Notice to Subscribers.

In common with newspapers the country over, The Palladium is undergoing the experience of constantly increasing costs of production.

Newspaper workers, like everyone else, have suffered from increased living costs. They have consequently received large increases in salaries and wages.

Print paper used to cost $2.25 a hundred pounds. An increase that took effect September 1st brings the present cost to $6.50 a hundred pounds, an advance of 18¢ per cent.

It is necessary, therefore, to ask subscribers to pay a little more for their newspaper. Beginning with this week the price for The Palladium, delivered by carrier in Richmond, will be 15 cents per week.

lish language and to understand a little of American ways and institutions. They do understand the needs of soldiers, however, for military organization is no new thing to them from their experience in the old world. Many people are inclined to give a fair share of credit for the successful issue of the half century fight to secure the passage of the prohibition amendment to the policy that was adopted many years ago by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of having the children in the public schools instructed in the nature of the alcoholic beverages and their effect upon human tissue.

Children thus impressed with the conviction that a similar reaction would follow the introduction of alcoholic material into their stomachs have grown into a generation of voters who have sent men to congress to vote upon the question of prohibiting the manufacture, sale or importation of alcoholic beverages within the boundaries of the United States.

The same program is being adopted in Uruguay, that country in South America which is now engaged in an energetic fight for prohibition.

Active campaigns for the million membership of the W. C. T. U. are underway in many states. Organization such as was developed during the war when subscriptions to Liberty loans, Red Cross membership and other drives were the order of the day, is being employed, the women of the local unions working each with a definite task to perform, a definite effort to make.

The W. C. T. U. is just completing a campaign for a million dollar Jubilee fund, through which to celebrate the enactment of the Eighteenth amendment after half a century of ceaseless effort.

The campaign for membership is in most states being carried on through the churches, an effort being made to enroll each church member of whatever sect in the ranks of the W. C. T. U. A duplication of ideals and ambitions in the churches and in this organization of women should make the churches a fertile field to cultivate. The introduction of the W. C. T. U. enthusiasm for good work in the church membership will serve to enlarge the scope of church activities.

Mrs. Ella Boole, vice-president-at-large of the W. C. T. U., is a candidate for nomination for United States senator from New York. Mrs. Boole was designated by the Prohibition party in their state convention and has accepted the honor and obligation.

The Victorian class of the Grace Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Herry, at her home, 2314 North F street, Wednesday at 2:30 p. m.

LETTER FROM MRS. BRUCE

Tells Remarkable Story of Sickness and Recovery.

Brooksville, Ind.—"When I was a young girl I clerked in my father's store and lifted heavy weights, which caused displacement and I suffered greatly.

I was married at the age of eighteen and went to a doctor about my trouble and he said if I had a child I would be all right.

After three years twins came to us and I did get all right but three years later a baby boy came and I was troubled again. A neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it for a year or more. Now I have a baby girl and do not have any female trouble. You can do anything you like with my letter to help others."

Mrs. J. M. Bruce, R. F. D. 3, Brooksville, Ind.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for more than forty years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

Beware of the Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.

New York women have been fully enfranchised and will vote on equal terms with the men in the November elections. Mrs. Boole has been active in all departments of women's work in New York, has a considerable political following, and she can be expected to receive the support of a large body of New York women organized under the League of Women Voters in their campaign opposed to the election of Senator Wadsworth, whose nomination by the Republicans was recommended by the Republicans in the state Republican convention held recently in Saratoga Springs.

Mrs. Boole has opened her campaign and will continue definitely in the political ring until the election of the electorate of the state has been rendered.

It is necessary, therefore, to ask subscribers to pay a little more for their newspaper. Beginning with this week the price for The Palladium, delivered by carrier in Richmond, will be 15 cents per week.
