

GOODRICH APPOINTS TWO NEW MEMBERS ON STATE TAX BOARD

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—Governor Goodrich announced Tuesday the appointment of John J. Brown, of Rockport, and the re-appointment of Philip Zoercher, of Indianapolis, as members of the state board of tax commissioners. The commissions of both will be dated Dec. 1. The appointments are for four years.

Mr. Brown is a farmer and attorney of southern Indiana. He is a vice-president of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' associations and has been active in the work of organization. He is president of the Brown Trust company, Rockport, and a member of the Spencer County Bar Association. Mr. Brown and his brother own 1,100 acres of farm land, of which 900 acres are farmed under Mr. Brown's personal supervision.

Takes Cragun's Place
Mr. Brown is a Republican and takes the place of Strange N. Cragun, of Lebanon, on the board. He has been prominent in the affairs of his community, serving as postmaster of Rockport and as Republican county chairman in several campaigns.

Mr. Zoercher, who is the Democratic member of the board, was first appointed in 1918. He was reporter of the supreme court from 1913 to 1917. In 1916 Mr. Zoercher was a candidate for re-election as reporter on the Democratic ticket, but was defeated at the election.

Fill Important Posts
The appointments are the most important to be made by Governor Goodrich during the remainder of his term of office. The tax board, which has charge of the supervision of the new tax law, is regarded as one of the most important commissions in the statehouse and its actions have been the center of many activities of the present state administration.

Members of the tax board receive a salary of $4,000 a year. Fred A. Sims, chairman, is the third member of the board. The appointment of Mr. Sims as a member of the board does not expire until Sept. 1, 1921.

Mr. Cragun, who retires as a member of the board, was appointed by ex-Governor Ralston. He has announced plans for an extended vacation trip following his retirement from the state service.

OLD ROAD SECTION IS ORDERED CLEARED

The board of works Monday ordered F. E. Slick to remove dirt and debris which he had dumped on a section of the old national road, leading west from South First street, and Isaac Smith, bridge contractor, who may have unwittingly dumped waste material on the stretch of highway, also was ordered to remove it.

The action of the board followed a complaint of the Starr Piano company and the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern Traction company, that the dumping of dirt on the road had blocked free access to their properties by fire department in case of an emergency.

Attention was called to the peril of the situation when it was shown to the board that a short circuit recently caused a large blaze in the power house, which was put out by a fire extinguisher. If the flames had gotten beyond the control of the employees, the fire department could not have gotten to the building.

City Engineer Davis was instructed to stake out the road in its original position.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA COMPLETES REHEARSAL

Final rehearsals of the Richmond Symphony orchestra preparatory for their premiere at the Coliseum next Monday evening are being held this week. The orchestra will play five numbers that evening, one of them having two movements and another four. Concert soloist will be Miss Miriam Hadley, violinist, a Richmond girl, and student of F. K. Hicks, the symphony concert master. The orchestral accompaniments for Miss Hadley were arranged by Conductor Joseph E. Maddy.

Mr. Maddy, who is a violinist, teacher and conductor of remarkable musical ability, played first violin and clarinet in the Minneapolis symphony orchestra for four years, and for some time played first violin with the Wichita Symphony orchestra of Wichita, Kansas, where he also attracted much attention as an organizer of festival choruses, a concert orchestra and concert band. He founded the Wellington Conservatory in Kansas in 1915. In 1918 he was a member of the American Symphony orchestra of Chicago. Before coming to Richmond he had further musical experience with the famous musical organizations of Rochester, N. Y. Although Professor Maddy has been here a very short time he has organized several orchestras in the public schools, the high school band, several festival choruses, a boys' glee club at the high school, and is conducting the symphony orchestra.

Local Church Women Favor Wittenberg College Drive

Wittenberg college, at Springfield, Ohio, an institution of the United Lutheran Church in America, will launch an appeal for $1,500,000 during the week of November 14th, for a Greater Wittenberg. Increasing interest is being manifested in the movement. Tuesday afternoon a meeting of the women of the Second English Lutheran church, of which the Rev. Raymond Isley is pastor, resolutions were adopted favoring the movement.

The resolution follows: Whereas, the mothers of men have the greatest interest in the training of mind and character of the growing generation, and therefore have the most immediate and direct interest in the maintenance and strengthening of Christian schools;

And whereas, Wittenberg college looks back upon an unparalleled record of service in the building of character and the sending out of young men and women who are an honor to their country, who have always been loyal to their church, and who in a great measure have aided the upbuilding of the church in this territory;

And whereas, Wittenberg college today needs the wholehearted support of all its friends in order that it may in the future in like measure carry on its work as in the past;

Be it resolved that we, the women of the Second English Lutheran church, of Richmond, Indiana, pledge our unstinted, wholehearted, and abiding effort to stand by Wittenberg in her hour of need;

And be it resolved that we will give to the utmost of our ability and that we will do our part to persuade others by their gifts to help make our Greater Wittenberg.

While no figures as to the size of the deficit are available, Captain Heintz estimated that it would probably exceed $1,000,000.

Deny Idaho's Petition For Change in Zone

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The petition of the Idaho public utilities commission asking that Idaho be placed in the standard mountain time zone rather than in the Pacific time zone was denied by the Interstate Commerce commission.

To change the limits of a time zone, the commission said, "would result in seriously distorting the several zone boundaries which should coincide as nearly as is reasonably practicable with the respective median meridians having regard for the convenience of commerce and the existing junction and division points of interstate commerce carriers."

Deny Reports That Penrose Had Relapse

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Published reports that United States Senator Boies Penrose, who has been ill for a year, has had a relapse were denied today by one of his physicians, who said there was no material change in the senator's condition. Besides his other ailments the senator is suffering from neuritis which at times gives him much pain. The fact that he is not seeing visitors at this time is believed to have given rise to reports that his condition is worse. Senator Penrose is making preparations to re-leave his home after an absence since last November. He has leased a large apartment in Washington.

INVESTIGATE PILLAGE OF FAMOUS RESORT BY RAPACIOUS TURKS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 10.—Pillage by the Turks of the Imperial Russian watering-place of Abbas Tuman in the Caucasus mountains, is being investigated here. A large quantity of the furnishings and paintings belonging to the luxurious villas of this little city, where many of the aristocracy of Russia used to pass their vacations, has been discovered in Constantinople. Some of these furnishings are in the palace of Enver Pasha, formerly the Turkish War Minister, on the Bosphorus, now occupied by the French general staff.

The pillage of Abbas Tuman is one of the untold stories of the rapacious Turkish pashas and generals. Abbas Tuman is unknown outside of Russia. Yet it was one of the little paradises with which countries lying near the Black Sea are blessed. Nestling in the mountains of Georgia, it possessed one of the beautiful and lengthy drive-ways for which the Caucasus is famous. During the hot summer months the Imperial Russian family used to pass a few weeks among the pines of this rich center of museums, villas and churches.

Amazed at Riches.
Up from the beautiful roads from Batum to Tiflis, came in the spring of 1917, the Turkish army, following the retreat of the Russian army, which had gone bolshevik. The Turks were amazed at the riches of Abbas Tuman. The commandant of the 31st brigade sealed up to the members of the new senate when at assemblies. Charges of extravagance were aimed at the baths in congressional debate when the power of administration last swung from Republican to Democratic and as a result the baths installed in the then new senate office building were shorn of their expensive equipment, bereft of their attendants and left to gloom. The marble slabs, Turkish rugs and steam proof tables and chairs were turned over to government hospitals and only the marble shelves and nickel fittings left in place. Now, however, the baths are coming back, but under a new plan. Members of the senate themselves will pay a large part of the operating expenses and a special unofficial committee has taken charge of the assessments, which will be levied against each used in proportion to the service he exacts. The baths will be somewhat less gorgeous than the original plan anticipated, but in their luxury and completeness will still have claim to comparison with private club installation.

Senators will be able to steam themselves out in a series of marble hot-rooms, resuscitate themselves on the drying room cots, invigorate under one of the several types of needle and drench showers and float in the swimming size plunge.

They also can try massage, the electric cabinet or the pricking shocks from the static machine.

Installation of the baths cost many scores of thousands and some senators, at least, feel that the waste of letting the equipment lie dormant is as great as any expense that may be encountered in putting it into service.

AMERICAN GOODS ARE POPULAR IN NORWAY

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The popularity of American goods in Norway is described in a report to the Department of Commerce by Trade Commissioner Nels A. Bengtson, which says that American automobiles and trucks are so predominant that they give a distinct American touch to street traffic in many of the cities.

Agricultural machinery also is prominent and as a whole the United States now ranks first in the trade in metal manufacture as well as first in the imports of leather goods and second in textiles and clothing.

Discussing the opportunities for American products in the Norwegian market, Commissioner Bengtson reported that in general the high quality of American tools and mechanism was conceded and the expression was frequently heard that American goods ranked first in quality although somewhat higher in price than the same type of goods from the United Kingdom, Sweden or Germany.

CAR SITUATION THEME AT RAILWAY MEETING

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Discussion of the car situation occupied most of the morning session of the annual convention of the National Association of Railway and Utilities commissioners here today. Interstate Commerce Commissioner Atchison was on the program for an address.

The convention planned to elect officers before recessing and expected to receive the report of the valuation committee regarding bases of valuation.

At sectional meetings today discussion centered around "local street railway and interurban transportation" and "the gas problem."

A committee, reporting to the convention yesterday, declared that public ownership and operation of railroads had failed wherever it had been properly tested. The report held that private ownership and operation with public regulation was the "only just and honest manner of conducting the public utility business of the country."

Senate Baths Subject Of Long Controversy Are to Be Put Into Use

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The Graeco-Roman baths of the United States senate installed nearly eight years ago, but never put into service, are now being cleared of the cobwebs and stains of time and will be in shape to offer their luxuries of steam, plunge shower and electricity to the members of the new senate when at assemblies. Charges of extravagance were aimed at the baths in congressional debate when the power of administration last swung from Republican to Democratic and as a result the baths installed in the then new senate office building were shorn of their expensive equipment, bereft of their attendants and left to gloom. The marble slabs, Turkish rugs and steam proof tables and chairs were turned over to gov-
