

BROOKLYN TAKES CLEVELAND'S MEASURE, 3 TO 0

GRIMES TOO STRONG FOR INDIAN TRIBE

Spitball Artist Has Cleveland at His Mercy—Walks Three Men in Eighth But None Scores.

BROOKLYN HITS HARD

(By Associated Press)
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Grimes fitted a fine coal of spitball on the backs of the Cleveland Indians today and the Brooklyn champions of the National League, walked off the field with a 3 to 0 victory in the second game of the World's series.

Grimes' spitball tied the backs of the Clevelanders in knots, while Brooklyn's hitting was timely, the national leaguers getting their hits in clusters when hits meant runs.

The Brooklyn went through a long batting practice before the game. Manager Robinson was anxious to work his men out of the batting slump into which they had fallen in the last week or so. John Miljus went into the box for Brooklyn and was ordered to put everything he had on the ball so that the National leaguers could face real speed and curves.

Ready for Grimes.

Both Grimes and Smith took part in Brooklyn's batting. The Clevelanders expected Grimes to pitch against them and, accordingly, the right-hander, Uhle, threw up the ball for Cleveland in their batting practice.

"A wind blown fly was the cause of our own downfall yesterday," said Manager Wilbert Robinson, of the Brooklyn today. "With an even break on luck my club will show the way to victory. Speaker ruined our ball game with his catches in center field. I think I'll tell our fellows to hit the ball over the fence, then let Speaker do his worst."

Before the game Speaker believed that the edge now lies with his American League pennant winners in the series. "We have looked the Brooklyn over and my men feel they can take the majority of the games," said Speaker, today. "Brooklyn has a fine ball club, make no mistake, and I have my troubles to find pitchers to beat them in a long series."

Fans Out Early

The chill of yesterday's defeat and a cold night did not freeze the enthusiasm of the fans, who came early to the ball yard. Spectators seeking seats in the unreserved stands began to form in line two hours before run up and shivered and shook in the Arctic blast that came out of the north.

A ground-keeper, making his rounds at midnight, heard a heavy snore behind the scoreboard in left field. He promptly unearthed four men who had hidden in the ball park after yesterday's game and were taking a night's rest in a nest of newspapers back of the scoreboard.

The wind had dried out the playing field so that the ground-keepers had to spray it with water to keep down the dust. Those who came early to the game bundled themselves up in heavy coats to keep out the cold, while the players were jacketed in heavy sweaters, except a few who defied the wind.

Johnston scored on Wheat's hit into center for two bases. Wheat made second by fast base running. Gardner threw out Myers at first. One run, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning

CLEVELAND—Grimes tossed out O'Neill at first. Grimes knocked down Bagby's hot grounder and threw him out at first. Jamieson stung a single over second. Wamby flied out to Wheat. No runs, one hit, no errors.

BROOKLYN—Grimes singled through the pitcher's box. Bagby took Olson's offering and threw wildly to second. Both batter and runner were safe. Grimes was spiked as he slid into second. It was not sacrifice for Olson, but a fielder's choice. Johnston fouled out to O'Neill trying to bunt. Grimes scored on Griffith's two-base hit into right field. Olson going to third. Wheat was purposely passed, filling the bases. Myers up. A double play followed. Gardner took Myers' grounder and threw to O'Neill, who threw to first. The throw hit Myers on the back. Griffith tried to score on the play, but was thrown out, Johnston to O'Neill. One run, two hits, one error.

Fourth Inning

CLEVELAND—Speaker walked, base.

GRAND JURY WILL PROBE BANK CRASH

Jurors Instructed to Discover if Others Beside Kirlin Were Responsible for the Bank's Failure.

INVESTIGATE MURDER

Members of the grand jury for the October term of the Wayne circuit court were sworn in Wednesday and immediately began an investigation of circumstances entering into the recent murder of Amos Carpenter by Elmer Jackson.

Carpenter was shot and killed by Jackson while he was standing on Main street talking with Mrs. Jackson. It is alleged that Jackson resented Carpenter's attentions to Mrs. Jackson.

The following are the members of the grand jury:

Eugene Anderson, Wayne twp.; Edgar Manning, Perry twp.; Lindley Pike, New Garden twp.; Lawrence Bond, Clay twp.; Lindley Pike, New Garden twp.; Lawrence Bond, Clay twp.; Otto Weber, Webster twp.; Howard Ridge, Wayne twp.; Nathan White was appointed bailiff for the grand jury.

Has Two Assistants.

Prosecutor Gath P. Freeman is to be assisted in his work with the grand jury by two deputies, Byram C. Robbins and Paul Beckett.

It was reported that Mr. Robbins had been appointed a deputy prosecutor for the particular purpose of assisting the grand jury in its investigation of conditions entering into the failure of the Farmers' Bank of Milton, last July, following the suicide of the cashier, Oscar M. Kirlin.

It is believed that the grand jury expects to take up the bank case immediately after it has acted in the murder case. Shortly after the grand jury had assembled at the Kitterman of Cambridge City, receiver for the Milton bank, and other men who had been summoned as witnesses in the bank case arrived at the court house.

Jury's Instructions

Judge William A. Bond read his instructions to the grand jurors. Their duties were carefully explained. Referring to the investigations of the affairs of the Farmers' bank of Milton, Judge Bond said:

"The Farmers' bank of Milton, Ind., a private banking institution, was, by order of the court some months ago, placed in the hands of a receiver. This receiver, according to the information given to the court, was made necessary on account of the peculations and defalcations of its cashier, now deceased. Whether or not any other person or persons were associated with him in these matters is for your investigation, and if you find that any other person was associated with him in the commission of a crime, then it will be your duty to charge such person by proper indictment."

"The court does not have any knowledge concerning this matter other than mere rumor, but it is your duty to ascertain the facts."

To Inspect Institutions
Various criminal matters will be called to the attention of the grand jury, and before it concludes its session it will make a thorough investigation of the various county institutions.

Elmer Jackson, who has been bound over to the grand jury on a charge of murder in the first degree, was in the court room when the jurors were sworn in. He accepted each juror. After the jury had retired Jackson begged the court for permission to talk with his wife, who was seated in the rear of the court room. The permission was granted. Jackson rushed to her. Mrs. Jackson placed her arms about her husband's neck and sobbed softly. He returned her embrace and for five minutes they talked together with tears streaming down their faces.

The grand jury was to remain in session all of Wednesday and then adjourn until next Monday.

WILSON ASKS VOTERS TO DECIDE ARGUMENT

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—President Wilson today telegraphed Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, that he was content to let the voters of Missouri decide who of them was telling the truth.

The telegram referred to Senator Spencer's charge that the president had promised military aid to Roumania and Serbia, which the president yesterday stated was false.

The telegram which was made public at the White House, comments on explanation follows:

"I am perfectly content to leave it to the voters of Missouri to determine who is telling the truth."

Replying to the president's letter yesterday, Senator Spencer, in a letter made public at St. Louis last night, from what he said was the stenographic notes of the aide plenary session at the peace conference. He asked the president to inform him whether Mr. Wilson had made the statement attributed to him in the stenographic notes taken at Paris.

The president's telegram today apparently was in reply to that letter.

NEXT SATURDAY IS HOSPITAL TAG DAY; PONDER ITS WORTH, THEN BUY LIBERALLY

CONTRIBUTED

A little boy on his way home from school is run over by a truck, a crowd gathers. He is carried to the sidewalk, then perhaps into a house; he is unconscious; no one knows just what to do, and then someone says: "Take him to the hospital!"

Just what do we mean by "Take him to the hospital"? Is it simply an easy way to dispose of the boy and save trouble for all concerned?

Let's see what happens to him there. He is met at the door and placed on a wheel stretcher and taken to the emergency operating room, where his clothing is cut off by skilled hands and he is cleaned up as much as his condition permits, and a clean night gown put on.

If he has a broken leg, splints, bandages, cotton, etc., are ready and an X-ray apparatus is waiting to make sure that the bone is straight. If he has a fractured skull requiring operation, an operating room is ready for instant use and a stock of sterilized sheets, towels, dressings are on hand.

An electric sterilizer will have the instruments boiled in ten minutes and after the operation a clean cool bed will be waiting for him with a nurse to look after his needs.

The hospital then is not merely a building with beds, but is an institution which offers trained and intelligent service to replace the inefficient good intentions which are too often the basis of home care of the sick or injured.

If a hospital charged what it actually costs to give this service, those who need it most could not have it and so all hospitals are operated at a loss, which should be shared by the community on the same ground that it provides fire protection.

Our own hospital is not different in these respects from others. Its income from patients and from the city treasury is not adequate and for years the Ladies' Aid society of the hospital has supplied the towels, sheets, linens, blankets, dishes and many other things that are necessary. The women give the time necessary to make up all these things, sewing one whole day each month. It is only fair that the rest of us should pay for them.

Next Saturday, October 9, will be tag day. Think it over. If some one asked you to work twelve days a year for the hospital it would seem a good deal, but the Ladies' Aid society women do it cheerfully. If the rest of us would give a half day's pay, it would mean a lot.

STATE BOARD FIXES MINE COAL PRICE

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 6.—Prices operators of Indiana mines shall charge for their coal today were fixed by the state special coal and food commission.

The prices for group No. 1—Mine run, $3 a ton; screenings, $2.80; prepared sizes, $3.25.

Group No. 2—Mine run, $3.20; screenings, $3.00; prepared sizes, $3.45.

WATSON TO BE GREETED BY PARADE

Wayne County Harding and Coolidge Club to Appear in Assemblage—Women Are Urged to March.

SENATOR DREW CROWD

Harry Thornburg, president of the Wayne County Harding and Coolidge club, asks that all members of the club assemble at Fourth and Main streets at 6:45 p. m., to march in a body in the parade which will precede the meeting to be addressed by Senator James E. Watson, at the Coliseum, at 8 p. m. Seats in the Coliseum will be reserved for all who take part in the parade. The parade will leave the court house at 7 p. m. All Republicans are invited to march.

Senator James E. Watson will arrive in Richmond at 4:45 p. m., Wednesday from Indianapolis, and in the evening will address a meeting to be held at the Coliseum.

Members of the committee appointed to greet Senator Watson at the Pennsylvania station are: Major Paul Comstock, Republican county chairman, William B. Woodard of Dublin, and Ray K. Shively. The senator will be entertained at dinner at the home of Major Comstock.

Wednesday is the first time Senator Watson has visited Wayne county since the opening of the political campaign. Feeling he has addressed in Richmond in the past have always attracted large audiences and it will occasion no surprise if the crowd which will assemble to hear him at the Coliseum Wednesday evening will tax the capacity of the big building owing to the general interest now being manifested in political affairs.

Senator Watson spent an active day of campaigning Tuesday in Madison county, where large crowds attended the several meetings he addressed.

Large delegations will arrive in Richmond from neighboring towns in Wayne and surrounding counties late Wednesday afternoon. These delegations will march in the parade which will precede the meeting and then attend the meeting.

A section of seats has been reserved for those who take part in the parade.

Miss Esther Griffin White, county chairman for women, issued the following statement Wednesday:

"Every woman in Wayne county is invited to join the parade of the Republican voters to be held preceding the Watson meeting, Wednesday evening. The parade will start from the court house at 7 p. m."

"All precinct committee women and members of the city committee are requested to be at the court house at 6:45 o'clock, the parade to go from there to Eleventh street and back to the coliseum, where seats will be reserved for the paraders."

ENGLISH MOB ATTACKS PUSSYFOOT JOHNSON

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 16.—William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, the American temperance advocate, narrowly escaped from an angry crowd which interrupted one of his temperance meetings last night at Reading, Berkshire, and tried to break through the locked doors of the hall to reach him, according to a Reading dispatch to the Evening News today.

The crowd also threw bombs containing foul-smelling chemicals. The police had to be called out to prevent serious disorders. Johnson escaped with detectives by the rear exit of the hall through a graveyard to a taxi cab. Strong, although less violent, opposition to Johnson was reported from Wales recently.

Johnson spoke at the Richmond Chautauqua a few weeks ago.
