Irish Seek Passports To America Daily

(By Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Oct. 16.—The proclamation of Dail Eireann prohibiting emigration has only had a slight effect and the American consulate is daily dealing with applications for passports. On a landing of the consul's office the Dail decree is displayed forbidding the emigration of Irishmen of military age and of all citizens of the Irish Republic without the written consent of Dail Eireann.

Intending emigrants are supposed to apply to the local St. Pat's justices giving their reasons for leaving Ireland and full explanations must be forwarded to the Republican Minister for Home Affairs. Nevertheless the applications to the American consul continue, most of them, however, from women. From 100 to 150 is the daily average. Third-class passages to New York are said to be booked for months ahead.

ARREST FOR KILLING SISTER ON HER REQUEST

(By Associated Press)

CONSTANCE, Switzerland, Oct. 16.—Johann Strugger, formerly a captain in the Austrian army, has been arrested on a charge of murder for shooting and killing his sister, at her own request. The sister suffered a fracture of her spine in an Alpine accident last year, knew her illness to be incurable and had repeatedly begged the physicians of the mountain of which she was a patient, to relieve her of her sufferings by an overdose of morphine.

Strugger delivered an ultimatum to the physicians that if they failed to comply with his sister's wishes within five days he would shoot her himself. This he did with the full consent of the girl.

SMALL CHANGE CRISIS IS ACUTE IN FRANCE

(By Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 16.—The small change crisis still remains very acute in France despite the issue of fifty-centime and one and two francs notes and it has been definitely decided to issue bronze tokens, the first of which will be placed on the market in October.

The Paris Chamber of Commerce has issued 40,000,000 francs worth of small notes but many have become soiled and torn and a large amount of the issue has found its way into the provinces, where, technically, it has no value. Silver change has disappeared.
