

MONTENEGRO FRIEND SAYS SERBIAN FORCES STOPPED RELIEF WORK

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Sept. 7.—Charges that the Serbian military forces have stopped a British and a Canadian mission from doing relief work in Montenegro are made by Alex Devine of Winchester in a statement he has just issued.

Mr. Devine describes himself as a friend of Montenegro whose "only interest in that country is that it shall have a chance of determining its own fate—a right that has been denied to Montenegrins alone of all the recognized allied nations, owing to the forcible seizure of the country by Serbian troops." Mr. Devine denies the report that he is a "paid agent" of Nicholas, formerly king of Montenegro.

Mr. Devine alleges that the British relief mission was prevented from entering Montenegro by the Serbian military forces acting on orders from Belgrade and under threats of violence was compelled to retire to a base in Italy.

According to Mr. Devine, the Canadian Medical mission, headed by Colonel Burnham, which had been operating in Montenegro for some time also has been stopped. He states that Colonel Burnham has appealed to the British foreign secretary for protection. Mr. Devine quotes Colonel Burnham as accusing the Serbians of seizing the boats and material of the mission and of terrorizing his people. Mr. Devine says:

"Colonel Burnham says that he has been threatened with assassination and that the mission is spied on to such an extent that even the sick are afraid to come to the hospital for relief. The colonel adds:

"When the veil is lifted from the condition of affairs which will come as a rude shock to those who have put their confidence and given their help to Serbia. The reign of terror is complete, there are not many Montenegrins, and in another year there will be none left. The entire country is mourning and it is no longer possible for these people to exist, many have lost their reason and all are in the direst distress. Montenegro is being done to death."

New State Freight Rates Not Effective Until October

According to announcements made at railroad offices the intrastate increase in freight rates will not be effective until October. The interstate rates went into effect some time ago, but the local increase will have to be thoroughly gone into by the public service commission of this state. The rate cannot be applied without consent of the state commission.

The commission has had the matter of an adjustment under advisement for some weeks now, and probably are in position to make a final report on it, but the matter of the Illinois rates has to be considered and for that reason the commission will appear before the interstate commerce commission, at Chicago, Sept. 8. The Illinois board will be represented at the hearing.

The report of the Indiana board will be withheld until the agreement to rates between that board and the Illinois board has been reached.

A hard fight has been on for the last several years by Indiana shippers to effect an equalization of rates in these states, in order that Indiana manufacturers and shippers will not be handicapped by Illinois shippers, who have had a lower rate for many classes of freight.

Only shortly before the increase in freight rates was sanctioned by the interstate commission an adjustment had been made between these two states.

J. A. O. Preus

The digit "8" is the mascot numeral for J. A. O. Preus, whom the Republicans have nominated for governor of Minnesota. First, he was born in 1883—that's two "8's"—then they named him J. A. O. Preus—just 8 letters. Just 8 years after he graduated from Luther college Governor Eberhart of Minnesota appointed him state insurance commissioner. He was twice elected state auditor for four years each, making 8. On May 8, last, the Republican state convention inducted him for governor. But the "8" that made him happiest was January 8, when Mrs. Preus presented him with a bouncing 8-pound boy.

Preus, one of the most popular young men who ever held office in Minnesota, is only thirty-seven years old, but he has accomplished a great deal in administrative measures for public welfare. He is of Norwegian extraction. His grandfather, who came to the United States in 1850, and his father were ministers of the gospel.

Preus's friends are predicting great things for him in national politics about 8 years hence.

Three Killed, Two Hurt In Niagara Wind Cave

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Three persons were killed and two injured Monday by a fall of rock in the Cave of the Winds under Niagara falls.

The dead are: A. Hartman, 4418 Avenue P, Brooklyn, N. Y.; his wife, Louise Hartman, and Clara M. Faust, 2658 Norwood avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. The injured are: T. W. Lee, 44 South Twenty-second streets, Pittsburgh, and Frank E. Haehling, 83 Clarendon avenue, Detroit, Mich.

The party was on one of the bridges when a slide of shale rock fell upon them. The bodies of the dead have not been recovered and it may take days to dig them out of the debris. The identification was made at the office at the entrance to the Cave of the Winds, where visitors register.

ANOTHER HOME IS BENEFITTED FROM USE OF TRUTONA

Fact Is Revealed When Terre Haute Woman Tells of Relief Given Husband

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 7.—Trutona has brought the sunshine of good health into another Terre Haute home. It is that of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Jones, well-known local people, who live at 1523 South Sixteenth street. The fact is revealed in the following enthusiastic and grateful statement made recently by Mrs. Jones, in which she tells of the remarkable benefits her husband has derived through the use of the Perfect Tonic.

"For months," Mrs. Jones said, "my husband had been suffering from run-down condition of the system. He complained of feeling so tired all the time, and said he lacked energy, so that he didn't enjoy his work. My husband's appetite was very poor, and he said his meals never tasted good. Mr. Jones realized that he needed some good tonic, to tone up his general system, and as we had been reading so much about the wonderful medicine in the papers, he decided to try Trutona."

"The benefits my husband has gained have convinced me that Trutona is certainly a wonderful tonic. Mr. Jones just told me a few days ago how much better he was feeling, and I know his appetite is much improved, as I've never seen him eat as much as he does now. He says he feels full of life these days, and is enjoying his work now."

"I'm sure Trutona's a wonderful tonic, and I'm glad to recommend it." Trutona is sold in Richmond at Quigley's drug stores.—Advertisement.

VISITORS AT MODOC KILLED BY A TRAIN

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Sept. 7.—Miss Merle Adamson, 27 years old, daughter of L. E. Adamson, 1439 West Twenty-seventh street, Indianapolis, and Donald Byrd, 32 years old of Franklin, Ind., were killed Monday when a westbound Big Four passenger train struck the automobile in which they were riding two miles west of here.

Miss Adamson was a stenographer in the offices of the Lake Erie & Western railway, Indianapolis, and with her mother and Byrd had spent the weekend at Modoc, Randolph county, visiting relatives. This morning when the party started back Mrs. Adamson decided to take the train and Miss Adamson and Byrd assured her they would meet the train at Indianapolis.

Mother on Death Train.
Mrs. Adamson was a passenger on the train which struck the automobile. She had a premonition of the impending tragedy and just before the automobile was hit remarked to a fellow passenger that she felt concerned over the safety of her daughter and told of her trip back home in the automobile. The crossing is not regarded as dangerous.

The train was in charge of William Haymaker, conductor, and James McEnney, engineer, both of Springfield, O. The engineer stated he sounded the warning for the crossing and that the automobile suddenly came on the track in front of the engine. The train ran a quarter of a mile before being stopped and backed into the city with the bodies. Byrd was prominent at Frankfort. He served as a lieutenant in the field artillery during the world war.

Important Documents of Last Days of Empire Lost

(By Associated Press)
VIENNA, Sept. 7.—So many important records of the last days of the empire have disappeared from the files that the War Archives commission has been forced to appeal to officers and officials to come forward with verbal testimony or personal papers in order to complete the history of the period.

It is presumed that these documents were removed at the instance of officials upon whom they reflected unpleasantly or to hide personal plots. The government promises indemnity from punishment for any offense which the testimony they seek might disclose so that the complete history of the breakdown, both on the war fronts, and internally, may be written.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Two aviators were killed Monday afternoon when a naval seaplane in which they were flying crashed to the ground a short distance from the Forest Hills tennis court, and within view of the crowd watching the finals in the national all-comers' title tournament.

The aviators had been circling over the courts when their engine suddenly stopped and the plane dropped, plunging into the ground just across the railroad tracks from the tennis courts.

The bodies were identified as Lieutenant J. M. Grier, U. S. N., and Sergeant Saxe, of the army, both stationed at Mitchell Field, New York.

FOREIGN WOMEN NOT YET VOTERS IN INDIANA, RULE
The question of whether Indiana can discriminate between men and women when it prescribes qualifications for voters who are not citizens, is a state and not a federal question, according to an opinion the state board of election commissioners has received from the attorney-general of the United States.

Consequently, the board points out that under the Indiana constitution, while the federal amendment has placed men and women citizens on a par, the federal amendment has not affected the constitutional provisions permitting persons other than citizens to vote.

This special class of electors in Indiana is not constituted of citizens, and so is not affected by the federal amendment. The class is prescribed by the state constitution as males, foreign born, more than 21 years old, who have declared their intention to become citizens. Women, foreign born, and of the same ages, and who have declared their intention of becoming citizens, or women, whether foreign born or not, who are wives of men in the special class, can not vote under the Indiana constitution, which in this particular, has not been affected by the federal equal suffrage amendment.

Government of Brazil To Build and Sell Homes

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 7.—Both federal and municipal governments are about to take action to relieve the shortage of houses here.

In the chamber of deputies a bill has been introduced for a special bond issue of $50,000,000 for the construction of houses for working families. In the municipal council a measure was presented providing that all workers' houses built in the next two years be free from the usual municipal taxes.

The federal bill proposes the construction, under the municipal administration, of 20,000 houses in various districts of the capital wherever nationally or municipally owned ground is available. It is intended that the houses shall be sold to heads of working families, payment being spread over a period of 20 years. In addition, the bill provides for the construction of two huge apartment houses, for families and for bachelors, respectively, with common kitchens and other communal installations, the rent being placed at a very low figure.
