To all Women Voters

Herewith are a few pointers that we hope will be of interest and benefit to first voters. Regardless of your politics, you will profit by observing these suggestions:

- 11 Make sure you are handed the official blue pencil with your ballot. The ballot must be marked with this pencil, otherwise it will be thrown out, and your vote is lost.
- 12 When you go inside the booth lay the ballot out before you and read it. The party name and its emblem head each party's ticket.
- 13 The Republican emblem is an eagle; the Democratic emblem is a rooster; the Farmer-Labor ticket emblem is a farmer and a laborer depositing their ballots in a ballot box; the Socialist party emblem is a globe; the Prohibition emblem is a rising sun over a sea of water.

More information will be printed in this space later. Of course, you'll vote to send your Dry Cleaning to

WOMEN MAY OCCUPY PULPIT.

(By Associated Press.)
GENEVA, Oct. 30.—Women's right to occupy pulpits has been recognized by the cantonal government of Basle. Two other cantons already have taken this action and it is expected in church circles that the Geneva synod will do likewise.

Interest in the question was quickened some months ago when Miss Maude Royden, of England, was permitted to preach in the cathedral here during the last International Congress of Women.
