

Society

Miss Lucile Haner, South Fourth street, will be hostess for a party Monday evening for the pleasure of Miss Florence Bartel, a bride-elect.

Miss Ann Nicholson, social chairman for the Richmond Country Club, has announced the following committee for August: Mrs. John H. Nicholson, chairman; Mrs. T. B. Jenkins, and Mrs. James A. Carr.

A number of young people formed a picnic party Sunday. Those enjoying the affair were Miss Josephine Hiatt, Miss Mary Rinehart, Miss Virginia Burr, of Detroit, Miss Helen Hill, of Detroit, Miss Esther Reid, Miss Olga Shelton, Miss Mildred Whitley, Harold Leach, Boyd Edwards, Marcellus Pohlmeier, John Livingston, James Sackman, David Rost and Stanley Youngflesh.

Miss Virginia and Miss Margaret Livingston, daughters of Mrs. Jean Livingston, North Eleventh street, have returned home after visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenberry, South Bend.

Mrs. Julian Cates returned to her home in Jacksonville, Florida, Saturday after spending six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gaar, North Thirteenth street.

Miss Helen Hazeltine, left Sunday morning for Detroit, to spend two weeks.

Miss Dorothy Dilks, Mrs. Grace Dilks Weller, George Dilks and two children, Theodore Hill, Miss Mary Evans and Miss Sarah Evans left Sunday for a motor trip through the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hazeltine left Sunday for South Dakota and Wyoming to spend a month.

Miss Elizabeth Tarkelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tarkelson, South Fourteenth street, has returned from Middletown, where she visited several days.

Miss Benita Monarch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lamar Monarch, Glenview, and James Mackenzie, of Kentucky, are spending several weeks in Philadelphia.

Miss Mildred Whitley, South Thirteenth street, will entertain the Omnis Melas Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, Miss Gladys Graham and Miss Alice Mario Graham, of Dayton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham, South Fourth street.

Miss Frances Evans, who has been spending several weeks in Chicago, has returned home.

Mrs. John E. Foley, North Fourteenth street, has returned from Chicago, where she had been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Highley.

Miss Leonora Walker has returned home after visiting with relatives and friends in Decatur, Ill.

Miss Margaret Quigley is visiting in Dayton, O.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brehm, Mary Louise Brehm, Miss Anna Dallas and Thornton Brehm and Miss Edith Brehm, of Fort Wayne, are at Lake James.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas and A. N. Tschannen will leave Monday evening for a two weeks' motor trip through the east.

Miss Ruby Cavenaugh has gone to Detroit, Mich., to visit with Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Kemper, nee Miss Marjorie Meagan, of this city.

Mack Slosser has gone to Fostoria, O., to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dalbey, South Twelfth street, have returned from a motor trip through Kentucky, visiting Mammoth Cave, Great Onyx Cave, Louisville, Lexington and other places.

Miss Agnes Kutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kutter, has gone to Flint, Mich., for an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. Herbert Scharff.

Mrs. Ed Wilkins, Linden avenue, will entertain the Golden Rod Needle club Tuesday afternoon. At this time arrangements will be made for a camping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnard Laymon, South Third street, entertained with a dinner Sunday for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wine.

Miss Pauline Mansfield who leaves soon for a residence in Washington, D. C., was the honor guest at a welter roast at Newmarket, Friday evening. In the party were Miss Pauline Mansfield, Miss Hazel Brumfield, Miss Mary Brumfield, Miss Josephine Washam, Miss Ruth Keeler, Miss Gladys Arnett, Miss Vera Blossom, Miss Clara Bode, Miss Lola Jones, Miss Elizabeth Hunt, Miss Goldie Triplett, Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Esther Harvey, Miss Elsie Hub, Miss Marjorie Erik, Luther Loehr, Ray Griffith, Gordon Triplett, Russell Stevens, Lowell Kinsey, William Scheller, Otto Wagner, Paul Williams, Basil Baker, Greek Jones, Elmer Darnell, Ben Carver, Orval Chandler and Glenn Carver.

Mrs. Charles Ackerman, 449 South Fifteenth street, will entertain the B. B. B. Thimble club Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Petry, North Twelfth street, are the guests of a six o'clock dinner Sunday for the pleasure of Albert Ruby of Indianapolis. The guests included Mrs. Frances Ruby, Miss Margaret Ruby, Miss Iva Ruby, Miss Maud Wysong of Hamilton, John Ruby, Albert Ruby and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Petry.

Mrs. O. A. Martin, 707 West Main street, will entertain the Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Smith, of Austin, Texas, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jay, College avenue.

The August meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Second English Lutheran church will be held at the church Wednesday. The day will be spent making comforts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McKeegan, of Rochester, N. Y., are the parents of a son, born July 28. Mrs. McKeegan was Miss Emerald Kemper, of this city.

The Medearis family reunion will be held Sunday, August 8, in Jackson park, instead of Maplewood.

Mrs. Andrew Minner and daughter, Helen Louise, have gone to Cincinnati and Portsmouth, O., to spend a week with friends and relatives.

Mrs. George Unthank and daughter, of Canton, O., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rich, north of the city.

Ralph Anderson has returned home after spending two months in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Blanche Bettelon and daughter, Lulu Mae, have returned to their home in Pittsburgh after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Anderson, South Eighth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geers, of 200 South Eighteenth street, were surprised by friends Sunday evening in celebration of their 20th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent with music and games. Refreshments were served.

A party of young people who have been camping during the past week at Henley's cabin were entertained with a dinner party Sunday by Clem Price at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price, West Main street. The guests included Miss Dorothy Lebo, Miss Dorothy Rees, Miss Marjorie Fortside of Indianapolis, Miss Edna Johnston, Miss Esther Fouts, Homer Meyers, Walter Stegman, Roland Loehr, Clem Price and Ralph Motley.

The following girls will motor into the country for a picnic supper Monday evening: Miss June Robinson, Miss Miriam Hutton, Miss Jean Salin of Lexington, Ky., Miss Lotha Chrow, Miss Helen Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Tarkelson, Miss Helen Eggeneyer, Miss Janet Seeker, Miss Juliet Nussbaum, Miss Mildred Nussbaum, Miss Vivian Harding, Miss Corinne Nussbaum, Miss Maxine Murray and Miss Elizabeth Bates.

525 Attend Christian Picnic; Many County Persons Appear As Part of Entertainment

Five hundred and twenty-five people were present at the union Sunday school service of the Christian churches of Wayne county held at Jackson park Sunday. Fully 1,000 attended the afternoon meeting, and it was generally accepted as the largest and best union meeting ever held.

A. A. Lindley, of Jacksonburg, was in charge of the Sunday school service which convened at 10 a. m. Following that service Charles Roland, of Richmond, president of the county organization, presided. A basket dinner was served after the communion service conducted by the Rev. G. I. Hoover, district evangelist.

George P. Rutledge, editor of the Christian Standard, of Cincinnati, was the principal speaker of the afternoon. A musical program was presented by the orchestra of the First Christian church of this city. Vocal numbers were given by members of the choir.

Other numbers included a duet by Harry Doty and Mrs. Wilson, of Milton; vocal solos by Mrs. Anna Horrell Miller, of Connersville, and George A. Fogel of Greensfork, singing evangelists; cornet duet by Robert Wilson and Everett Harlan both of Richmond.

"Ulations" Livens Up Dull Sunday at Harding Offices

MARION, O., Aug. 2.—Senator McCormick enlivened a dull Sunday at Harding headquarters and, incidentally, thrust a new word into the political campaign. Calling a stenographer he dictated two sentences without interruption.

"It is amusing to contrast Mr. White's outgivings," Senator McCormick went slowly, "with the contentions and uulations of the—"

"Hugh!" broke in the stenographer. "Lulu who?"

"U—u—u," enunciated Mr. McCormick patiently. "Not Lulu—ulations."

"Look it, senator; don't you mean undulations?" asked the stenographer, carefully patting her back hair.

"No, I mean undulations. You will find it in the dictionary."

Old man Noah Webster showed he was right. "Undulations," Noah said, "a howling, as of a dog or wolf; a walling." And on the preceding page he said: "Uulate: To howl, howl forth, shriek. To howl, as a dog or wolf; to wall; as undulating Jackals; also to hoot as an owl."

—contortions and undulations of the egregious Mr. Morgenthau. Senator McCormick continued in his dictation. But after "ulations" no difficulty arose over "egregious," and the remainder of a hitherto dull Sunday passed peacefully.

YOUR first and last thoughts when considering a Piano or Phonograph

Weigbroad's
MUSICALLY EVERYTHING
Opp. Postoffice Phone 1655

For Two Weeks

beginning today and during the writer's two weeks' vacation period, the D. & S. Drug Co. is pleased to announce that it will have with it J. A. Conkey, Ph. G., M. D., the store's former proprietor.

Dr. Conkey has promised to write us our regular Wednesday advertisement, as well as others, which to his many friends is "nuf sed." To those not knowing we may say that he wields a happy, snappy, nimble and fluent quill.

D&S Drug Co.
"WHERE QUALITY COMES FIRST"

Per E. E. Dafler

RUMANIA IS DEFIANT; REDS HAMMERING AT PORTALS OF WARSAW

(By Associated Press)

VIENNA, Aug. 2.—Rumania has served an ultimatum upon soviet Russia, giving the soviets three days to withdraw their troops from Rumanian territory, according to a Belgrade dispatch received here today.

WARSAW, Aug. 2.—Doubt was expressed today in diplomatic circles here as to whether an agreement for an armistice would come out of the negotiations between the Polish and soviet emissaries at Baranovitchi.

It was thought the soviet authorities were likely to insist upon terms too severe for the Poles to accept. The Polish delegates carried with them a less outfit which they intended to use for communication with Warsaw. Officials said this afternoon, however, that it might be days before the negotiations were heard from.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Hot fighting along the river Narew, in the region northeast of Warsaw, is reported in Sunday's official soviet communiqué received by wireless from Moscow today. A crossing of the river at one point by the Bolsheviks is announced and progress against the Poles further to the southeast, in the Bielsk region, is claimed. The soviet cavalry also is reported pressing in northeast of Lemberg. The statement reads:

"In the Lomza region fighting is continuing for the Poles of the river Narew. West of Bialystok the soviet troops have crossed the Narew and are continuing the pursuit of the enemy. West of Bielsk our troops debouched at the line of the River Suret (Nurac) forcing it at several points. In the region of Brody our cavalry has advanced as a result of fighting north of Busk. (Busk is 45 miles northeast of Lemberg). In the Chertkof region our advance is continuing."

Ohio Mothering Only Four Candidates for President

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 2.—Ohio, the "mother of presidents," now has four nominees on four tickets in the presidential and vice presidential derby. Three are editors and publishers and the fourth is the head of a book publishing house. Two candidates for vice president are Clevelanders.

In addition to James M. Cox, Democratic nominee for president, editor and publisher of the Dayton News and Springfield News, and Warren G. Harding, Marion, Republican nominee for president, editor and publisher of the Marion Star, the new additions to Ohio's list are:

Max S. Hayes, Cleveland, Farmer-Labor party's nominee for vice president, editor and publisher of the Cleveland Citizen, a weekly labor paper, and Richard C. Barnum, Cleveland, Single Tax party's nominee for vice president. He is head of a book publishing company and is regarded here as the tallest candidate who has ever aspired to that office. He stands six feet eight inches in his stocking feet. He was born in Texas 39 years ago.

Mrs. Elmer Skinner, 39, Is Dead at Home in Bethel

Mrs. Elmer Skinner, 39 years old, died at her home in Bethel Saturday at 6:20 p. m., of cancer, after an illness of two years. She has been a resident of Bethel for five years.

Surviving relatives are her husband and one son, Mesker, her mother, Mrs. Emma Chenoweth, and five brothers, Kerrie and Charles Chenoweth, of Richmond, Raymond and Earnest Chenoweth, of Glen Karn, O., and Frank Chenoweth, of Findlay, O.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m., at the Bethel Christian church. Burial will be in Arba.

It is estimated that automobiles and automobile insurance cost the people of this country $600,000,000 annually.

Corrine Roosevelt Robinson

One of the three New York members of the executive committee of the Republican national campaign this year is Mrs. Corrine Roosevelt Robinson, sister of the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt and widow of Theodore Douglas Robinson.

Mrs. Robinson naturally became interested in politics early in her career. She has been one of the most active of the women Republican workers and achieved no little distinction as a result of the speech she made recently at the Chicago convention of the party in seconding the nomination of Leonard Wood. She made a brief but direct and forceful talk.

Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Besides her work in politics, Mrs. Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

Gen. Wood falling of the nomination, Mrs. Robinson, although disappointed, immediately gave her support to the Harding campaign, giving these two reasons for supporting the Republican candidates:

"They are the nominees of the Republican party; I believe them to be 100 per cent Americans of proved patriotism who have not failed to show marked efficiency and ability in public office."

Robinson finds time occasionally to write poems. One of these, "At Sagamore the Chief Lies Low," is regarded as one of the most remarkable of the many rhymed tributes to her famous brother yet published.

OFFICE OPENED FOR CITY'S CHAUTAUQUA

The office of the Richmond chautauqua opened at the Y. M. C. A. Monday, and 40 reservations have already been made by old campers. Prospects are encouraging and it is believed that the camp this year will be a large one.

Old campers will be served first and may make their reservations at the office any time this week. On Aug. 9 an opportunity will be given for new campers to make their choices.

Tickets will be on sale about the middle of the week. Adult season tickets will cost $2.50, while those for children under 12 can be purchased at $1.00. Tickets will be on sale at the following places:

Y. M. C. A., Second National bank, Jenkins and company, Sam Fred, Yes and Now Drug company, George Fox, Neff & Nussbaum, First National bank, Hoosier Store, Quigley's Drug store, O. E. Dickinson, Thompson and Borton, Model Clothing company, Lee B. Nussbaum company, Locher & Klute, Nicholson Brothers, Dickinson Trust company, Charles Haner, American Trust & Savings, Jay, Jeweler, George Nolte, Price & Sons, Reed Furniture store, Fulghum Victrola shop, Doan & Doan, H. H. Toler, John R. Hawekotte grocery, Starr Piano store, Bartel & Robe, Kandy Shop, D. S. Drug company, Romey Furniture store, Boston store, George H. Knollenberg company, Kennedy Clothing company, Union National bank and Adam H. Bartel company.

MISS KRAMER PLAYING ORGAN IN EATON CHURCH
EATON, O., Aug. 2.—Miss Gennett Kramer, Richmond, Ind., has been engaged to play the pipe-organ in the local Methodist church and has taken up the work. She delighted a large audience at the local church Sunday. Miss Kramer will continue her work here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kramer, of Richmond, Ind.

here until this fall when she returns to New York to continue her music studies, which she took up there a year ago. Local musicians predict for her a front rank as a pipe-organist. She is a graduate of a college of music in Indianapolis. Miss Kramer is a daughter of Mr.