

START FUND DRIVE TO AID MILLIONS OF STARVING CHILDREN

Responding to an appeal of Herbert Hoover, the Literary Digest has launched a campaign to raise $23,000,000 to provide food and clothing for 3,500,000 children of Europe who are in need of relief.

The movement has the endorsement of President-elect Harding, who, in a letter accompanying a check for $2,500, said: "Because such a movement for relief reveals the true heart of America, because it bespeaks an American desire to play a great people's part in relieving and restoring God's own children, I want to commend and support your noble undertaking."

In Poland alone 1,500,000 children must be cared for. In Latvia and Estonia, the people are living mostly on a diet made from potato flour, oat flour and sawdust. In Czechoslovakia, in Hungary, in Austria and in other countries of central and south-eastern Europe 2,000,000 more are in direct need of food.

Relieve Only Part
The 3,500,000 children for whom this appeal of the Literary Digest is made, are only a small fraction of the total number that are hungry. Only those whose wasted little bodies are reduced to the minimum weight, and whose endurance of hunger has reached the end which merges into actual starvation, are admitted to the American kitchens and given one meal a day. And these neediest ones must be supplied with clothing. Each outfit consists of one pair of warm woolen stockings, one pair of boots and a little overcoat.

The smallest individual unit of $10 will provide coat, boots and stockings and one meal a day for one child this winter.

"We urge you," says the Literary Digest, "to give quickly as many of these units as possible, to buy for themselves that precious and priceless thing, the life of a child. It was the divine love of little children, who came to earth as a little child, and who reigns now as the King of Glory, who said, 'Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me.' He does not forget, nor fail to reward."

Make all checks for this cause payable to The Literary Digest, c/o Freding Fund and mail them direct to The Literary Digest, 354-360 Fourth Avenue, New York.

Circuit Court

The trial of Elmer Fackson, charged with murder in the second degree for the shooting of Amos Carpenter, which began Thursday, continued throughout Friday in Wayne circuit court. It was expected the case would go to the jury late in the afternoon.

Two police officers, Patrolman Kendall and Sergeant Smith, who arrested Fackson, Dr. Wampler, who examined the body of Carpenter, and Joseph Walteman, an undertaker, who heard the firing of the shots that killed Carpenter and who summoned the police, were among the witnesses in the forenoon.

It was expected that Mrs. Fackson, wife of the defendant and said to have been the cause of the tragedy, would take the stand and tell of the attention she received from Carpenter.

The defense contends that Carpenter threatened to kill Fackson and alleges that Fackson shot him in self-defense. Mr. Walteman testified that after Carpenter's body had been taken to the morgue a pair of knucks was found in one of his pockets.

Trinity Lutheran Church To Conduct Institute

Trinity English Lutheran church, corner of Seventh and South A streets, will hold a church and Sunday school institute beginning Sunday, Nov. 14. The object of the institute will be to inform and entice the members in the work of the church and Sunday school and to interest those who are not at present in connection with the church. The program follows:

Sunday morning, Nov. 14—"Training for Life's Service."

Sunday evening, Nov. 14—"The Light of the Home," Dr. C. B. Goldes, Professor Capital University, Columbus, Ohio.

Monday evening, Nov. 15—"The Church and the Sunday School," Mr. Luther Keager, Richmond, Ind.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 15—"Music Night," Concert of vocal and instrumental music, "The Lutheran Church and the Ministry of Music," Rev. Oscar Tresselt.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 17—"The Lutheran Church and Catechetical Instruction," Rev. A. L. Nicklas, Richmond, Ind.

Thursday evening, Nov. 18—"The Lady's part in Church and Sunday School Work," Mr. Warren Beck, Richmond, Ind.

Friday evening, Nov. 19—"The Bible, Its Origin, Character and Value," Rev. Oscar Tresselt.

The public is cordially invited to all of these services.

Earlham Class Socials Planned for Saturday

Three class socials will be held Saturday evening at the college. The seniors held a costume party at the community house Wednesday and will be on hand to watch over the other classes Saturday night. The sophomores will dress in rustic costumes, but it is not known what the nature of the other parties will be.

A movie, featuring Douglas McLean and Doris May will be given in the chapel Saturday evening, Nov. 20.

Wittenberg College Needs Told Lutherans Sunday

Christian Education will be the subject of Rev. J. P. Miller's address at St. Paul's Lutheran church Sunday morning, Nov. 14. He will deal particularly with the needs of Wittenberg college which is now starting a drive for an increased endowment. A letter urging the attendance of all members of the church has been sent out.

All the pastors of Lutheran churches in Wittenberg's territory will present the cause of the college and Christian education. At this time consecration services for the men who have been selected to go out and present the cause to the people will be held. The canvassers will start out Sunday afternoon for subscriptions to the endowment funds.

Alice Maxine Eadler Dies At Reid Hospital Thursday

Alice Maxine Eadler, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Eadler, 402 North Fifteenth street, died Thursday, at 3 p. m., at the Reid Memorial hospital. She is survived by her parents, two sisters and one brother.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home Monday, at 2 p. m. The Rev. L. E. Murray will officiate. Burial will be in Earlham. Friends may call at any time.

CHRISTMAS EXCHANGE BY SOCIAL SERVICE

A Christmas Exchange will be established by the Social Service Bureau during the holiday season. Names of all needy individuals will be registered by the bureau. All Sunday School classes, organizations and individuals that are planning on helping certain families are asked to register their names with the bureau, in this way preventing duplications.

It is hoped that in this manner more families can be cared for. Names of needy individuals will be supplied to those desiring to dispense Christmas cheer. Headquarters will be in the Social Service rooms, in the court house. This action was taken at the regular meeting of the board of directors of the bureau in the Y. M. C. A. Friday afternoon.

Presbyterian Church Market.—A market will be held Saturday afternoon at Leslie Hart's Electrical store, 1927 Main street, by Circle One of the First Presbyterian church.

Movie.—An interesting feature of Thursday's parade was the parade news representative who was on hand to get pictures of the parade. He was brought here by the combined efforts of the Young Men's Business club and Manager Bell, of the Washington theatre, where the pictures will be shown in the near future. Some of the pictures will probably make the national edition of the news.

Helps Raise Fund.—Miss Nina S. Shera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Shera, 30 North Thirteenth street, is taking an active part in the drive to raise $10,000,000 for a memorial building to be erected by Purdue university. She is a senior in the university, and in a recent canvass of contributions from students, was one of the largest contributors.

Y Entertains Visitors.—The Y. M. C. A. proved a very comfortable place for visitors to the city Thursday. The lobby and rest rooms of the building were filled to capacity in the morning and afternoon proving a veritable community house for all visitors. Many took advantage of the swimming pool and gymnasium facilities. The football teams took advantage of the showers and dressing rooms.

Woodward to Newcastle.—Walter Woodward, editor of the American Friend, went to Newcastle Friday, to attend the Bible school conference. He is to return Friday night.

Friends Accounts Audited.—Francis A. Wright, of Kansas City, Mo., a former treasurer of the Friends' Five Years meeting, is auditing the accounts of the Friends Forward Movement organization. Mr. Wright is an expert accountant, and is especially well known by Friends throughout the country.

Trinity Choir Rehearsal—The Junior choir of Trinity Lutheran church will meet for rehearsal Saturday at 4:00 p. m. at the church.

Return From Portland.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Rand and Robert L. Rand have returned from Portland, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Jane E. Hearn.

Weisbrods Give Musical.—Pet Barnes, famous among overseas men for his entertainment "A Buck on Leave" will appear with Cliff Hess in a musical and vaudeville stunt at the Weisbrods Music store Saturday afternoon and night. The two men musicians and entertainers are connected with a piano player roll company and demonstrate the making of the rolls.

High School

The high school faculty will meet Monday afternoon. Members of the Garfield Junior high school faculty will be their guests at a social to be held after the business session.

Honor pins were awarded in the high school auditorium Friday morning to students of the 1918-1919 and 1919-1920 classes who made A's in 35 hours or more of a year's work. Students who were awarded the pins for 1918-1919 and who have graduated were Miss Helen Eggeneyer, Mary Louise Bates, Miss Esther Wilson and Paul Heltonimus. Other students receiving the pins were Miss Mildred Ratliff, Miss Irene Jarra, Lewis Wilson, Allen Campbell, Earle Carr and Miss Irene Feltman.

Graduates who won the pins in 1919-1920 were Miss Adelaide Kemp, Miss Katherine Cox and Miss Lucille Ruby. Students who have not yet graduated and who were awarded the pins for their work that year are Ralph Sheffer, Miss Mildred Whitely, Miss Irene Jarra, Allen Campbell, Miss Doris Weesner, Miss Queen Webb, Harold Malone, Miss Alice Palmer, Miss Lucille Loofbourrow and Daniel Van Voorhis.

Among the six graduates who were given pins for their work while in high school the name of only one boy appears. In the list of under-graduates six of the 16 honor students were boys. In other words, 15 of the 23 honor students were girls.

Home Brew Ban Tightened By Prohibition Officials

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Prohibition enforcement officers throughout the country have been instructed to prevent the sale of malt and hops to others than bakers and confectioners, but details of the order which tightens the ban on home brewing were lacking today.

In the absence of Commissioner Kramer, officials at the prohibition enforcement bureau said that the sale of hops and malt as component parts of home made beer had been ruled to be in violation of the Volstead Act. They would not discuss, however, details of the new order which is said to have resulted from a construction placed on the law nearly two months ago.

A document was started at that time to change regular channels for the purpose of obtaining a decision from the treasury in the matter, but it has not yet been approved by Secretary Houston. Officials admitted the existence of the proposed treasury ruling but would not comment concerning it.

It was said at Commissioner Kramer's offices that litigation was expected to result in order to determine the jurisdiction of the government. The bureau it is said, is convinced that sale of malt and hops is a violation of the prohibition law and is prepared to test the question in the courts.

DOWNTOWN BOOTHS TO AID RED CROSS

Booths will be placed in the downtown stores and a three days' house to house canvass throughout Wayne County undertaken by the Wayne County Red Cross chapter in their annual drive for members this month. The drive will begin Monday, Nov. 22, and close Thursday evening, Nov. 23.

Mrs. Frank Drutt, roll call director, stated that the purpose of the drive is to renew expired memberships and to enroll new members. It is not to be a campaign for funds.

Mrs. Juliet Shirk will direct the pageant to be given on the evening of Nov. 21 to formally open the drive. The pageant, which will be given, was written by a Dayton woman and has been successfully staged in Cincinnati and numerous other cities in the country.

NOBLES OF ZEM ZEM STAGE ENTERTAINMENT

Zem Zem nobles—men that create and enjoy big festivities—are to celebrate again. The entire club is to have a social and entertainers at the Murray theater, Friday night, Nov. 26.

"The Zem Zem Polies of 1920" is the title given the occasion, and it is expected the nobles will all be present to share in the frolic. At 8:15 p. m. they will congregate at the theater, each wearing his red fez. A cordial invitation has been extended to the wives of the nobles to be present.

The evening's entertainment includes the regular "big time" vaudeville bill, interspersed with stunts by artists from the Zem Zem club. Nobles El Puckett and Ray Stevens will appear as Mutt and Jeff. Noble Sam Fred will sing. The announcement of this event in the letter mailed to members reads: "Hear Noble Sam Fred sing. The first and last time upon any stage, and without the protection of a net."

Music will be furnished by the Zem Zem orchestra of five pieces. Members of this orchestra are Frank Holland, piano; David Fehr, violin; Carl Weisbrod, saxophone and clarinet;

Burt Russell, cornet; Howard Hunt, drums.
A dance for members and their wives will be held on the theater stage following the show. The Murray orchestra will play for this event. Refreshments will follow.
Seats at the theater for this night will be reserved for the Zem Zem members in one section. The show will be open to the public as usual, but the social will be reserved for the members of the club.

Armistice Parade Attacked. BELFAST, Nov. 12.—A party of shipyard workers, with the union jack at their head, returning to work from an Armistice day celebration at the city hall, were attacked by a crowd of nationalists from the North Queen's street area. Prompt police intervention quelled the disturbance, but not before one girl had been shot in the hand and another injured on the head by a stone.
