GRAIN PRICES

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Corn market supported by bullish wheat talk based on the small 2 million visible, and little chance of an increase for some time. Outsiders are not buying corn or wheat and the next good corn bulge may start from $1.10 for December if we get the promised increase in receipts. World news is decidedly unhelpful. English trade trend is lower. If the wheat market decreases next week corn should also be lower. The farmers in Kansas will have to sell their wheat and meet outstanding notes. We do not share the idea of a tight oats situation late in September, due to liberal sales to the east.

"Y" Dorm Capacity Will Be Increased

Plans for increasing the capacity of the dormitory were announced by Julian L. Smith, general secretary, at a get-together meeting of the men at supper Friday evening.
Smith said that as the dormitory had been provided to take care of young men away from home, who drew only moderate salaries, that a greater number of men would be accommodated by adding another bed in every room that was large enough to care for two.

Every man present rose and gave his name, where he worked, and the state from which he came. The results showed that the "Y" is a cosmopolitan home, for the men came from nine different states, and two foreign countries.

Arthur L. Smith, of the Second National bank, spoke on the value of the association. He said that there are 30,000 members of the Y. M. C. A. in Indiana, and that the total value of the property owned by the several associations in the state was $3,000,000.
