

RICHMOND D. A. R. DELEGATE RETURNS FROM STATE MEETING

Between 150 and 200 Daughters of the American Revolution, attended the state conference, held in Vincennes, Oct. 12, 13 and 14. Many prominent women from other states attended the convention, and many were on the program.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, who is a prominent D.A.R., attended the convention. Others equally prominent women who attended were: Mrs. Will F. Hays, of Sullivan, Ind., whose husband is chairman of the Republican National committee; Mrs. J. C. Cullop, wife of Congressman Cullop; and Mrs. James Goodrich, wife of the Gov. Goodrich. Mrs. Goodrich was on the program.

Delegates Entertained

Those who attended the conference were royally entertained during their stay in Vincennes. Two elaborate luncheons, one Wednesday and the other Thursday noon, and one dinner Wednesday evening, were given for the delegates. These were attended by over 150 persons. Senators of the conference were held in the Christ church, which had been magnificently decorated with palms, cut flowers and flags.

Visitors Shown City

The visitors were taken over the city in automobiles, and shown all the points of interest. Historically Vincennes is one of the most prominent of Indiana cities. The building is located where the first legislature met on July 29, 1805, when Indiana was still a territory.

The A. R. owns the old William Henry Harrison home, there which was the first brick house to be built this side of the Allegheny mountains. There are in the county the graves of 29 soldiers of the American Revolutionary war.

Mrs. Walter L. Dalbey, 129 South 12 street, who attended the conference, was the guest of Mrs. J. M. Hack. On Friday, Mrs. Hack entertained with 10 tables of auction for Mrs. Dalbey and Mrs. Frank Salter.

JONES RELEASED FOR FORWARD MOVEMENT

Sylvester Jones, field secretary of the American Friends board of foreign missions, was given official release from the board at the meeting of its executive committee in the Friends central offices Tuesday. Mr. Jones was recently appointed associate director of the Friends Forward Movement organization.

A report of the treasurer of the board Tuesday morning showed that receipts were $40,000 less than expenditures, for the first half of the fiscal year. In order to meet this deficit, a campaign for funds was authorized, and will be undertaken with the approval and cooperation of Forward Movement and yearly meeting officials.

Appointed Representative

Charles E. Carey, of Fairmount, Ind., was appointed as second representative of the mission board, on the Forward Movement committee. Ross A. Hadley was appointed member of that committee several weeks ago.

Sylvester Jones was to speak on the All Friends World conference held in London, England, in August, at the afternoon session.

Persons attending the executive meeting Tuesday included the Rev. Charles M. Woodman, Mrs. Levi Pennington, Ross A. Hadley, George H. Moore, of Georgetown, Ill.; Charles E. Carey, of Fairmount, Ind.; Mrs. Belle Bailey, of Newcastle, Ind.; and Herbert L. Huffman, of Greenfield, Ind.

COX POUNDS AWAY IN NEW ENGLAND STATES

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 19.—The entry of Governor Cox of Ohio in New England was marked by his appearance in pajamas before a crowd at the railroad station in this city early today.

The governor had not been expected to speak here and was making leisurely morning preparations in his private car, intending to give his first address of the day at Worcester, 50 miles away, when he heard the crowd of several hundred persons that had gathered to see him.

The governor hastily slipped on a long overcoat, which he carefully buttoned to his chin, and then, still wearing his bath slippers, stepped to the rear platform. He smiled appreciatively in response to the shouts of "Good morning, governor!" He spoke for only five minutes, and the train pulled out while he was still talking.

Governor Cox had three large New Hampshire meetings on his program, at Nashua, Manchester and Concord, preceding a night meeting at Boston. Varying weeks of campaigning on his presidential campaign, arrangements were made for motor trips from Nashua to Manchester and thence to Concord.

The governor also was to motor to Boston, expecting to arrive in the early evening.

The governor was today prepared to pound away upon the league as the pre-eminent and very exclusive issue and to emphasize his advocacy and the various positions which he alleged his Republican opponent has taken.

Chicago Police Chief Promises Revelations In Whisky Ring Probe

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 19.—Chief of Police Garrity summoned all police department heads to a meeting today, saying he would make a report bearing on liquor investigation which "will tear the department wide open."

"I have learned that certain captains assigned detectives and policemen to guard whisky shipments," the chief said. "My investigators have obtained affidavits from policemen and others involving whole police stations in the whisky traffic."

"In addition to affidavits there is a great deal of hearsay information, which if proven, may involve still others."

The affidavits will be shown at today's meeting of captains, the chief said. His statement came as a complete surprise, police officials commented.

Automotive Men Discuss Winter Trade Problems

Addresses by C. M. Davis of Richmond, S. N. Strotz, of the Automobile Supply company of Chicago, and two Cambridge City bankers, featured the regular meeting of the Wayne County Automobile association held in Cambridge City Monday evening. Attendance at the meeting included 42 members from all parts of the county. Several problems of interest to members of the association were discussed, among them being the matter of marking roads in the county, and the erection of signs to warn motorists of dangerous bridges. Winter storage, the trade situation in general and an agreement to handle only the best quality of alcohol for use in radiators, were other matters covered.

The next meeting of the organization will be held in the salesrooms of the McConaha Automobile company of Richmond. Efforts are being made to procure a speaker well known to the automobile trade in Indiana, to appear here on that occasion.

Red Men of State Attend Sun Council

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Representatives from all parts of the state attended the opening session here today of the 51st Great Sun Council of the Great Council of Indiana, Improved Red Men.

Johnson Calls Himself Casualty of Convention

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 19.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, addressing a Newport (Kentucky) audience last night, described himself as "not a member of the Senatorial oligarchy, but only a casualty of the last republican party convention."

The senator declared he resented any charge of ambiguity against Senator Harding because of his stand on the question of the league of nations. He said Senator Harding's views on the league were made increasingly plain as the days of the campaign passed, and added:

"The Democratic candidate says that if he is elected the United States will join the league of nations; the Republican candidate says: 'If I am elected we will not have anything to do with the league of nations.'"

"For that reason Senator Harding is entitled to the vote of every red-blooded American."

LINDQUEST TO SING HERE, OCTOBER 23

Albert Lindquest and associate artists will give a recital at the Coliseum, Oct. 23, under auspices of Wayne Aerie of the Eagles lodge. The ticket sale has opened at the Harrison drug store, Quigley's Drug Store, Fourth and Main, and Weisbrod's Music store. The admission fee is 50 cents, war tax, 5 cents.

Albert Lindquest's rise in the concert world has been wonderful. Today he is a distinguished American tenor, an artist who holds his own with any of the great concert tenors of the day.

His voice is one of exquisite lyric quality, a "golden voice" if ever there was one. Albert Lindquest possesses also that priceless asset, a broad musical intellect. He has a voice of wonderful quality and sweetness, and at the same time, strength—a lyric voice with the power and fire of the dramatic tenor. It is a rare combination, and these gifts, combined with a wonderful artistry of song, have won for him finest commendation from the leading musical critics everywhere.

Mr. Lindquest has appeared as soloist with practically all of the leading Symphony orchestras in the East and Middle West. A recent issue of Leslies published his photograph and listed him as one of "Ten Great Artists of the Day."

Other attractions that the Eagles lodge has booked follow:
Nov. 29, Letter Light Opera Company; Jan. 20, Stephen Leacock; Feb. 11, Mrs. Pankhurst; Feb. 23, Charles Crawford Gorst; March 17, American Bell Ringers.
