public instruction; Mrs. Cartwright, state department of health, and Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Marshall, Indiana Central University. Miss Belle Wilcox, of Dayton, will speak on writing.

Conduct Funeral.
Mrs. Belle Jefferson, 58, wife of O. H. Jefferson, who died Monday at her home in Dayton, was buried this morning in Mount Hill cemetery. Brief services were conducted at the cemetery. Mrs. Jefferson was a native of Eaton, a daughter of the late John Hubble.

Open Bids Today.
Bids were to be opened today at noon by the board of public affairs for the contract for construction of a filtration system at the pumping station of the city waterworks. Bonds in the aggregate of $27,500 issued by council for the improvement were taken recently by the state industrial commission, after effort to sell the bonds here had failed.

Pythians to Meet.
Pythian lodges of Preble county, with a combined membership of more than 1,000, are planning a county picnic here early in the fall. An ox roast is contemplated.

Names Committee.
President Albert Harris, of the Eaton Harding-Coolidge Club, has announced his appointment of the following committees: Membership, O. A. Gale, E. E. Bailey, Raymond Harris, Ford Ogden, Floyd Ashworth, finance, S. C. Hunt, LeRoy McNeal, C. R. Unger, Ed Quinn, H. D. Boesenberg; election, L. D. Lesh, Myron Landis, Leslie Sawyer, James Parker, Russell McNeal; entertainment and house, Mayor H. L. Risinger, C. W. Sylvester, A. H. Christman, E. E. Bailey, C. A. Burns; publicity and literature, C. E. Albright, J. E. Parker, Robert Fisher, Robert Cox, Abner Johnson.

BRITISH FORGE AHEAD
LONDON, July 22.—Total tonnage now building in the United Kingdom exceeds the amount under construction in the United States by 1,672,000 tons, according to returns published today by Lloyd's Register of Shipping. The aggregate amount now under construction in England is 3,578,000 tons—the highest amount ever recorded.

FELT TIRED, DULL, WORN OUT UNTIL HE TOOK NEW REMEDY
Indianapolis man suffered from chronic constipation, stomach trouble, catarrh of the head and was unable to enjoy what he ate.

Dr. Geo. overcame all these troubles for him and he is now feeling so fine he wants everybody whose complaints are similar to his, to give Dr. Geo. a trial.

Mr. Ralph D. Waters lives at 3023 Martindale Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., and is employed by the Monon R. R. as Car Inspector. "I had to take some kind of medicine all the time in order to get my bowels to move," said Mr. Waters.

"Everything I ate turned to gas, bloated me up and caused much uneasiness in my stomach. Got to where I would deny myself many things I craved because of the suffering I knew would follow. I felt tired and dull, had no energy to go about my work and when I'd sit down I hated to get up again.

"Catarrh of the head annoyed me very much making my breathing difficult and often gave me headaches and roaring noises in my head.

"One bottle of Dr. Geo. has worked wonders for me. My bowels are now active and regular; I no longer have that tired out feeling but instead I go about my work with a vim. The catarrh is much better. I breathe freely, never have a headache and the head noises are growing less. I surely can recommend Dr. Geo. as a fine tonic."

Dr. Geo. is the pure liquid extract of many roots, herbs, barks and leaves, which act on the vital organs of the human body. After taking Dr. Geo. it is noticed that the stomach is soothed and the gassy condition eliminated; the liver becomes active, relieving headaches, that dull tired-out feeling; nerves are strengthened; appetite increased; bowels act with ease and regularity, and the whole system takes on renewed energy, vigor and vitality. Dr. Geo. is harmless, pleasant to take and the effects are quickly felt.

All good druggists now sell Dr. Geo. in Richmond by Clem Thistlethwaite's and it is being especially introduced seven drug stores.—Advertisement.

FOREIGN MINISTER IN GERMAN CABINET

Dr. Walter Simons.

Dr. Simons holds the none too easy job of foreign minister in the German cabinet. In his dealings with the allied countries he almost invariably comes off second best. Dr. Simons was one of the German delegates to the recent conference at Spa, where this photograph was taken.

The Theatres

MURRAY.

A big fight between mill workers and men in the railroad yards—a fight in which several hundred men are involved—forms an extraordinary effective climax in one of the swiftest scenes in "The Iron Heart," the William Fox production starring Madeline Travers which opens Thursday at the Murray Theatre.

In this story of the regeneration of a hard business man through a young girl's faith in men, Denison Clift, the versatile author and director of the drama, has shown clearly the contrast between slave driving methods in handling industrial workers and the more efficient plan of sympathetic cooperation. His characters are finely drawn, in a style masterful and compelling. The play is one that will enjoy and be benefited by seeing. It is a thriller from start to finish, threaded by a vein of comedy and a charming love theme.

George McDaniel plays, and plays well, opposite Miss Travers.

every young girl, even when leading the most prosaic life, but when matched against the lively hunger of the feathered tribe of animals it is apt to meet disaster.

An amusing scene in "Jenny Be Good," Mary Miles Minter's new Realart picture now playing at the Murrette Theatre, holds this lesson for the romantically inclined young women of today. Jenny, played by Miss Minter, promises her lover that she will leave a trail of corn to the trysting place where they may meet.

She does so, dropping a winding trail of corn to the tree-house. But she had not reckoned on the rapacity of the barnyard folk in carrying out the legendary plan of the wood-chopper in the fairy story. They follow after in noisy pursuit of the unexpected fall of their favorite manna.

George Walsh kept everybody in his big cast on the jump during the making of "Sink or Swim," in which he is to appear at the Murrette Theatre on Friday and Saturday. The entire company felt that they would sink, not having any energy left to swim after this speedy comedy drama was finished. Walsh enjoyed the fun immensely, and physical fatigue appeared to be unknown to him.

WASHINGTON
In the romance of love beware of pitfalls. This is the keynote, theme and accompaniment of "The Invisible Divorce," which began a two days' showing at the Washington theatre yesterday.

A situation is depicted in which two couples find matrimony lacking in many of the elements of love's illusions. It is because of circumstances. Then ensues an entanglement which bids fair to wreck the lives of all concerned. Years pass before a true awakening brings reason and enlightenment to bear upon the situation.

This photo-drama has an excellent plot, with situations skillfully developed to lead up to a great climax. Sections of artistic life are mingled with scenes of the business world and other settings, making a colorful combination.

Excellent portrayal of the various roles is given by a highly capable cast, including Walter McGrail, Leatrice Joy, Walter Miller, Grace Darmond and Tom Bates. Lella Burton Wells is the author. Direction was by Thomas R. Mills.

A hotel for dogs and cats was opened a short time ago in London to care for the pets of persons leaving the city temporarily.

STATE MAY REVOKE UNIVERSITY CHARTER

An investigation at Indianapolis of charges that the Indiana Central university has been issuing degrees unlawfully was attended Friday morning by County Superintendent C. O. Williams. Mr. Williams is a member of the state board of education. A committee to probe the charges was appointed by that body.

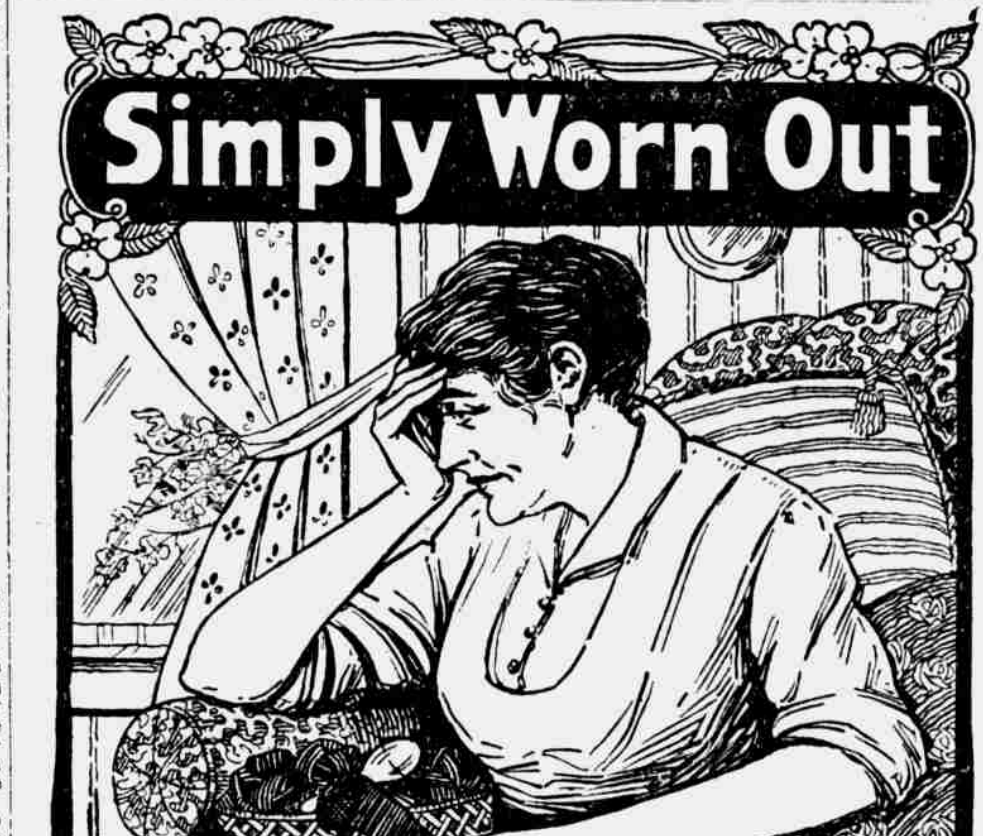

Central university was formerly a denominational institution in good standing which was abandoned as a sectarian school and finally became the property of private interests. It is alleged that the financial affairs of the school have been managed loosely.

It is said that degrees have been given without proper qualifications being required. It is alleged that a mail course has been given by means of which degrees were granted by correspondence.

The charter of the school will be revoked, authorities say, if it is found that the allegations are true. The college has the power to issue degrees under its original charter, but it must maintain the required standard or forfeit its right.

How Many Women Are Like This?
Can anything be more wearing for women than the ceaseless round of household duties? Oh! the monotony of it all—work and drudge; no time to be sick; tired, ailing, yet cannot stop. There comes a time when something "snaps" and they find themselves "simply worn out," and to make matters worse, have contracted serious feminine disorder which almost always follows the constant overtaxing of a woman's strength.

Then they should remember that there is no remedy like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—the experience of these two women establishes that fact:

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells that would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."
