

EXPECT GRAND JURY TO INDICT SEVERAL ON LEWIS SCANDAL

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—True bills may be returned today by the Cook county grand jury against several of the men whose connection with the "throwing" of the 1919 world's series has been traced by the grand jury's investigation, according to reports in circulation as the investigation was resumed today.

Among the witnesses who have been called to testify today are three Saint Louis men whose names were brought into the investigation through the inquiry at Saint Louis last fall by Manager Kid Gleason of the Chicago White Sox just after the series closed. President Charles A. Comiskey of the Sox, sent Gleason there to investigate one of the many rumors reaching the Sox management that the series was "thrown."

Ban Johnson Will Appear.

President B. B. Johnson of the American League returned today from St. Louis and may go before the grand jury again, it was said. With several club owners Johnson appeared at the last session of the grand jury but the others were excused when they declared they had no information of any crookedness in that series.

Dispatches from St. Louis said that Johnson went to see Phil Ball, president of the St. Louis American League club, in connection with the reorganization of the national league proposed by the eight national league clubs and three of the American League clubs, but it was said Mr. Ball was in the south.

Long Describes Sullivan's Hits.

In an interview published here today, Harry Long, employee of a brokerage firm belonging to the Chicago Board of Trade, says that his firm refused to handle bets on the series for J. J. ("Sport") Sullivan, of Boston who was subpoenaed by the grand jury. Long says, according to the published interview, that Sullivan then persuaded him to handle the bets and he placed $29,000 among various board of trade men at even money that Cincinnati would win the first two games.

Long also says, according to the interview, that Sullivan wired other cities and obtained additional funds to bet on Cincinnati when he found plenty of Cincinnati bets. Sullivan urged him to bet on Cincinnati himself, Long says in his interview, but he did not take the advice.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

SEEKING SENATOR SEAT IN IDAHO

F. R. Gooding.

F. R. Gooding of Gooding, Idaho is the Republican candidate for the U.S. senatorship from his state.

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

Tells Where She Owes Her Greatest Debt

"Of All Medicines, I Owe the Most to Trutona," Mrs. Listenberger Asserts.

"Of all medicines I've ever taken, I owe the most to Trutona," was the grateful assertion made recently by Mrs. Sadie Listenberger, 77 years old, who lives at 1413 Cass street, Fort Wayne.

"My son-in-law called me the 'Walking drug store' because I had taken so many different medicines," she continued, "but none of them gave me the desired relief. Trutona alone deserves the real reward.

"I'm always hungry now, it seems, and I eat as I never did before; I sleep so soundly at night that often I fail to hear the alarm in the morning. My bowels act as regular as a clock now. To tell the truth I feel just about twenty years younger than did, and I think Trutona should be in every home."

Mrs. Listenberger's statement furnishes more convincing proof of Trutona's remarkable merits as a reconstructive agency, system purifier and body invigorant. You, Mr. Rundown man and woman, will be surprised at the relief YOU'LL derive from using Trutona.

Trutona is sold in Richmond at Clem Thistlethwaite's drug stores.

—Advertisement.

6,000 MILE TIRES

30x3	... $12.90	33x4	... $26.75
30x3 1/2	... $15.90	34x4	... $27.50
32x3 1/2	... $19.40	34x4 1/2	... $35.00
31x4	... $22.75	35x4 1/2	... $36.50
32x4	... $24.75	36x4 1/2	... $37.50

New, fresh stock in tires and tubes received every week. Nothing old or rebuilt.

WM. F. LEE, No. 8 South 7th St. "Richmond's Reliable Tire Man"

SHOT GUNS

Shells, Coats, Etc.

SAM S. VIGRAN

617 Main St.

USED CARS

At Bargain Prices

On Easy Terms

Chenoweth Auto Co.

1107 Main Phone 5200

FLOWERS

Consult us on the matter of Funeral Flowers and Flowers for all occasions.

THE WAYNE FLOWER SHOP

Phone 2614-1031 Main St.

DR. R. H. CARNES

DENTIST—Phone 2665

Rooms 15-16 Comstock Building

1016 Main Street

Open Sundays and Evenings by appointment.

RUBBER BOOTS VULCANIZED

Pure gum rubber welded to the soles and heels.

Also, cuts repaired in any part of the boot.

WM. F. LEE, No. 8 South 7th St.

"Richmond's Reliable Tire Man"

resolution simply would be a breach of the treaty.

Analogous Case Offered.

"An analogous case is the power of Congress to appropriate money. There is no power in our Government to do that; but if the United States makes a treaty agreeing to pay $1,000,000 to another country, would any one say that the obligation could be canceled by a refusal of Congress to appropriate the money? Certainly not; the only effect would be that the United States would have broken faith.

"The real question is whether or not we shall enter into a guarantee under which the faith of treaties will require Congress to pass a resolution declaring war. That is what the President proposed. That is what your telegram makes it clear you propose.

"On the same day when you sent the telegram, according to press reports, some one in the audience asked you, 'Would you accept the Lodge reservations to the League of Nations?' There was your opportunity. Among those reservations was one which said:

"The United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country by the employment of its military or naval forces, &c., unless in any particular case the Congress, under the constitution, has the sole power to declare war, or to authorize the employment of the military or naval forces of the United States shall in the exercise of full liberty of action by act or joint resolution, so provide.

Proposed Change Explained.

"That reservation would leave Congress free whenever the time came to act in accordance with its judgment and conscience, and the judgment and conscience of its constituents regard-

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right to declare war, and that there are limits to legislation and treaty making power.

"All governments of all civilized nations know it. You accomplish nothing by telling them of it again. The trouble about giving the guarantee provided in Article X is that the making of a treaty containing it is a solemn assurance to all the nations that it is with the treaty making power, and that the promise to make war binds congress as fully as it binds all other members of our government to maintain the plighted faith of the United States.

"In all Governments the power to declare war rests somewhere, and an agreement to make war is an agreement that that power shall be so exercised by the officers in whom it rests.

"A refusal by Congress to pass the

willing to do about Article X. Well, it absolutely is nothing. Everybody knows that only congress has right