

Society

The public art gallery, now exhibiting a collection of 74 paintings by Richmond artists, will be open Sunday from 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. Twenty-two members of the Indiana Artists' club will be visitors at the gallery in the afternoon, and a cordial invitation is extended to anyone interested to meet them. At 3:30 a lecture and recital will be given by Mrs. Lewis C. King on the selections which the Richmond Symphony orchestra will play at its premiere Monday evening. The lecture will include short histories and descriptions of the numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Ray of North A street announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence Elizabeth, to Howard W. Holtz, of Cleveland, O. Miss Ray has been a resident of Richmond until a short time ago when she went to Cleveland to accept a position with the Cleveland Trust company. Mr. Holtz is also an employee of the company. The date for the wedding has not been set.

Beautiful in all its appointments was the quiet wedding which was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Colvin, southwest of Centerville, when their youngest daughter, Miss Frances Colvin, was united in marriage to Ivan T. King, son of Thomas King. The bridal couple preceded by the Rev. F. C. McCormick entered the living room to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Mrs. Clinton Russell, sister of the bride. The single ring ceremony was used. The bride wore a tailored gown of midnight blue brocading. After the ceremony refreshments in the color scheme of pink and white were served to the guests, who included Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Colvin, Thomas King, Mr. and Mrs. Whitley of Richmond, C. B. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert King and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Russell and little daughter, Miss Audrey King, Mrs. William F. Halcy and Everett Colvin. Mr. and Mrs. King are well known in Richmond. Mr. King attended Earlham college and Mrs. King studied at the Business college here for a short time.

Dr. James A. Woodburn, of Indiana University, will deliver the second of a series of lectures on current history before the civics department of the Woman's club at the opening meeting next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Morrison-Reeves library.

At the meeting of the music department of the Woman's club in the art gallery Tuesday morning at 9:30 a student program will be presented under the direction of Miss Mabel Hasemeier, Miss Ruth Peltz, Miss Marjorie Bee, Mrs. L. E. Harter, Mrs. Lewis King and Prof. F. K. Hicks.

Miss Hazel and Miss Mary Brumfield entertained the members of the Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church Wednesday evening at their home on Euclid Avenue. The guests were Miss Ruth Hoyer, Miss Gladys Buzan, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Miss Lola Jones, Miss Jennie Hieger, Miss Mildred Hieger, Miss Ruth Blosom, Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Florence Corines, Miss Marie Betts, Miss Gladys Arnett, Miss Goldie Triplett, Miss Emily Parker, Miss Anna Nutt, Miss Mary Brumfield, Miss Hazel Brumfield, Raymond Griffith, Gordon Triplett, Russell Albin, Arden Borden, Orla Emrick, Russell Stevenson, Glen Carter, J. C. Colcord, Orville Chandler, Gordon Borden, Elmer Jarvis, and Mr. and Mrs. James Brumfield.

Miss Margaret Hieger was hostess Tuesday evening for a party given for Mrs. John Hasemeier's Sunday school class. The time was spent sewing and a musical program was given. The guests were Miss Helen Deubner, Miss Ruby Steinbrink, Miss Mabel Hasemeier, Miss Laverne Bennett, Miss Hilda Moell, Miss Pauline Shanks, Miss Margaret Hieger, Mrs. Nellie Farrie, Mrs. Alice Stout, Mrs. Bertha Sharp, and Mrs. John Hasemeier.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stempel and daughter, Lois Ruth, of Decatur, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stempel and family.

Mrs. Edward Treffinger, of near Eaton, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stempel.

Mrs. George Reid will be hostess for the Show-Me club at her home on Main street, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clements, North Thirteenth street, are the parents of a baby girl born on Armistice Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Wiechman, nee Miss Marie Thorman, are the parents of a son, Malcolm Edward, born Friday, Nov. 12.

The Tyrolean club will meet with Miss Anna Dallas, Monday evening, Nov. 15.

The Degree of Honor will give a dance Tuesday evening, Nov. 16, at Vaughn Hall. All members and their friends are invited.

Miss Elizabeth Marvel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Marvel, of North Tenth street, arrived in New York Friday from Europe, where she has been travelling for several months. Miss Marvel will visit friends in the east for a few days before coming west.

Professor and Mrs. Harlow Lindley entertained informally at their home on College avenue Friday evening for members of the Earlham college faculty. The evening's entertainment, a program of stunts and music, was followed by a luncheon. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. David M. Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. J. Herschel Coffin, Dr. and Mrs. Allen D. Hole, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Trueblood, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Trueblood, Mrs. Alexander Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant, Dr. and Mrs. Millard Markle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Cosand, Mr. and Mrs. Oppitz, Miss Ernest Wildman, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holding, Mr. Hilliard, Miss Anna Eves, Miss Florence Long, Miss Au retta Thomas, Miss Martha Doan, Miss Clara Comstock, Miss Mary Mendenhall, Miss Grace Nicholson, Miss Hall, Miss Mary Peisch, Miss Elsie Marshall, Miss Parker, Miss Elsie McCoy, Miss Pauline Pritchard, Miss Ruby Cundiff, Miss McCune, Miss Mary Lawrence, Miss Olive Wildman, Arthur M. Charles, S. B. Garton, Cyril Pitts and Mr. Root.

Mrs. W. N. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Herschel Riggan, entertained the Athenea club Friday afternoon at her home, 124 South Fourteenth street. The program, continuing the study of Alaska, contained very interesting papers: "Government of Alaska—Past and Present," by Mrs. Atwood Jenkins, and "Geography and Climate of Alaska" by Mrs. Walter Daibey. "Tide of Affairs," a resume of leading current events, was given by Mrs. N. C. Heimann. After the program refreshments were served. Thirty-four members of the club were in attendance. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Samuel Hodgin, 321 College avenue, on Nov. 26. Mrs. Albert Gilmer will assist Mrs. Hodgin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Robinson entertained the members of the Earlham College Press club at the Country club Friday evening. Those present were Miss Frances Sutton, Miss Muriel Clark, Miss Bernice Hadley, Miss Harriet Rawls, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Isadore Rush, Miss Agnes Sellers, Miss Elizabeth Henley, Miss Louise Willis, Miss Susanne Dickson, Miss Eleanor Day, Miss Margaret Newsome, Paul Gordon, Herbert Carey, Maurice Tomlinson, Park Kirk, Theron Coffin, Donald Snyder, Charles Kellum, Robert Kellum, Leslie Pennington, Everett Pennington, Alfred Carter, Charles Robinson and Charles Ivey.

The Progressive Literary society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson, 306 West Main street.

Mrs. Earl Hewitt will entertain the Delta Theta Tau sorority Tuesday evening at her home on South Eighteenth street.

Miss Esther Hill will entertain the Ribacula club Tuesday evening at her home on South Eighteenth street.

The Criterion club will be entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. A. B. Price. The program includes a scripture reading by Mrs. Price, responses to roll call from Lord Byron, a review of Scott's "Marmion" by Mrs. E. C. Pegg, and a paper on "Castles of Scotland" by Mrs. O. E. Dickinson.

Mrs. Mac Munson will be hostess for the meeting of the Current Events Club Tuesday, Nov. 16. Responses to roll call will be current events. Mrs. Jessie Orr will read a paper on "Thrift and Diligence." Other papers which will be read are "Human Sympathy and Simplicity," Mrs. Mary Hippard; "Trained Minds and Communal Vision," by Mrs. Grace Driver.

The Alice Carey club will meet on Thursday with Mrs. Effie Hanes.

The Collegiate club will be entertained by Mrs. Harlow Lindley Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Thomas Ahl will have charge of the program. The subject of study will be Victor Hugo.

Mrs. Phoebe Stephens Root and her sister, Mrs. Emma Dennison will leave Monday for Florida to spend the winter in St. Augustine.

For the pleasure of Miss Pauline Smith, a bride-elect, Miss Ogen Shelton entertained with a kitchen shower Friday evening. The guests were Miss Pauline Smith, Miss Mary Reinhard, Miss Jeanette Kemper, Miss Faye Schmidt, Miss Helen Bentlage, Miss Esther Reid, Miss Katherine Binkley, Miss Gertrude Eggleston, Miss Gertrude Williams, Miss Helen Semler, Miss Mildred Whitley, Miss Josephine Hiatt, Miss Norris, Miss Doris Pucket, Mrs. Frank Eaton, Miss Marjorie Edwards and Mrs. Roy Campbell.

The Esteranza class will entertain the children of the primary department and their mothers at the West Richmond community house Saturday afternoon. A program of children's songs and recitations has been arranged.

The Dorcas society will hold an all day meeting at the First English Lutheran church Monday. All members are asked to come.

The Frances E. Willard W. C. T. U. will meet Monday afternoon with Mrs. John Deits, 224 North Fourteenth street. An interesting program has been prepared. All members are urged to be present.

It is announced by the Woman's club that all members who have not paid their dues by Monday, Nov. 15, will be considered delinquent and to join the club again will have to pay initiation fees. All members are requested to present their membership tickets at the door at all departmental and other meetings of the club.

The Eden Rebekah lodge will meet Saturday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.

The Greenbriar Community club will meet Wednesday, Nov. 17, with Mrs. John Baumer, and not with Miss Laura Miller, as was announced at the last meeting. All members are urged to be present as an election of officers and other important business will be transacted.

Mrs. Wallace Seymour entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon at her home. The afternoon was spent in needlework and a two-course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. William Hart, North Seventeenth street.

The Tyrolean club will meet with Miss Anna Dallas, Monday evening, Nov. 15.

The Degree of Honor will give a dance Tuesday evening, Nov. 16, at Vaughn Hall. All members and their friends are invited.

Miss Elizabeth Marvel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Marvel, of North Tenth street, arrived in New York Friday from Europe, where she has been travelling for several months. Miss Marvel will visit friends in the east for a few days before coming west.

Professor and Mrs. Harlow Lindley entertained informally at their home on College avenue Friday evening for members of the Earlham college faculty. The evening's entertainment, a program of stunts and music, was followed by a luncheon. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. David M. Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. J. Herschel Coffin, Dr. and Mrs. Allen D. Hole, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Trueblood, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Trueblood, Mrs. Alexander Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant, Dr. and Mrs. Millard Markle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Cosand, Mr. and Mrs. Oppitz, Miss Ernest Wildman, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holding, Mr. Hilliard, Miss Anna Eves, Miss Florence Long, Miss Au retta Thomas, Miss Martha Doan, Miss Clara Comstock, Miss Mary Mendenhall, Miss Grace Nicholson, Miss Hall, Miss Mary Peisch, Miss Elsie Marshall, Miss Parker, Miss Elsie McCoy, Miss Pauline Pritchard, Miss Ruby Cundiff, Miss McCune, Miss Mary Lawrence, Miss Olive Wildman, Arthur M. Charles, S. B. Garton, Cyril Pitts and Mr. Root.

Mrs. W. N. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Herschel Riggan, entertained the Athenea club Friday afternoon at her home, 124 South Fourteenth street. The program, continuing the study of Alaska, contained very interesting papers: "Government of Alaska—Past and Present," by Mrs. Atwood Jenkins, and "Geography and Climate of Alaska" by Mrs. Walter Daibey. "Tide of

Opera Singer at Earlham

Myra Sharlow

Miss Myra Sharlow, prima donna of the Chicago Grand Opera company, who will appear as the first number of the Earlham recital course on Friday night, Nov. 19, has met with rapid success in the musical world. Possessed of a powerful soprano voice and a pleasing personality, she has captivated audiences throughout this country during the past three seasons. Professor Samuel B. Garton, head of the music department at Earlham, was ex tremely fortunate in securing her appearance on his program.

Bath Tubs May Be Taxed As "Luxuries" in Holland

(By Associated Press)

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13.—Bath tubs and bathroom fixtures appear on the list of "luxuries" which would be subject to a 10 per cent luxury tax in Holland, if a revenue bill now before the Dutch parliament were passed.

WOMAN SPENDS $25 FOR CANDY, IN RACE FOR OFFICE

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 13.—Mrs. Alice E. Cram, campaigning as the Democratic candidate for state auditor, spent $25 for candy in furthering her appeal to the voters, according to her return of expenses filed with the secretary of state Friday. Her candidacy, which was unsuccessful, cost her $1,158, she reported.

INDIANA PRIEST HONORED

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Father John B. Deville, of Gary, has been honored by the Belgian government for his heroic work on behalf of the women and children in Belgium, during the world war. The order of Leopold II was conferred upon him by Chevalier C. Vermeren, Belgian counsel at Chicago, at an armistice day celebration.

The Frances E. Willard W. C. T. U. will meet Monday afternoon with Mrs. John Deits, 224 North Fourteenth street. An interesting program has been prepared. All members are urged to be present.

It is announced by the Woman's club that all members who have not paid their dues by Monday, Nov. 15, will be considered delinquent and to join the club again will have to pay initiation fees. All members are requested to present their membership tickets at the door at all departmental and other meetings of the club.

The Eden Rebekah lodge will meet Saturday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.

The Greenbriar Community club will meet Wednesday, Nov. 17, with Mrs. John Baumer, and not with Miss Laura Miller, as was announced at the last meeting. All members are urged to be present as an election of officers and other important business will be transacted.

Mrs. Wallace Seymour entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon at her home. The afternoon was spent in needlework and a two-course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. William Hart, North Seventeenth street.

The Tyrolean club will meet with Miss Anna Dallas, Monday evening, Nov. 15.

The Degree of Honor will give a dance Tuesday evening, Nov. 16, at Vaughn Hall. All members and their friends are invited.

Miss Elizabeth Marvel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Marvel, of North Tenth street, arrived in New York Friday from Europe, where she has been travelling for several months. Miss Marvel will visit friends in the east for a few days before coming west.

Professor and Mrs. Harlow Lindley entertained informally at their home on College avenue Friday evening for members of the Earlham college faculty. The evening's entertainment, a program of stunts and music, was followed by a luncheon. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. David M. Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. J. Herschel Coffin, Dr. and Mrs. Allen D. Hole, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Trueblood, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Trueblood, Mrs. Alexander Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant, Dr. and Mrs. Millard Markle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Cosand, Mr. and Mrs. Oppitz, Miss Ernest Wildman, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holding, Mr. Hilliard, Miss Anna Eves, Miss Florence Long, Miss Au retta Thomas, Miss Martha Doan, Miss Clara Comstock, Miss Mary Mendenhall, Miss Grace Nicholson, Miss Hall, Miss Mary Peisch, Miss Elsie Marshall, Miss Parker, Miss Elsie McCoy, Miss Pauline Pritchard, Miss Ruby Cundiff, Miss McCune, Miss Mary Lawrence, Miss Olive Wildman, Arthur M. Charles, S. B. Garton, Cyril Pitts and Mr. Root.

Mrs. W. N. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Herschel Riggan, entertained the Athenea club Friday afternoon at her home, 124 South Fourteenth street. The program, continuing the study of Alaska, contained very interesting papers: "Government of Alaska—Past and Present," by Mrs. Atwood Jenkins, and "Geography and Climate of Alaska" by Mrs. Walter Daibey. "Tide of

Chinese Servants Capture Outlaw Hiding in Legation

(By Associated Press)

PEKING, Nov. 13.—Kang Shih-to, formerly treasurer of the Anfu club, who, since the recent downfall of that alleged pro-Japanese organization, has been in hiding in the Russian legation and for whose arrest a reward of $10,000 was offered by the Chinese government, has just been the victim of a coup on the part of Chinese servants employed in the legation.

They entered Kang's bedroom in the early hours of the morning, bound him, wrapped him in bed quilt and hoisted him over the legation wall. Accomplices delivered him into the hands of a squad of gendarmes which had been waiting for weeks for an opportunity to capture him and other refugees supposed to have hidden in foreign legations.

Rev. L. J. Naftzger, Formerly Minister in Richmond, Dies

The Rev. L. J. Naftzger, formerly pastor of Grace M. E. church here, dropped dead in the basement of the Warsaw Methodist church Friday afternoon while conversing with several members of the church. Death was due to a heart attack. The Rev. Naftzger, after attending the luncheon of the Warsaw Rotary club at noon, went to the church to assist in moving chairs and tables in preparation for home-coming services to be held there Friday night.

He was admitted to the ministry in 1879 and had held pastorates at Midtown, Kempton, Bunker Hill, Logansport, LaGrange, Richmond, Kokomo, Greenfield, Union City and Warsaw, where he was serving his fourth year. He also was a member of the North Indiana M. E. quartet. Mrs. Naftzger was attending a missionary convention at Muncie at the time of her husband's death. Besides the widow, four sons, Ernest, Merrell, Everett and L. R. Naftzger, survive.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday in the Methodist church at Warsaw.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take Grove's LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE tablets. The genuine bears the signature of E. W. Grove. 30c.

—Advertisement.

The New Edison MARRISON'S EDISON SHOP IN THE WESTCOTT PHARMACY

LADIES' WOOL HOSE $2.50 values, while they last—$1.75

Fashion Shop

BREAD

The Universal Food
—the food full of vim and vigor—

DURING the war government agencies of all countries found that bread contained more of the elements of nutrition needed in the daily diet, for both young and old, than any other single food of general consumption.

Sufficient bread made people safe from hunger and was the main food of the soldiers.

The war brought into strong relief the fact that bread was the most essential food for the human body.

Eat More Bread

The most nutritive, palatable and economic of foods

We Have

Island Creek Coal

Mined in West Virginia