

PEOPLE RAP LEAGUE PACT IN ELECTION

Solemn Referendum Shows American Voters Favor Harding, Who Says "Stay Out" of Covenant

IGNORE WEST RETURNS

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 2.—On the face of the returns showing the growing landslide for Harding, Governor Cox's own newspaper, the Dayton News, and Chairman White, of the Democratic national committee, soon after 11 o'clock tonight conceded the election of Senator Harding.

Without waiting for returns from the west, which four years ago elected Wilson in the face of pluralities for Hughes in the east, the Democratic candidate and his chief manager conceded that in the solemn referendum which President Wilson declared would decide the League of Nations question, American voters had preferred Harding, who favored "staying out," to Cox, who favored "going in."

Governor Cox, who was in his newspaper office when the concession of Governor Harding's election was published, said he would issue no statement.

Senator Harding, at his home in Marion, said he was "more given to prayer to God to make him capable of playing my part" than to exultation over his victory.

DEBS HEARS RETURNS IN HIS PRISON CELL

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 2.—Eugene V. Debs, socialist candidate for the presidency, received the election returns tonight in the federal penitentiary here where he is serving a sentence for violation of the espionage law. The returns reached the prison authorities from Atlanta newspaper offices by telephone and were promptly communicated to Debs in his cell.

NEIGHBORS TENDER HARDING BIG LEAD

MARION, O., Nov. 2.—Senator Harding's home precinct gave Harding 373, Cox 76. Four years ago the senator's precinct had gone Democratic, but a reapportionment has changed precinct lines.

OHIO PILES UP BIG VOTE FOR HARDING

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 2.—Returns received and tabulated at 11 o'clock tonight from 2,338 out of 7,145 precincts in Ohio showed Senator Harding leading Governor Cox for president by 111,122 votes. The returns gave Harding 358,798, Cox 247, 675.

PREDICTS 200,000 PLURALITY IN OHIO

COX INCREASES LEAD

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 2.—Governor Cox increased his lead of over 25,000 votes in Kentucky, to nearly 35,000 when returns from 2,588 precincts out of 3,226 in the state had been compiled. The vote stood: Harding, 363,122; Cox, 397,939.

Incomplete returns from the nine congressional districts in Kentucky where contests were held indicated that all but one had been re-elected, which would send seven Democrats and two Republicans to congress in addition to one Democrat and one Republican who ran unopposed. In the Eighth district, in complete returns, showed Congressman Swope losing ground to his Democratic opponent.

CALIFORNIA SHOWS HARDING FAVORITE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—At 10 o'clock tonight the vote from 634 precincts in 24 of California's 55 counties showed Senator Harding leading Governor Cox by a majority of 4 to 1. The vote, which included 550 precincts in Los Angeles county, gave for president: Cox, 26,847; Harding, 86,752.

COLORADO FOR G. O. P.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 2.—With only 129 precincts of the 1,453 in Colorado reported, the Republican state and national tickets were leading by 5,000 to 6,000 in Colorado at 11 o'clock.

Missouri Shows Drift Toward Republican Party

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—A noticeable drift toward the Republican ticket, both state and national, was indicated on the face of unofficial returns from 1,064 precincts of the 3,810 in Missouri. These precincts gave Harding 158,539; Cox, 147,355. Spencer, Republican candidate for the United States senate, who championed the fight in this state against the league of nations, overcame an early lead in favor of his Democratic opponent.

ceived at an early hour this morning. The Democratic county committee was claiming that Cox would carry the county by 200, one of the smallest Democratic pluralities ever polled in this county. It is estimated that Yarrow will carry the county by 400 over Elliott in the congressional contest. The result of the senatorial contest is not indicated.

BROOKVILLE, Ind., Nov. 3.—Only partial reports on election results had been returned by nine of the twenty-five precincts of Franklin county early this morning. Totals for president in the nine precincts which had reported gave Cox 1,205, Harding 789. These precincts included several of the largest Democratic precincts in the county. None of the normally Republican precincts had reported. Republican managers are claiming that Cox's plurality will not exceed 300 which is 400 less than the normal Democratic plurality in this county.

CONNERSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 3.—Eleven of the twenty-two precincts of Fayette county, including the largest Democratic precincts, which had reported early this morning, gave Harding a plurality of 504. It is estimated that he will carry the county by 1,000. Representative Elliott will have a plurality of between 500 and 600 and Watson, for senator, will have about the same plurality. Eight out of twenty-two precincts gave Elliott 1,391 and Yarrow 1,465.

SEN. HARDING SPENDS DAY IN OPEN AIR

MARION, Ohio, Nov. 2.—Warren Gamaliel Harding tonight had the greatest birthday party of his life. Surrounded by members of his family and a circle of neighbors and personal friends, he received quietly at his home here the tribute of millions of voters.

The smile of confidence he has worn for weeks broadened as he read the early returns and began to receive a flood of congratulatory messages, halting him as president-elect. He deferred any formal comment, however, until the results should have been established beyond all doubt.

ILLINOIS GOES BIG FOR SEN. HARDING

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Republicans swept Illinois today giving Senator Harding a lead so large that if the ratio is maintained for unreported precincts, his majority over Governor Cox would be more than 800,000.

Small was elected governor by a large margin over Former Senator Lewis. William B. McKinley was elected senator to succeed Lawrence Y. Sherman, who retired, and while returns were incomplete on congressmen, Republican candidates were either elected or had leads in most districts.

Among Republicans returned to congress was Jos. G. Cannon, of the Eighteenth district. Returns from 1,491 precincts out of 5,730 including 625 in Chicago for president gave Harding 338,242; Cox 123,432.
