

GREEK PROBLEM IS OUTLINED TO U.S. BY HIGH OFFICIAL

(By Associated Press)

ATHENS, July 25.—Greece's military position, her economic aspirations, and her attitude toward Balkan affairs and her policy with regard to the new territories to be taken over by Greece were explained to the Associated Press by Nicholas Politis, minister of foreign affairs, and right hand man of Premier Venizelos in the course of an interview today.

"From a purely military viewpoint we probably will be finished in Thrace this week," declared the minister, "and in a few months we will begin demobilization of our army in Asia Minor. It is already the role of Greece to begin work of reconstruction in these new territories and it is our design to make them fit to live in, not only for Greeks but for Turks and other nationalities. It is not our intention to pursue a policy of vengeance, but one of economic prosperity for all."

"It is a huge task," M. Politis continued. "These countries are fertile agriculturally and our main plan of development will be along these lines. But the problems of housing, roads, ports and forests are difficult ones, due to the wars and Turkish devastations."

Turks Easy to Govern
"Politically," he said, "the Turks have long been exploited by the Pashas, but they are the easiest people to govern so long as their religion is not touched. It is our intention to help maintain the mosques. We are so careful in this respect that we did all that was humanly possible to take Adrianople without damaging these master works there. We have already founded a Mohammedan chair in the University of Smyrna. We will do the same in Athens as well as expend sums to keep up Turkish schools. "Port development will be one of our first cares, since we are a maritime nation. We are surprised there are no American tenders for the big contracts we are letting for Piraeus and Saloniki and later for the development of the water power in Macedonia. Reconstruction means large preliminary expenditures, but we are not especially seeking credits, what we wish to do is to start work quickly so as to get quick returns."

Speaking on the resources which Greece had at her command, the foreign minister pointed out that the people of his country had 1,500,000,000 drachmas in actual wealth, independent of the government's resources, which were two billion drachmas annually, one half of which was used for maintaining the present army.

action for relief. This class profits by scarcity, but they do not cause it. "As every one knows now the difficulty is caused by a scarcity of material, an abundance of money, and sumption rather than production. Insufficient production. The government must reduce the amount of money as fast as it can without curtailing necessary credits. Production must be increased.

"One of the chief hindrances to production is lack of adequate railroad facilities. Transportation must be re-established.

"There must be a different public attitude toward industry, a larger comprehension for the interdependence of capital, management and labor, and better facilities for the prompt and reasonable adjustment of industrial disputes.

"The farmers need an enlarged power of organization whereby the original producer may profit to a larger degree by the high prices paid for his produce by the ultimate consumer, and at the same time decrease the cost of food. The economic strength of a country rests on the farm.

"But all these difficulties depend for final solution on the character and moral force of the nation. Unless these forces abound and manifest themselves in work done, there is no real remedy.

"There is especially due to the colored race a moral general recognition of their constitutional rights. Tempted with disloyalty they remained loyal, serving in the military forces with distinction, obedient to the draft to the extent of hundreds of thousands, investing $1 out of every $5 they possessed in Liberty bonds. Surely they hold the double title of citizenship by birth and by conquest, to be relieved from lynching, and to be freely granted equal opportunities.

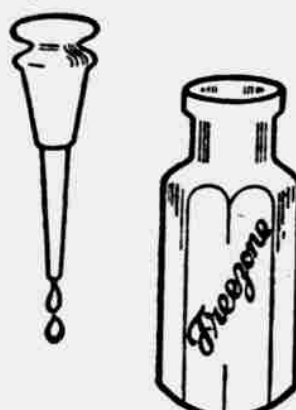

"Equal suffrage, for which I have always voted, is coming. It is not a party question, although nearly six-sevenths of the ratifying legislatures have been Republican. The party stands pledged to use its endeavors to

The nominee's front porch speech will be made on Saturday to a delegation from Mansfield, O., and the two additional dates announced are both for one week. On Wednesday, Aug. 4, the senator will speak to a delegation of Republicans from Wayne county, O., and on the following day will address the class on school administration at the state university. Marching clubs that have asked for appointments, but for whom no dates have yet been fixed, include one from Clinton, Ind.

A day devoted mostly to correspondence and recreation was planned by the presidential nominee, although he hoped he might begin work before night on his speech to be delivered Saturday to a visiting delegation from Mansfield, O.

TRUNK VICTIM WAS TO BECOME MOTHER

DETROIT, July 27.—A statement to the police by Mrs. Leo Trumbull, wife of a patrolman, that Mrs. Eugene Leroy, victim of Detroit's trunk murder mystery, had confided in her that she was about to become a mother, injected a new theory into the case today. Police today divided their attention between a hunt for Leroy, husband of the slain woman, and a second trunk, believed to contain the vital organs of the body, and which is known to have been sent from the Harper avenue apartment house where the Leroy's lived.

Police believe that examination of the organs might reveal whether death was due to a criminal operation, as has been hinted since Mrs. Trumbull made her statement.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 27.—Positive identification of the woman known as Mrs. Eugene Leroy, whose mutilated body was found jammed in a trunk by New York express company employees was claimed today by the Birmingham News.

The paper declares that the woman was Mrs. Katherine Jackson, 19, whose maiden name was Katherine Lou Foudren and that her home was at Sturgis, Miss.

Circuit Court

Harold H. Ball applied for a writ of habeas corpus before Judge W. A. Bond of the circuit court Tuesday to obtain possession of his daughter, Elizabeth, five years old, who was in the custody of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, of the Akron hotel on North Eighth street. He alleged that a divorce proceeding had given him custody of another child, Helen Rosetta, seven years old, and that Elizabeth was in the custody of her mother until her death. Ball alleged that the child's grandparents could not give her the attention she needed.

H. F. Drake brought a replevin action in circuit court Tuesday against John F. Sutton and others, engaged in business in Cambridge City under

PEACE TIME ARMY

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Army recruiting, usually slack during the summer, has been brisk this month, 8,632 men having been accepted up to July 20, Adjutant General Harris reported today. At this rate, he said, July should show 14,000 recruits for the new peace-time army. During June, 11,817 men were accepted, establishing a record since demobilization. Adjutant General Harris declared that the increase in recruiting largely was due to the army schools, which were recently established.
