

COOLIDGE REVIEWS HISTORY OF NATION IN VIRGINIA SPEECH

(By Associated Press)
RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 23.—Virginia who are "proud of what Washington and Jefferson did to establish the nation can trust Warren G. Harding to preserve and maintain it," declared Governor Coolidge, Republican nominee for the vice-presidency in an address here today detailing some historic achievements of the Old Dominion and Massachusetts for the past 200 years. He also spoke sympathetically of President Wilson and expressed the hope of his "speedy and complete recovery."

"Whenever Massachusetts and Virginia have stood together," he said, "they have advanced the welfare of America and the world by their example. Your statesmen have been the guiding influence which we have sought to follow. We shall never forget that it was your greatest son, the first American, George Washington, who came to take command of the colonial troops under the elm still standing in Cambridge and drove the last foreign invader from the soil of Massachusetts."

"Recalls Washington's Record."
"We shall never forget that when the war was done he presided over the convention which drafted the constitution of the union and that it was the prestige of his support that secured its ratification by the states. We shall never forget that what he was to the nation as a soldier and an executive, John Marshall was as a lawyer and a judge. Washington gave us a Constitution but Marshall gave us a government. What they gave it is ours to preserve."

The imputation of "provincialism," he said, found "stern rebuttal" in the history of Virginia as well as Massachusetts. "Your whole history," he went on, "shows that the idea of isolation is repugnant to the genius of America. But your whole history shows that it is the purpose of America to remain forever free and independent. You do not shut yourselves in, nor shut the world out; but you are determined that only an American government shall govern America."

Primer for First Voters

1. Vote early.
2. The polls are open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.
3. Vote in the precinct where you live.
4. If you don't know your precinct, call up 2020, county auditor's office for information.
5. According to law, every employee of a factory or business institution must be given four hours in which to vote.
6. Vote straight party ticket.
7. Why? Because it is the quickest and safest way to vote.
8. How do you vote the straight party ticket?
9. By making a mark inside the circle at the top of the ballot.
10. Remember, this is the only mark you make on a ballot if you vote the straight ticket.
11. If you want to "scratch the ticket," do NOT mark within the circle. Put a mark in the square opposite the names of the candidates.
12. Do not cross off any name on the ballot. This will lose your vote.
13. Women should give their names as "Mary Smith" not "Mrs. John Smith."
14. Do not ask for a Republican ballot or a Democratic ballot. All ballots are the same and will be given to you as you enter the polls without asking.
15. Do not discuss politics outside or inside the polls. If you do your vote may be challenged.
16. Do not tell people what your politics are. For instance, do not say "I am going to vote the Republican ticket," or the Democratic or the Socialist or any other ticket.
17. Be sure to fold your ballot correctly. If you do not know how you will be told at the polls how to do so.
18. If you spoil your ballot, you can say so, hand the ballot back and another one will be given you.
19. All women who can do so should vote in the morning to give men and women, who cannot get to the polls until late in the afternoon, plenty of time.

"Hit the Line Hard" Wires Morrow to Kentucky Team

(By Associated Press)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 23.—The football teams of Centre college and Harvard University, their goal lines uncrossed this season entered their contest at the Stadium today, determined to keep a clean slate. The collegians from Danville, Ky., were outweighed about ten pounds to the man, but in Captain McMullen, quarterback and Vesper, center, they possessed two members of Walter Camp's 1919 All-American team. Centre's unbroken string of victories extends back more than two years and in three games this season the "praying Colonels" have scored 241 points while whitewashing their opponents. The Crimson has scored 103 points to their opponents none in four games this year.

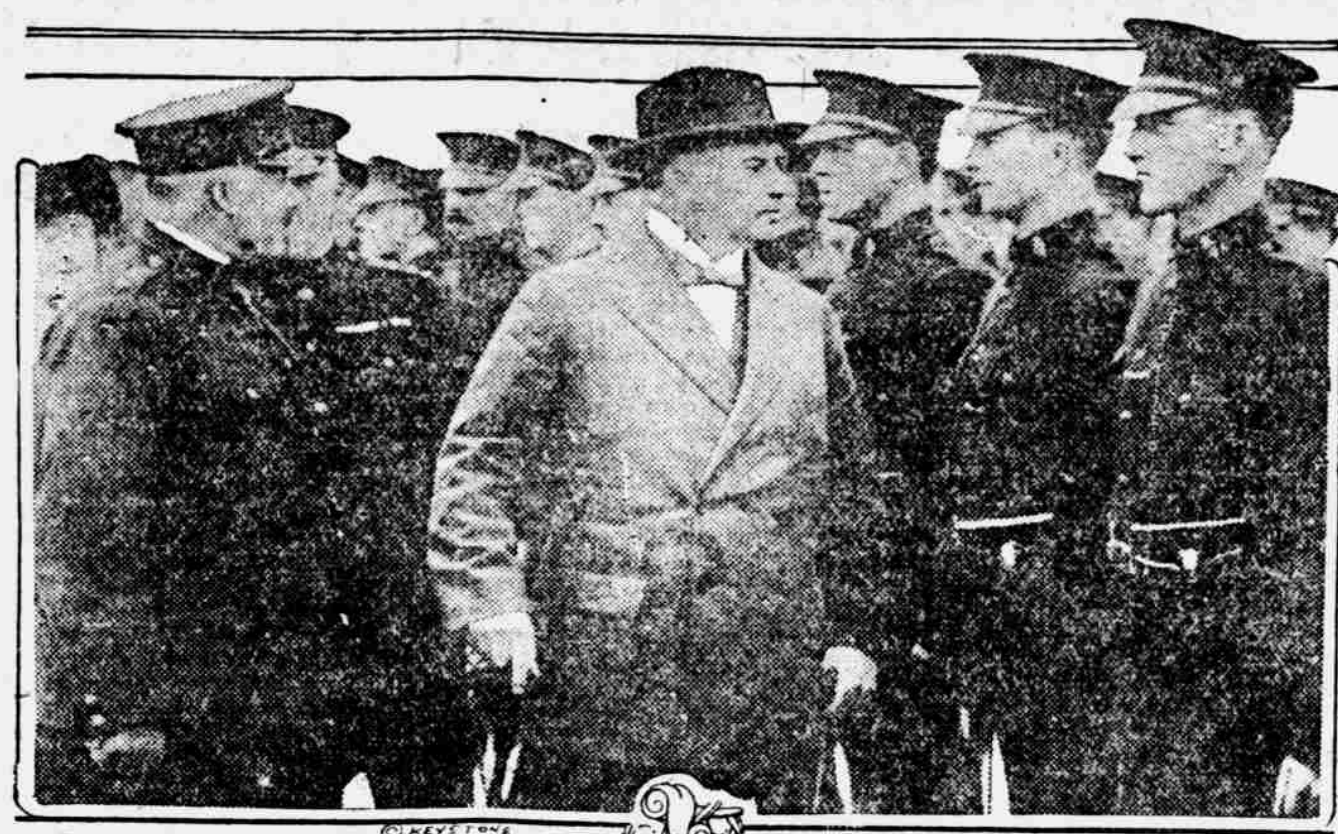

Governor Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky, sent the following telegram to the Centre team: "The men in Kentucky are pulling for you, the women are praying for you, the heart of every girl is with you. For God's sake make good, hit the line hard and low."

Cincinnati Races Draw Horsemen of Nation

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 23.—Hundreds of out-of-town horsemen were here to witness the running this afternoon of the Latonia championship stakes which has a money value to the winning owner of more than $25,000. The second horse gets $3,000 and the third, $2,000. In addition to the purse the Kentucky Jockey club gives the owner of the winning horse a $1,000 gold cup, and the nominators of the first three horses receive $1,500, $1,000 and $500 respectively. Eastern horses shipped here to compete with E. R. Bradley's Best Pal, and C. C. Van Meter's Sterling for the stakes are: On Watch, owned by former Congressman George Loft, Cleopatra, property of W. R. Coe, and Harry Payne Whitney's John P. Grier and Damask.

If you trust everybody, nobody will trust you.

CHIEF SECRETARY CAUTIONS IRISH POLICE AGAINST REPRISALS

Sir Hamar Greenwood inspecting Royal Irish constabulary in Dublin. While inspecting the Royal Irish constabulary in Dublin recently, Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, cautioned the members of the force against reprisals. He impressed upon them the fact that these reprisals will ruin the discipline of the organization.

BUSINESS METHOD TALKS

Short Talks Prepared by Merchandising Dept. of The Richmond Palladium

THE SUCCESSFUL RETAILER.

The shrewd merchant is the man who builds a made-to-order store. His store has the greatest possible number of advantages for all his possible customers and fewest disadvantages.

You can have an exclusive store with expensive over-head for service catering to the very select trade, and at the same time compete with the five-and-ten-cent chain. The successful merchant decides before he opens his doors just the kind of store he is going to have. He finds out what the people who would naturally do business with him want, and buys that kind of merchandise.

The up-to-date merchant buys very frequently and in small quantities. He turns his stock and consequently his capital over and over again. This keeps his stock fresh and new. He keeps track of the cost of doing business as well as his merchandise. He knows which lines are profitable and as nearly as possible concentrates on them. He soon discontinues slow-moving and unprofitable lines unless he is forced to handle them in small quantities because of competition.

The shrewd merchant subordinates everything else to the job of selling goods at a fair profit. He works with his head. He is constantly constructively thinking about his problem. He is doing nothing which you can't do. He is simply working at the job, using his common sense, thinking out policies before he makes innovations. He is not afraid of innovations. On the other hand, he is ever alert to learn better methods. But most of all he is on the job constantly.

DISEASE AND FAMINE POLANDS TWIN EVILS; LAND UNCULTIVATED

WARSAW, Oct. 23.—According to cables just received, epidemics of typhus, dysentery, and relapsing fever are raging in Poland. It is estimated that there is only one doctor to 80,000 of the population in this district. Food is very scarce since the country was stripped of crops, cows and horses by the Bolsheviks, and disease is being spread by people roaming over the country in search of food. In Warsaw the wheat supply is practically exhausted.

Warsaw Orphans Starve.

The orphan asylums in Warsaw can only care for half the children needing help. The children suffer from rickets and tuberculosis. Shortage of milk and other foodstuffs together with great scarcity of clothing makes it impossible to give proper care to these children.

If adequate financial support can be obtained the American Friends Service committee hopes to feed children under six years of age—children over that age receive help from the American Relief administration.

Reds Strip Country. According to word just received by the American Friends Service committee from their representative in East Galicia, conditions there are appalling—170,000 houses are destroyed. There are no sanitary arrangements and the people are an easy prey to all diseases resulting from filthy living conditions. This section of Poland was overrun by the bolshevik army.

Clothing was stolen, sometimes it was even stripped from the backs of the population; the crops were destroyed; 74 percent of the land is uncultivated and transportation facilities are almost nil. To combat the un-sanitary conditions and consequent contagious diseases it is necessary to establish delousing and cleansing stations similar to those maintained by the American Friends Service committee at Zawiercie and Werkowice.

Big Ten Eligibility Rules Changed by Control Board

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Football players of the Big Ten conference teams who played during the fall of 1918 on S. A. T. C. teams were made eligible for this year's play by a ruling of the conference board, it was announced here today. The motion was made last June, but was held over for final consideration. It was decided to throw out the 1918 season, making all men who played that fall eligible for three full years of varsity football, by a vote of 5 to 3. Minnesota and Ohio not being represented.

The decision will allow Reber, Chicago center; Captain Goetz, Michigan from this welcome revival the list passes to the popular musical shows of today. There is "Close to Your Heart," from "Honey Girl," which is the old melodrama "Checkers" set to music. This number is one of the most appealing songs heard today, and its sentiment and melody will entrance.

Every season brings to Broadway its crop of waiters, but not every season brings such a gem as "Lassie Waltz," from the delightful entertainment of that name now regaling Broadway. With the dash and brilliancy of Lenzenberg's Riverside Orchestra, it is irresistible.

A new and successful producer appeared this season in the person of Ed. Wynn. His "Carnival" was one of the plays that was continually patronized all summer and the song that had the most effect was "Good-Bye Sunshine, Hello Moon!" Here given by the full-voiced Helen Clark and chorus, it has all the popular enchantment that made it so popular in the "Carnival."

"Betty Be Good" was housed at that home of musical comedy, the Casino Theatre, and pleased many. The Edison list gives two of its numbers, "I'd Like to Take You Away," a duet in which Helen Clark and Joseph Phillips equal the principals of the show, and "Keep the Love Lamp Burning," in which Gladys Rice, the well known soprano, sings a love song of great appeal.

Two dance numbers that have not been taken from any show, but which Broadway is singing, are "That Naughty Waltz" and "So Long, So Long." Helen Clark sings the song of Japanese atmosphere with fine voice and deft touches of humor, and in the waltz she is joined by Joseph Phillips, where the combination of contralto and baritone embellish this conversational song of great sentiment.

"What's in a Name" was one of the big musical comedy hits on Broadway, and was a gorgeous scenic spectacle, but, tunelessly speaking, it was this number, "Young Man's Fancy," that made the most lasting impression. It is a pretty, delicate air which makes one of the most fascinating of modern dance melodies. Lenzenberg's Riverside Orchestra is splendid in the playing of this composition and introduces various orchestral effects, particularly the imitation of a music box which is very unique.
