

REAPPORTIONMENT IS TASK FOR ASSEMBLY AT JANUARY SESSION

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—Reapportionment of the ninety-two counties of the state will be one of the big tasks facing the approaching session of the General Assembly, which convenes next January.

Under the provisions of the state constitution, the 100 members of the House and the 50 members of the Senate are distributed among the counties every six years on the basis of the number of male voters. A constitutional amendment will be introduced including women voters in the enumeration. The apportionment made at this session of the legislature will be on the basis of an enumeration of voters made in 1919.

Figures showing the fractional number of representatives and senators each county will be entitled to under the new distribution have been prepared by Charles Kettleborough, director of the legislative reference bureau, for use in the state auditor's office. Counties having less than the required number of voters are also entitled to joint representation for fractional numbers of voters over their full representation.

Marion Gains Representative.

Under the new apportionment, Marion county will gain one representative, increasing the county delegation from ten to eleven. It is possible, also, that Marion county will have a joint representative with some other county. Lake county will have one more representative, making the county delegation in the lower House five instead of four. Lake county also has a joint representative now, and it is expected that this additional representation will be held by the county. Marion county will probably not gain another senator, the present senatorial representation of four senators and one joint senator appearing likely of continuation under the new apportionment.

St. Joseph county made a big gain, but whether the figures will entitle the county to larger representation probably will depend on the action of the Legislature. Other counties showing big gains are Madison, Vigo and Howard. These counties may receive additional joint representation in the new allotment.

Six counties appear likely to lose representatives—Clinton, Grant, Kosciusko, Lawrence, Randolph and Shelby. Substantial decreases are recorded in these counties, and present full representation may be reduced to joint representation with neighboring counties.

Marion Fight Apportionment.

The re-apportionment undoubtedly will be the center of a big fight in the Legislature. The loss of representation in the General Assembly is regarded as a severe blow to "home pride" and efforts will be made by the backward counties to shift the losses to other districts of the state. It is believed, Special committees on the apportionment will handle the question for both branches of the legislature.

Wayne Purdue Students Subscribe to Memorial

Wayne county students of Purdue university have been the first county group to subscribe 100 percent to the Purdue union endowment for a student war-memorial building. The Purdue university has been organized at Purdue to secure a student building which will be a adequate memorial to the 4,000 men and women of Purdue who served their country in the World war. The building is to be equipped with recreational and social facilities and will supply the need of the university for a proper headquarters for returning alumni.

U. S. ASKS EARLY REVIEW OF VICTOR BERGER CASE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The government Monday requested the supreme court to advance for early hearing.

Easy to Darken Your Gray Hair

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home, is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears and, after second application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

Teach School Children How to Preserve Fruit

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—The art of making Philadelphia scrapple, chow-chow, chili sauce and of preserving fruit is now taught here in the public schools.

Instructors in the domestic science department have asked pupils to bring part of their mothers' canning and preserving utensils to school. The youngsters are being taught the best methods of preserving.

Other innovations introduced in the local schools in an effort to train girls for home-making are:

Little Mothers' Classes, under supervision of the Child Federation.

Grocery stores in some schools to teach arithmetic and economy in buying.

Millinery and dressmaking in the Girls' Trade school.

School cafeterias with domestic science classes.

In the Little Mothers' Classes the pupils when they cannot borrow a real baby from one of the mothers in the neighborhood, practice on dolls as large as an average infant. They are taught how to wash and dress the baby and instructed in health rules for its care. Many of the small pupils in the congested districts of the city bring their own wards for the class to "mother."

Irish Hunger Strikers In Precarious Plight

(By Associated Press)

CORK, Nov. 9.—Reports from the Cork jail today described the conditions of the nine remaining Irish hunger strikers there as precarious. Although this was the ninetieth day of their strike the emaciated prisoners were declared to be still determined to refuse food. There were originally eleven of the Cork hunger strikers, but one of them, Michael Fitzgerald, died Oct. 17, and another, Joseph Murphy, on Oct. 25, within a few hours of the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork in the Brixton prison on the seventy-third day of his hunger strike.

CANNERS FOUND GUILTY OF MISBRANDING BEANS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—Van Camp, Morgan, Indiana and a number of other canning companies were found guilty of misbranding imported red kidney beans by a jury in a federal court here Monday. The case is the first of many instigated by the government against several scores of canning companies of the United States. In the case here, it was said that 90 per cent of the beans labeled as native red kidney beans are imported.

RISKS LIFE FOR CLOTHES.

PLYMOUTH, Eng., Nov. 9.—Boatswain Butcher of West Virginia was saved recently when the French sailing vessel Yvonne, from Jamaica for Havre, was wrecked off the Plymouth breakwater.

Fearing to lose his best suit of clothes, Butcher changed before leaving the wreck, declaring if he reached shore he wanted them, and if drowned it didn't matter.

Eldorado Man Injures Hand In Corn Shredder Accident

ELDORADO, O., Nov. 9.—Clive Spitzer of this vicinity, lost four fingers of his left hand as the result of an accident Saturday evening. Spitzer was running a corn shredder on the farm owned by Albert Wehrley, south of town. The machine had choked and he endeavored to remedy the trouble by poking the fodder with a corn stalk. The husking rolls caught his glove, drawing his hand into the machine.

He was taken to the Reid hospital, where his hand was found to be so badly mangled that the fingers were amputated.

Proclamation is Issued For Armistice Day Event

TERRE HAUTE PREPARES TO WELCOME WILL HAYS.
(By Associated Press)

The celebration of Armistice Day on Thursday of this week should be an occasion which should call to the mind of all the fact of the return of peace to the world.

All exercises on that day should be in keeping with this great event and should be a day of profound thankfulness for the end of the great world war, for the beginning of peace and for the reign of law and order.

Reports have come of the preparation for selling liquor, and it has been said that liquor has already been stored for that purpose. On former occasions the law has been violated and because of this the streets have been made unsafe. It is the determination of the city administration to secure law observance and to preserve safety on Armistice Day.

I, therefore, W. W. Zimmerman, Mayor of the City of Richmond, desire it to be known that all offenders will be punished to the fullest extent of the law and that every effort possible will be made to provide an occasion in keeping with the high and lofty purposes of Armistice Day.

And whereas, Armistice Day is in commemoration of the signing of papers for world's peace, therefore, I would request, as mayor of Richmond, that all people join in the rejoicing; also that all business houses, factories, firms and corporations suspend business between the hours of 10 and 6.

W. W. ZIMMERMAN,
Mayor.

Special interurban cars will carry the committee and several hundred citizens to Terre Haute and vicinity who will participate in the homecoming celebration.
