

MEMORIAL TO GRANT NEARING COMPLETION; 18 YEARS IN MAKING

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Eighteen years in the making, a memorial to General U. S. Grant is nearing completion here and probably will be unveiled before the end of the year. It is in the form of a magnificent equestrian statue of bronze, the second largest of its kind in the world, mounted on a granite pedestal and flanked on the left by a casting of a group of cavalry and on the right by a group of artillery, both groups done in bronze. Two huge lions in stone at the foot of the pedestal complete the memorial.

The equestrian figure stands 16 feet high, weighs 10,700 pounds and cost $250,000. The memorial is located in the Botanic Gardens at the foot of the capitol and congress has approved the removal of a section of the iron fence on the east front of the gardens to admit the statue and to provide space for spectators at the unveiling ceremonies.

Authorized in 1901.
Authority for the creation of the memorial was given by congress on February 23, 1901. The competition for the statue was held in 1902 and the award was to Henry M. Shrady, a noted sculptor, of Elmford, N. Y., whose design was selected by a jury consisting of Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Daniel Chester French, Daniel H. Burnham and Charles F. McKim. The pedestal was designed by Edward Pierce Casey, of New York, associated with Mr. Shrady, and was completed and put in place in 1906.

The equestrian statue has just now been finished, however, and was shipped here in sections by motor truck from New York City.

The memorial to the famous general, 18th president of the United States will bear no inscription, according to members of the Fine Arts Commission, who recently approved the statue in its completed form. A member of the Grant Memorial Commission had composed a lengthy inscription, but after careful consideration officials of the commission and of the office of public buildings and grounds deemed an inscription unnecessary.

Automatic Phone Service.
Praised by British Expert
(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 8.—Sir William Noble, engineer-in-chief to the British Post Office, which also controls the telephones of the country, says the American telephone system is superior to that of Great Britain.

Sir William, who has just returned from a visit to the United States, told the Society of Arts the general introduction of automatic telephones was probably the main feature in the American scheme of progress. Discussing this matter with telephone experts in the cities he visited, he found practically a unanimous opinion that full automatic working was the only certain method of ensuring the quality of service demanded by the public.

The popularity of the telephone in America, was, he considered, due first of all to the flat rate, secondly to monthly accounts, and thirdly to party line services and the policy of fostering residential lines.

To house the world's largest dirigible, now being built in England for the U. S. government, the American navy is building a giant hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. It is now about 90 per cent complete and appears like a giant skeleton. It is to be completed in time to receive the "ship" when it sails across the ocean next spring. The photo shows the great doors that slide back and forth on electrically operated railway trucks and the tall elevator tower. The hangar is 500 feet long, 349 feet wide and 207 feet high. Its estimated cost will be $3,700,000.

ESTIS AND MILLS SENTENCED AT EATON; ONE TO SEVEN YEARS

EATON, O., Nov. 8.—R. L. Estis, of Mattoon, Ill., and William Mills, of St. James, Mo., recently convicted on a charge of automobile stealing, were refused a new trial Saturday by Judge G. W. Mannix, Greenville, in common pleas court, after arguments on a motion for a new trial had been presented by state and defense counsel.

The court immediately passed sentence upon the prisoners. Estis was sentenced to from one to seven years in the penitentiary. Mills was sentenced to from one to seven years in the state reformatory, at Mansfield, owing to his age. He is 20 years old.

Stay of execution of the sentence for a period of 21 days was granted in order to give the prisoners an opportunity to appeal to the court of appeals, the next higher court. Pending outcome of the appeal, if taken, Estis' bond was fixed at $2,500 and that of Mills at $2,000.

Counsel for the prisoners stated Saturday, after a new trial was refused, that they were preparing the necessary legal papers for appeal; also that arrangements were being made to furnish bond for release of the prisoners from jail. It was expected both proceedings would be filed in court today.

Estis and Mills stand convicted of stealing an automobile from the garage of S. C. Richie at New Paris, about two years ago. The car was recovered in Indianapolis and restored to Richie two or three days after it was stolen. Estis and Mills were in possession of the car and they were arrested. They were indicted here in May, 1919, and trial of the case was postponed six or eight different times. The case was tried week before last before Judge Mannix, of Greenville, and a jury.

Counsel for the prisoners intimates that if the court of appeals affirms the lower court the case will be taken to the supreme court. The case presents the most determined effort put forth in a local criminal case in many years.

THOUSANDS WELCOME HARDING'S ENTRANCE IN LONE STAR STATE

(By Associated Press)
ON BOARD PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Nov. 8.—Traveling southward through eastern Texas to begin his vacation at Point Isabel, President-elect Harding was welcomed to the Lone Star state Sunday by many applauding crowds who gathered eagerly about his train to shake hands and congratulate him on his election. At several of the larger places he responded to demands for a speech and voiced briefly his doctrine of a re-united nation, in which sectionalism and class should be forgotten.

He assured every crowd that his administration would be guided by the good of all the people rather than by partisanship, and also included in each speech a plea for Sabbath observance and for an awakened religious reverence in America.

Welcome From Governor.
As his special train entered the state the president elect received a message of greeting and welcome from Governor Hobby. He replied thankfully, voicing a hope that his stay along the southern border of the country would help to cement the relations of the North and South. Point Isabel, where the party is to arrive at noon tomorrow, is on the gulf coast, and within six miles of the Rio Grande. The approach of the president-elect so near the Mexican border caused considerable speculation today as to whether he might use his 12-day stay to gather first-hand information of conditions in the southern republic, but it was said aboard the train, that any steps he took would be of a strictly unofficial character. It has been reported that efforts would be made to arrange a conference between Mr. Harding and General Obregon, the president-elect of Mexico. Informal overtures, also, are expected from the anti-Obregon faction, but Mr. Harding has indicated that in the interests of strict propriety he would not encourage any consultation with those who are not citizens of the United States. On the other hand, it is pointed out, that should General Obregon actually present himself for a conference, it might be difficult to refuse.

He added that later the campaign may be extended through means of speakers.

SOFT COAL PRODUCTION SETS RECORD FOR YEAR
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Soft coal production for the week of Oct. 30 was 12,338,000 tons, a new maximum for the year, figures made public Saturday by the United States geological survey show. For four consecutive weeks the daily output has averaged better than 2,000,000 tons, the longest period on record of sustained output at the rate except during the summer of 1918. Anthracite production during the same week was 1,696,000 tons, a decrease of 219,000 tons from the preceding week. This was due, it was said, to observance of the Mitchell day holiday, Oct. 29, commemorating the settlement of the great anthracite strike of 1902.
