DEFEAT OF PET IN GREAT MATCH RACE GRIEVES PRETTY DAUGHTER OF OWNER

Miss Hylda Ross.

Perhaps the most ardent admirer of Sir Barton, famous thoroughbred, is Miss Hylda Ross, daughter of the horse's owner, Commander J. K. L. Ross. She has made the great racer her pet. Consequently Sir Barton's recent defeat by Man o' War in the $75,000 match race at Windsor, Canada, was a great disappointment to her.

Primer for First Voters

1. Vote early.
2. The polls are open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.
3. Vote in the precinct where you live.
4. If you don't know your precinct, call up 2020, county auditor's office for information.
5. According to law, every employee of a factory or business institution must be given four hours in which to vote.
6. Vote straight party ticket.
7. Why? Because it is the quickest and safest way to vote.
8. How do you vote the straight party ticket?
9. By making a mark inside the circle at the top of the ballot.
10. Remember, this is the only mark you make on the ballot if you vote the straight ticket.
11. If you want to "scratch the ticket," do NOT mark within the circle. Put a mark in the square opposite the names of the candidates.
12. Do not cross off any name on the ballot. This will lose your vote.
13. Women should give their names as "Mary Smith" not "Mrs. John Smith."
14. Do not ask for a Republican ballot, or a Democratic ballot. All ballots are the same and will be given to you as you enter the polls without asking.

15. Do not discuss politics outside or inside the polls. If you do your vote may be challenged.

16. Do not tell people what your politics are. For instance, do not say "I am going to vote the Republican ticket," or the Democratic or the Socialist or any other ticket.

17. Be sure to fold your ballot correctly. If you do not know how you will be told at the polls how to do so.

18. If you spoil your ballot, you can say so, hand the ballot back and another one will be given you.

19. All women who can do so should vote in the morning to give men and women, who cannot get to the polls until late in the afternoon, plenty of time.

Miniatures in Oil, Water Color and Charcoal Interest Art Public

THE portrait exhibit at the public art gallery still continues to be a centre of interest not for a few but for many people. Sunday afternoon about 60 persons visited the gallery. Francis Brown spoke informally but very interestingly about the portraits.

Miss Bessie Whitridge deserves much praise for the excellent collection of miniatures on display. Not only does the collection include the real miniature, which is an original portrait in water color on ivory, but it also contains miniature portraits, in oil, water color and charcoal.

One of the most exquisite pieces was done by a local artist, Mrs. Maude Kaufman Eggemeyer. It is an original portrait of Miss Helen Eggemeyer and is painted on ivory in most delicate shades. Two beautiful miniatures, heads of young girls, were loaned by Miss Bessie Whitridge, who painted them. Also there is a very attractive miniature of Mrs. Lewis G. Reynolds, painted by Miss Whitridge.

A very old miniature is the one of Benjamin Poland in the uniform of the war of 1812. This miniature is about 100 years old. Mr. Poland was the grandfather of Miss Rosa Dunn, who loans the miniature. The locket case in which the miniature is set has a small case on the back with a lock of hair in it.

Old Portrait Exhibited.
Mrs. Gertrude Hill has loaned a photograph of a miniature of Captain Richard Shombre, an officer in the English army, painted about 1812 in London. Captain Shombre served under Wellington in Spain and India and also with Bolivar in South America. Another piece in this collection which was done in London is a charcoal drawing, colored, of John Shaw, which was done in 1820.

Two miniatures painted by an unknown artist in Richmond, about 1850, are those of William Farquhar and Miss Margaret Farquhar, loaned by Mrs. Frank Farquhar. These are both in lockets. Mrs. Farquhar also loaned the miniature of Mr. Seaton Watt which is in a very quaint frame of metal and enamel.

Historical Portrait.
Mrs. W. S. Kaufman loaned a copy by Maude Kaufman Eggemeyer of a portrait of Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore and lord proprietor and Governor of Baltimore. The original, which was painted about 1730, is owned by Elizabeth Calvert Clift, of Maryland, Ky. Mrs. Kaufman, Mrs. Eggemeyer's mother, who loaned the portrait is a relative of the Calverts.

A very beautiful miniature is the one by M. Orselli, of New York, of Beauty Culture Hints

There is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge of a woman's neatness, or good taste. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good shampoo. You can enjoy the very best by getting some canthox from your druggist, dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Dandruff, excess oil, and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.
