

MRS. WILCOX SPEAKS ON SECOND DAY OF PREBLE CO. INSTITUTE

EATON, O., Aug. 31—Mrs. Belle Wilcox, of Dayton, O., supervisor of writing in the public schools in that city, today addressed the Preble County Teachers' Institute at both the morning and afternoon sessions. Both of her addresses dealt with methods of teaching writing.

While the attendance at the institute Monday, the opening day, was quite large, an increase in attendance today was noted. The enrollment of school teachers Monday was about 125. Additional registrations were made today with Miss Gertrude McShane, secretary of the institute. Teachers will receive $2 each for each day's attendance at the institute.

The sessions of the institute are being held in the public auditorium in the courthouse. Instead of the opera house, as previously announced. Dr. J. L. McBrien, lecturer of the week, today presented an address morning and afternoon. His lectures deal with the various phases of education.

Mrs. F. T. Cartwright, state health department, addressed the meeting this afternoon on "Public Health and Morals." Her address was regarded as embracing many very timely suggestions.

Miss Mabel Rich, representing a talking machine company, spoke on the subject of music at both sessions today. The advocates music in the rural home. She demonstrated a musical machine after each address.

A brief business session was held this morning. The Rev. A. J. Bussard, Methodist church, opened the meeting this morning with devotional exercises.

Wednesday at the institute is designated as "Patrons' Day." At the morning session a conference on "Suggestions for Improvement of Our Schools" will be held, in which Byron Landis, Eaton; Dr. C. M. Wilcox, New Paris; S. L. Youchum, Camden, and Mrs. Pearl Young, Gratis, will participate as leaders. The conference will be followed by a general discussion of the subject.

Other members on the morning program include devotional exercises by the Rev. J. E. Yingling, United Brethren church; address, Dr. McBrien, and a vocal solo by Hubert Conarroe.

T. H. Williams, state public instruction department, will address the afternoon session. A question box for patrons and teachers will be conducted. Dr. McBrien will answer the questions submitted. Hubert Conarroe will sing a solo.

Asks Mandatory Injunction.
Mandatory injunction and $200 damages are sought in an action filed in common pleas court by T. J. Stebbins against Alice Dinninger. The suit is based on alleged destruction of a cellar overflow drain and Stebbins asks the court to compel the defendant to restore the drain. He claims the destruction of the drain caused the cellar to overflow and flood his cellar, causing $200 damage. The drain in question crossed land of the defendant to an outlet.

Stebbins avers he bought the property, East Main street, Eaton, from W. H. Orr, in February, 1919, and that in June, 1914, Orr bought the property from Alice Dinninger. He avers that she had full knowledge of the drain and that he had an easement thereto. The defendant is building a residence property at Main and Maple streets, next door to Stebbins.

BABY NAMED LYDIA E.

Because Her Mother Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I could not write all my thanks for your blessed medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in a very bad condition and had lost two babies. One of my good friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after I had taken eight or ten bottles I felt like a different woman. I kept on taking it until my baby girl was born last month and we have had her christened Lydia Elizabeth. I wish you to publish my letter to benefit other women who are suffering as I was."—Mrs. KATHERINE KURZBACHER, 1050 Manhattan Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Women who suffer from any feminine ailment should not lose hope until they have tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The many convincing testimonials constantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough for women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they need.

Chevalier Services Held.
Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie Chevalier, 59, widow, who died Sunday evening at her home near Scuffle-town, seven miles northeast of Eaton, were held this afternoon at her late home and were conducted by the Rev. A. J. Bussard, Methodist church, Eaton. Burial was here in Mount Hill cemetery. Two daughters, Misses Mabel and Gladys, at home, survive her. She lived all her life in Preble county. Her maiden name was Owens.

Rev. Yingling Returned.
Return of the Rev. J. Elmer Yingling to the pastorate of the local United Brethren church by the district conference at Arcanum is a source of much pleasure to the membership of the church. Mr. Yingling now enters upon his sixth consecutive year as pastor of the church. At the conclusion of his sixth year it is understood Mr. Yingling will be eligible for retirement.

The conference returned all former pastors of all the United Brethren churches in Preble county, with the exception of one, the Rev. G. A. Wahl, of Lewisburg, going to Olivet church, Dayton. His successor at Lewisburg is the Rev. M. W. Mumma.

Other returned pastors are: Verona and Ithaca, J. A. Pantle; Eldorado, A. C. Barnhardt; New Hope, O. D. Wellbaum; West Elkton, E. S. Weimer;

West Manchester, O. F. Bilger.

The Rev. M. L. Comfort, transferred from Arcanum to Belmont church, Dayton, is a former pastor of the Eaton church.

AUTO OVERTURNS; PARENTS INJURED; BABY ESCAPES.
ANDERSON, Ind., Aug. 31—When an auto driven by Bernard Davis of this city rolled down an eight-foot embankment and overturned one-mile south of Pendleton, Mrs. Davis was seriously hurt, and Mr. Davis was cut and bruised, but their one-year-old infant was uninjured. Mr. Davis says that he was crowded into the ditch by a truck which threw a spotlight, blinding him. The machine was demolishing. The family was enroute from a visit in Indianapolis when the accident occurred.

SHIP COMPANIES INDICTED FOR RESTRAINT OF TRADE.
NEW YORK, Aug. 31—Forty-two steamship companies, and freight brokers, including virtually all the big trans-Atlantic lines, were indicted by Federal grand jury here today on charges of conspiracy and restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. An injunction and dissolution suit against the defendants named in the indictments as members of the Steamship Freight Brokers' association and the Associated Freight conferences was entered simultaneously.

What the U.S. Rubber Company has done for the Small Car Owner

PROGRESS in any industry is marked by certain well defined steps—each step a positive contribution to the well-being or economy of part or all of the people affected by the industry.

No more positive benefit with respect to a saving in time and money has ever been conferred on the small car owners of this country than the creation of the clincher type of tire.

A product of the foresight and experience of the United States Rubber Company—the oldest and largest rubber organization in the world.

The United States Rubber Company has never assumed that because a man owned a small car he was necessarily lacking in a true appreciation of quality.

U.S. 30 x 3 1/2-inch tires are built as well and as carefully and as honestly as the largest size tires are built.

In a factory devoted exclusively to this size tire.

By workmen trained and skilled in the production of Clincher Tires.

Go to a legitimate dealer when you want a small size tire.

He knows what the United States Rubber Company has done in the interests of the small car owner. And he knows the wisdom of putting the small car owner's interests above his own.
