

RALLY OF METHODISTS AT WINCHESTER DRAWS 2,500 PEOPLE SUNDAY

WINCHESTER, Aug. 25.—The rally held on the court house campus, Sunday, by the Methodist churches, of Randolph county, was a great success. The crowd was estimated at 2,500. Fully 1,000 persons were unable to get seats during the exercises.

A concert given by the Farmland band preceded each service. The singing was in charge of the Rev. Mr. Bean, of Union City, with Mrs. Harry Pierce, at the piano.

Mayor Merl Chenoweth, gave the address of welcome, to which Dr. Somerville Light, superintendent of the Richmond district, responded. Dr. Light also introduced all the pastors whose congregations participated in the rally, and the several visiting ministers. Bishop Frederick D. Leete, who for 8 years was located at Atlanta, Ga., and has recently taken charge of the new Indiana area, was present and preached a sermon.

In the afternoon the exercises were in charge of the Rev. O. T. Martin, pastor of the Winchester church, who was instrumental in bringing about the day of Methodism. Dr. Morrison one of the special field men of the North Indiana conference, made a short talk which was followed by an address by Senator James E. Watson. Tables were arranged on the north side of the campus, where every one enjoyed an old-fashioned basket dinner. A large number of persons drove to Union City in the evening to hear Bishop Leete at the M. E. church, in that city.

Old Settlers' Day
The 23rd annual gathering of Jay and Randolph county residents in Ridgeville for Old Settler's Day was largely attended. The crowd was estimated at 14,000. Ridgeville merchants closed their places of business at noon and flocked to the park. Airplane flights and Indianapolis acrobats helped to thrill the crowd. Baseball furnished entertainment for many both morning and afternoon. Free dinners were furnished to dozens of old men and women who were past 80 years of age, and later in the day prizes were offered.

Get Prizes

A silk umbrella was presented to William E. Murray, 86, of Winchester, the oldest man present. A similar prize was given to Mrs. Sarah Jane Barrie, 79, of Ridgeville, oldest woman there at the time the prizes were awarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nicholson, of Ridgeville, who have been married 54 years, were given a clock for being the oldest married couple present.

Judge E. E. McGriff and Dr. C. A. Paddock, of Portland, delivered addresses. Many speakers, including old residents, were called on for short talks, the speakers all recalling the pioneer days of eastern Indiana.

MINISTER DROWNS SELF IN WABASH AT LAFAYETTE

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 25.—Following a search of four days, the body of the Rev. Raymond E. Brubaker, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Kirklin and Hopewell, in Clinton county, was found in the Wabash river near this city.

Last Friday the Rev. Mr. Brubaker came to this city. He consulted for a time with Martin Guest, secretary of the local Presbyterian congregation and complained of illness. Mr. Guest took him to a local physician who prescribed medicine and rest.

The minister was then taken to the Y. M. C. A. and assigned room. He left the building some time during the night and was first missed Saturday morning.

CROWD SURROUNDED HALL; PRISONERS ARE THREATENED

DAYTON, Ohio, Aug. 25.—A large crowd surrounded the city hall Tuesday when Charles D. Jones, Saltillo, Va., and Clarence Bevans, Thermopolis, Wyo., were arraigned in police court on the charge of having murdered Morris Herman, pawnbroker, who was beaten on the head with a black jack.

The men were arrested at Middletown and were returned to this city pending the outcome of the merchant's injuries. The prisoners did not know that Herman had died until they appeared in court. They waived examination and were bound over to the grand jury.

CANT PLAY HARDING

RECORDS AT STATE FAIR

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 25.—Phonograph records as proxy for Senator Harding at the state fair, Aug. 31, presidential day, were tabooed by the fair management.

Request was made for space for a tent seating 2,000 persons, it was said.

The plan was to have Republican speakers and Harding phonograph records present the Republican cause daily.

Senator Harding lives within 40 miles of Columbus and if he wants his speeches delivered at the state fair, he ought to come and deliver them himself," E. W. Walborn, fair manager, declared.

FIRST PILGRIM PAGEANT PRESENTED AT NORTH TRURO

(By Associated Press)

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 25.—The first ter-centenary Pilgrim pageant of the year is being presented today at North Truro, Mass., "way down along Cape Cod, in a natural amphitheatre overlooking a fresh water pond where the Pilgrim Father's camped.

One hundred and sixty townsfolk of North Truro and Corn Hill will impersonate Pilgrims, Indians and sailors of the period. Features of the pageant include the looting of a deserted Indian wigwam by the Pilgrims, a duel between two of the Mayflower company, fought over a maid servant: the kidnapping of a lost child by the savages, and an exciting encounter between the Indians and Pilgrims. Between the episodes a group of 25 barefooted girls will dance four numbers.

Providence, R. I., was the first city in the United States to have open-air schools.

HOOSIER

SAVES MILES OF STEPS

Larger Table Space

EVEN the small kitchen is provided with an unusually large table-space by means of the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet.

The step-saving Hoosier not only concentrates all the kitchen work in a single compact spot—but does it without cluttering up the actual working space.

The Hoosier has an extra large sliding work-table of pure aluminum or white porcelain, with provision for the food grinder at one end.

And with the body of the cabinet itself free from all partitions and obstructions, thus doubling the table-space. Flour sifter is at the left, sugar spout at the right—spices in a revolving caster within easy reach.

No wonder so many women prefer the Hoosier. An initial payment of $1.00 puts the Hoosier in your home.
