One of the most beautiful parties of the summer season was given by Miss Virginia and Miss Janet Harris Thursday evening on the roof garden at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Harris, South Sixteenth street. The guests were received by Miss Gretchen and Miss Elizabeth Reller, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Reller, and Miss Virginia Youngflesh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Youngflesh, attractively dressed in summer frocks. The shrubbery on the lawn was dressed in Japanese lanterns and as the guests entered the roof garden a shower of loveliness met their eyes. The lattice work which entirely surrounds the roof garden was covered with summer flowers. Below each of the little Dutch windows in the lattice work was a flower box over which was suspended a Japanese lantern. At the top of the steps which reach the roof stood a tall lamp, and in one corner of the garden was a Victrola which furnished music during the evening. Each girl came dressed as a song and during the evening the guests guessed the song represented, the favors going to Miss Sarah Jessup, Miss Ruth Harrington and Miss Martha Jane Holcomb. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening and dainty refreshments were served to the following guests: Miss Mary Catherine Youngflesh, Miss Edith Lewis, Miss Emily Bailey, Miss Alice Starr, Miss Janice Meredith, Miss Martha Jane Holcomb, Miss Sarah Jessup, Miss Ruth Harrington, Miss Helen Robinson, Miss Reba Morgan, Miss Helen Sackman, Miss Margaret Coe, Miss Dorothy Coyle, Miss Anna Hale, Miss Mary Anne Swayzie, Miss Alice Lemon, Miss Ethel Tillman, Miss Mary McKee, Miss Harriet Ellis, Miss Lucia Masters, Miss Hilda Farmer, Miss Madge Townsend, Miss Catherine Reed, Miss Lucille Loutborrow, Miss Olive Thomas, Miss Julia Nye of Chicago, Miss Margaret Hatt, Miss Jane Johnson, Miss Geraldine Harter, Miss Martha Richter, Miss Emelyn Land, Miss Alice Carr, Miss Josephine Bartel, Miss Virginia Hodgins, Miss Rhea Wellbaum, Miss Mary Elizabeth Smith, Miss Alice Plummer, Miss Betty Coate and Miss Elizabeth Bell.

NEW FALL SKIRTS ARE OF PLAID OR CHECKED WOOL IN PLAIDED MODELS

Skirts promise to be as interesting this fall as they have been this summer, and that is saying a great deal. Plaid and checks are to continue popular with a few loud stripes to keep them company. Of course the importance of the separate skirt has made the blouse take on a new importance and we find even the overblouse has a new and interesting development. It is the tailored or semi-tailored models designed for wear with these plaid skirts and with business suits.

Here is a very smart outfit which features one of these tailored overblouses and a large velvet check skirt made with accordion pleats.

Mr. and Mrs. Mary Thompson, Miss Ida Plankenhorn, Miss Minnie Tingle, Miss Ada Railsback, Miss Florence Wickersham, Mrs. Daisy Watt and Mrs. Margaret Davis were made new members of the society.

Indiana High Schools

Are Low in Standing

More than half of the rural high schools of the United States, which offer four-year courses, and whose terms ran only 140 days a year or less, are in Indiana, according to a report received by E. B. Wetherow, state high school inspector, from the statistical division of the federal bureau of education. A report on the schooling offered in the rural high schools of the country, containing the figures, has been worked out by A. O. Neal, of the statistical division, and formerly state high school inspector for Indiana. The report shows that there are 94 rural high schools in the country, having 3,475 pupils, whose terms run 140 days or less. Of this number 51 are in Indiana, and they had 1,681 pupils last year. Of 1,039 schools, with 52,569 pupils, whose terms run from 141 to 160 days, 440 are in Indiana, and their pupils numbered 24,597 last year. Indiana has 87 rural high schools, with 7,229 pupils, whose terms run from 161 to 180 days, while the country has 6,155 such schools, with 437,805 pupils. The report also shows that Indiana has no rural high schools whose terms continue longer than 180 days, while Illinois has 139 such schools. There are 11,285 such schools in the country.

CONFESSES AND THEN DECIDES HE'LL CHANGE

NEW YORK, July 30.—Robert Baran, 30 years old, of Brooklyn, was taken to Bellevue hospital early today for psychopathic examination as a result of his alleged confession to responsibility for the murder of Patrolman O'Brien, of Rochester, for which crime Elmer Hyatt was electrocuted last night at Ossining.

Baran, who the police say, typed his confession, refused to sign it after being told that Hyatt had been executed an hour before.

"My life hangs on this; I must see my lawyer first," he said.

So extensively does powdered animal horn enter into native remedies in China that some of the larger medicine factories maintain herds of deer for their horns.
