

GRILLE AND LONGE, WINCHESTER DEALERS IN JUNK; QUARREL

WINCHESTER, Ind., Nov. 3.—Tony Longe and Andy Grille pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery Tuesday in Squire George Coats' court and each paid a fine and costs amounting to $12.50.

The two men had a fight Saturday night at Longe's home and were taken into custody by Sheriff U. N. Davisson and Deputy U. S. Daly. It is said that Grille and Longe's 17-year-old daughter are sweethearts and wish to marry. Longe objects on account of the daughter being his housekeeper and the only one to care for his six children, and he fears Grille will take her away from Winchester to reside. Longe and Grille are in business together, the junk business.

Thornburg Dead at Home.

Isaac W. Thornburg, 63, is dead at his home four miles southeast of Winchester, after a long illness of heart trouble. He is survived by an invalid widow and six children, Frank and Forest, Thornburg, Mrs. Arlie Rowe, Mrs. Mio Shade, and Mrs. George Locke.

Local Couple Married.

It became known Tuesday that the marriage of Peter L. Brouse and Erie Hardesty was solemnized by Squire George Coats, in his office, Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Brouse will reside in Ridgeville.

Smallpox Closes School.

Several cases of smallpox are reported in this city and county. The Oliver P. Morton school, in the northeast part of the city, is closed. Several children from that school are reported as having the disease. Also one case has been reported from the Lincoln school consolidated west of the city. It seems to be in a light form, and the physicians seem to think it will not be a serious epidemic at this time.

W. M. Hisson Dead.

W. M. Hisson, 62, secretary and treasurer of the Union City Carriage company, is dead at his home in that city following an operation after an illness of several weeks. He is survived by the widow and one daughter, Mary Jean Hisson.

Accused Negro Captured.

A negro said to have murdered a policeman at Columbus, Ohio, on last Thursday night, was captured at Ridgeville, Saturday, he being taken from the westbound passenger train. The negro was seen at Urbana, Ohio, after having escaped from the officers. Later he was seen again, but eluded the officer. He was not captured until the train reached Ridgeville.

Members Visit Union City.

In a special car, about 50 members of Winchester Chapter, No. 30, Eastern Star, went to Union City Friday evening, where they participated in the first anniversary celebration of the Union City chapter. This chapter instituted that lodge, one year ago.

Mrs. Pheline Pyle Brown, 60, wife of David Brown, is dead at her home in Farmland, of cancer.

To Erect New Depot.

The Big Four railroad has taken an option on the ground beginning at the railroad on the east side of East street and running north to Short street, and east to the Gutheil residence, as a location for the new Big Four depot. On account of double tracking, the present depot will have to be torn away, as the survey places the north track on the ground where it now is.

Damage Suit Rested.

The damage suit of Daniel B. Aldstadt vs. the Union Traction company and Walker D. Hines, federal administrator of railroads of the United States, and the Lake Erie & Western railroad company, which had been on trial in the Randolph county circuit court since Monday, rested Saturday, and Judge Shockley dismissed the jury until Thursday, November 4. He granted each of the six attorneys one hour each for argument, which will take place on that day. The case was vested here from the Delaware circuit court.

Hobart Cox, 23, an employee of the Dodge garage, this city, was killed Saturday afternoon while unloading an automobile from a freight car at the Big Four depot. The machine fell on him and fractured his skull. He died about an hour after the accident. He was a son of John Cox of Winchester, and besides his parents, leaves a wife and four brothers, Roy, Walter, Russell and Orville. He was an ex-service man.

Funeral services were held from his late home Monday afternoon, the Rev. Harvey Thornburg officiating. Randolph Post, No. 39, American Legion, and the Knights of Pythias had charge.

Licenses Issued.

Marriage licenses have been issued to James G. Spence, 68, and Harriet Hamilton, 54, both of Randolph coun-

END OF EIGHT YEARS MISERY

Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Recovered.

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had an organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with my back and limbs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered off and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine and tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and your Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking them to advantage. You can use my name for a testimonial."—Mrs. THeresa COVENTRY, 75 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.
