GRAIN PRICES

CHICAGO, July 24.—Corn and oats news somewhat mixed. Some think crop news excellent. Spring wheat the Goodman 300 million guess too high. Bad spots continue to be reported. Winter wheat harvesting fast. The trouble is to find cars. Elsewhere, the farmer will have to hold wheat whether he wants to or not. Chicago exchange weakness, the north wheat sales, a private forecaster predicts very hot weather for the southwest coming and may be too hot in the central west. No particular rains in most of the corn belt for a week. Two cars of new oats at Chicago today. Bears predict a moderate break. Country buying in corn poor.

An angry weatherman or an inter-urban wreck are the only agencies that may stop Sunday's baseball scrap between the Richmond Eagles and Indianapolis Reserves at Exhibition park.

The line-ups for the battle head this yarn. And Manager Everett Haza says the traction company will furnish enough street cars to take care of the expected crowd. All women will be admitted free to the grand stand.

Final dope on the game is that Minnier will hurl for the Eagles. The game will be started at 2:45 p. m. Herbie Logan will umpire. The writer will be there with his score book.

KAYSEES NICE TRIP TO ABINGTON VIA TRUCK
Members of the Knights of Columbus baseball team are to assemble at the club rooms at noon, Sunday. A truck will haul the team to Abington. Maher, Glaser and Sharritt will compose the Kaysee battery.

It is absurdly easy for a woman to have a headache when she can't think of any other excuse.

REUTHER'S PITCHING GIVES REDS CLOSE GAME WITH GIANTS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 24.—Cincinnati broke its seventh losing streak of the season by defeating New York 1 to 0 at Redland field Friday. Credit for the game must go to Walter Reuther, crack Red southpaw. Although he gave three free tickets to first, he had the Giants completely baffled. He whiffed five but did not try to fan anyone except when the Giants began to threaten. Reuther was equally as good for the Giants. He held the Reds to one solid swipe and three scratch bingles until the eighth. Greasy Neale slammed a triple to center in this inning and scored on Allen's sacrifice fly. Two out were then made when Captain Groh soaked an entire triple. He was stranded.

Manager Moran announced that Hod Eller will hurl Saturday's game. Artie Neft will work for the Giants. Moran may send in Sallee and save Eller for Sunday, however. The score of Friday's game:
