SAVE FOR DAY NURSERY.

The housewives of Richmond are urged to save old papers, rags, rubber and other material that lends itself to the purposes of conservation, for the Day Nursery. The annual drive for this material is now on. The Day Nursery has made arrangements with a firm to collect the matter. The proceeds of the sale will be used for the institution. The exact date of collection has not been determined, but in the meantime housewives are urged to save the material.

The graduate nurses of Reid Memorial hospital had a wiener and marshmallow roast at Thistlewaite Falls Monday evening. Those in the party were Miss Gladys Williams, Mrs. Lon Schutte, Mrs. Paul Schwalter, Miss Arline Steen, Miss Blanche Boyd, Miss Leon Nierman, Miss Edna Cornelius, Miss Martha Swowalter, Miss Katharine Daub, Miss Ethel Updike, Miss Ruth Holzappel, Miss Martha Nie-wochner and Miss Edna Rich.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrup, and easier to use. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ANOTHER HOME IS BENEFITED FROM USE OF TRUTONA

Fact Is Revealed When Terre Haute Woman Tells of Relief Given Husband

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 4.—Trutona has brought the sunshine of good health into another Terre Haute home. It is that of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Jones, well-known local people, who live at 1522 South Sixteenth street. The fact is revealed, in the following enthusiastic and grateful statement made recently, by Mrs. Jones, in which she tells of the remarkable benefits her husband has derived, through the use of the Perfect Tonic.

"For months," Mrs. Jones said, "my husband had been suffering from a run-down condition of the system. He complained of feeling so tired all the time, and said he lacked energy, so that he didn't enjoy his work. My husband's appetite was very poor, and he said his meals never tasted good. Mr. Jones realized that he needed some good tonic, to tone up his general system, and as we had been reading so much about the wonderful medicine in the papers, he decided to try Trutona."

"The benefits my husband has gained have convinced me that Trutona is certainly a wonderful tonic. Mr. Jones just told me a few days ago how much better he was feeling, and I know his appetite is much improved as I've never seen him eat as much as he does now. He says he feels full of life these days, and is enjoying his work now."

"I'm sure Trutona's a wonderful tonic, and I'm glad to recommend it." Trutona is sold in Richmond at Clem Thistlewaite's seven drug stores.—Advertisement.

Heart Problems

Four years ago I married a man with high ideas. I also had them. We started out just fine, but after two years a baby came and also trouble. About two months of good heartache brought me to my senses. I started at once to find what the trouble was and try to correct it. I felt that life was pretty hard toward me when I could not have the things I was used to having, but it was my own fault.

My baby was then a care. When I discovered my husband was admiring all the pretty faces on the street it was the last straw, and I soon came to myself. Was I jealous? Surely, but my husband would never find it out from me. Neither would I go home to mother. I was too proud for that.

I made haste to see that I was the one to be admired and not others.

When hubby came home I tried to have his meals ready, cooked the things he liked, neglected my baby a little to care for my husband and make him care for me, tried to keep my house clean and myself, always carried my hair and always wore the smile I wore when we were first married.

It was not long until I found hubby home almost every evening playing with baby.

Now things are going fine, baby has never missed the time I gave to his daddy, and I am sure daddy loves me more for it. He knows I trusted him when I had cause not to trust. That trust won for me a great love and happiness that I should never have had otherwise.

Trust and love makes happy homes and happy children, and you must have both trust and love to accomplish anything in marriage.

THE HAPPIEST MOTHER ON EARTH.

There are many women who want help but are too proud to admit they need it, or to write and ask for it. A letter like yours opens their eyes and suggests ways in which they are failing and means by which they can create a change.

Indeed, I thank you for your contribution, and especially for your last sentence. When the time comes that marriage without love is a disgrace, we will have better children and better people living in this world of ours.

EVERY cent you spend over the price of Calumet might as well be thrown away. You don't get a thing for it. You can't get greater leavening strength or greater purity than are offered in Calumet.

Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by the U. S. Food Authorities.

No matter what you pay you can't secure as much in sound baking powder quality.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

MAKES MOST PALATABLE AND SWEETEST OF FOODS

You can buy a cheaper baking powder—a little lower in price than Calumet—and much lower in merit. That's the worst kind of false economy.

Calumet never fails. Every baking is perfectly raised—sweet, even and tasty.

Used by millions of housewives and is the largest selling brand in the world.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Graham Muffin Recipe

1 cup of white flour, 1 cup of Graham flour, 1 tablespoon of sugar, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup of milk, 1 egg well beaten, 1 tablespoon melted butter. Then mix in the regular way.

HOW DISEASE IS CAUSED

It is vital to health that there be no congestion, no stoppage, no diminution of the supply of nerve force from the brain to any organ of the body.

For instance, stomach trouble, indigestion and constipation are caused by a decreased supply of nerve force to the stomach and intestines, which causes various glands, such as the liver and pancreas, to fail in delivering the proper amount of digestive fluid, or, in case of constipation, to fail in securing the proper lubrication and lack of nerve tone to the muscular movement of the bowels. Remember that the cause is lack of proper supply of nerve force—the symptoms are pains in the stomach and bowels, gases, headaches, nausea, vomiting, pains in the back, indigestion, constipation, etc.

Do not think that because you have no pain in the back your spine is in perfect alignment and needs no adjusting. Many people have this impression, but they should go to the chiropractor, who will show them the cause of pain and sickness in the spine.

In most cases, Chiropractic declares and proves the reduction of nerve force is caused by pinching or pressure of the point where the nerves leave the spinal column.

One or more of the bones have become slightly misplaced (called "subluxated"), the opening has become narrowed, the bones press against the nerves, the supply of nerve force is cut off or reduced, and until this condition is removed the trouble will continue.
