A pretty home-wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Page in Liberty, Wednesday when their daughter, Miss Mildred Page, and Park Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Anderson, of Spartansburg, were united in marriage. Before the ceremony a selection of bridal airs were sung by Miss Corinne Snyder of Cincinnati and "To a Wild Rose" was played by Miss Mary Rebecca Pigman, violinist, and Miss Charlotte Husted, pianist. The bridal party entered at the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Pigman and Miss Husted. The ceremony was performed at an artistic altar of yellow chrysanthemums in an archway entwined with smilax. The single ring service was used, the Rev. Walter H. Reynolds, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The bride wore a lovely gown of white georgette and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Her maid of honor, Miss Vivian Douthett, and the bridesmaid, Miss Martha Page, wore gowns of pale pink georgette. Their flowers were shower bouquets of yellow pompon chrysanthemums. Attendants of the groom were Eber Brown, of Lynnt, and Albert Martin, of Liberty. The bride is one of the most popular members of the younger set in Liberty and prominent in social activities. Mr. Anderson is superintendent of construction with a company in Richmond, where they will reside. Their address will be 1115 1/2 North B street.

Miss Marjorie Edwards entertained informally at her home Wednesday evening as a courtesy to Miss Pauline Smith, a bride elect. Decorations were artistic bouquets of mixed flowers. Games and dancing furnished the evening's entertainment and later luncheon was served to the guests who included: Miss Smith, Miss Mary Reinhard, Miss Gertrude Eggleston, Miss Clara Daub, Miss Mildred Whiteley, Miss Lurana Shute, Miss Helen Jessup, Miss Jeanette Kemper, Miss Oren Shelton, Miss Mary Schumide, Miss Helen Semler, and Miss Grace Eaton.

Fifteen members and two guests, Miss Elsie Bull, and Mrs. Myron Hill, attended the meeting of the Ribacra club when it was entertained by Miss Mary Krivel at her home on South Fourth street Wednesday evening. Pumpkins and crepe paper in Hallowe'en colors were attractively used in decorating. The yellow and black color scheme was also carried out in the luncheon appointments. Following a short business meeting Miss Esther Hill and Miss Mabel Woodard gave a musical program. The club, which is helping with relief work for children in foreign countries is making scrap books at present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Esther Hill.

When the Tourist club continues its cruise of the Mediterranean next Friday evening, Mrs. John H. Nicholson will take the party to "Riviera". Those going will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Robinson. Mrs. N. S. Cox and John E. Parker will lead the discussion.

All committees of the East Main Street Friends church are requested to meet at the church tonight. Following the business meeting, refreshments will be served. All members of the congregation are invited also.

Mrs. Samuel Curtis will entertain the U. T. C. club Friday afternoon at her home on Richmond avenue.

Mrs. Jesse Sullivan will be hostess for the regular class meeting of the Loyal Women's class of First Christian church, at her home, 428 West Main street, Friday at 2:30 p. m.

The Mary Hill W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Emma Ryan, 226 Linden avenue, Friday at 2 p. m.

All members of the Harmony Sunday school class are invited to meet Friday evening at the home of Miss Hazel Gregg, 2205 East Main street.

Mrs. Frank H. Glass will be hostess for the Hill Top Sewing circle Friday afternoon at her home, 2203 East Main street.

Members of South Eighth Street Friends church will hold their annual basket supper Friday at 6:30 p. m.

Meat will be furnished by the committee in charge.

Miss Martha Habing was entertained with a masquerade party in honor of her 14th birthday last Sunday evening. Hallowe'en appointments were used in the house for the occasion. The guests included Miss Martha Habing, Miss Elizabeth Kettman, Miss Marguerite Rohe, Miss Irene Baumer, Miss Lorraine Puthoff, Miss Charlotte Dingley, Miss Mary Puthoff, Miss Marcia Maurer, Miss Clara Hillman, Miss Florence Muey, Miss Roma St. John, Miss Elizabeth Buening, Miss Alma Elstro, Miss Dorothy Conner, Miss Agnes Miller, Miss Agnes Kut-ter, Miss Angela Visemeler, Miss Margaret Habing, Miss Mary and Miss Bertha Habing, Bernard Habing, Mrs. W. R. King and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Habing.

Pretty Hallowe'en decorations marked the masquerade party given by Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hill at their home near Whitewater, as a courtesy to Miss Clara Abner. Games and stunts were played. Prizes for the best costumes went to Miss Madelon Hannah and Elmer Hill. A Hallowe'en supper was served to the guests who included Miss Madelon Hannah, Miss Opal Skinner, Miss Chelsea Simeon, Miss Mildred Hill, Miss Marie Harris, Miss Lorraine Lacey, Miss Frances Burt, Miss Frances Day, Miss Lucile Robinson, Miss Edna Hill, Miss Clara Abner, Miss Opal Powble, Miss Marjorie Robinson, Elmer Hill, Morris Clark, Russell Knoll, Robert Knoll, Harold Blose, Bennett Burt, Ben Weller, Russell Mills, Raymond Carman, Harold Cates, Nell Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rolland.

*Miss Lois Reynolds was hostess for a dinner party given at her home in Fountain City Tuesday evening, given for Bennett Burt who leaves soon for Florida. Covers were laid for Miss Goldie Gifford, Miss Reynolds, Delmer Thomas and Bennett Burt.

Mrs. N. C. Heironimus and Mrs. Garwood Iredell were hostesses for a meeting of the Athenaeum Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Heironimus, 535 National Road West. The program included two very excellent papers, "Alaska Under Russian Rule,"
