

FIFTEEN WOMEN GET LICENSE TO PREACH FROM M. E. COUNCIL

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Fifteen women have been licensed as preachers in the Methodist Episcopal church since this right was granted last May by the general conference of the church, Miss M. Madeline Southard reported here today. Miss Southard is president of an association of women preachers in the United States and Canada that represents 15 denominations. She is director of evangelism of the Epworth league.

"The first woman preacher to be licensed in the Methodist Episcopal church under this ruling," Miss Southard said, "was Miss D. Willia Gaffrey of Wenatchee, Wash. She had been acting as associate pastor of the First Methodist church at Wenatchee. Her pastor, who was at the general conference, telegraphed word of its decision, and she was licensed as a local preacher within two hours."

"The same evening Miss Winifred Willard was licensed by the First Methodist church of Denver. At the time she was 2,000 miles away in the east, but the enterprising Denverites called a meeting as soon as they heard the news, and took action."

"The first woman licensed in New England was Mrs. Kate Morrison Cooper. For the last three years she had been pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Portsmouth, N. H. She was licensed June 10."

"Ten days later Miss Mabelle H. Whitney was licensed at Pittsfield, Vt. She was a supply pastor and previously had served as pastor of a con-

COULD NOT STOOP OR BEND OVER FOR HE GOT SO DIZZY

Richmond Man Had a Lazy Liver; Kidneys So Weak Often Had to Get Up Several Times During the Night; Bowels Were Constipated.

He Now Declares All These Troubles Have Been Overcome Since Taking the Great Root and Herb Remedy, Drecto.

"Sometimes I'd get so dizzy that I could not stoop or bend over for I'd feel like I was going to fall," said Mr. Tobias Huffman, living at 423 N. 16th St., Richmond, Ind.

"The pains in my back and limbs were terrible, which I knew came from my kidneys and some nights I'd be up five and six times. My muscles had that dull, twitching, aching feeling almost constantly. My nerves were so unsteady that I could not sleep to do any good and some nights I'd get out of bed and sit up."

"My appetite failed me and I became weakened and was losing my vitality. I became sensitive and often times irritable. My bowels were badly constipated so that I had to take medicine for them most every night."

"I am surprised at my own self, the way I feel these days. Why I'm feeling years younger and full of energy and ambition. The Drecto has sure done me lots of good. All these aches and pains are gone; my liver has been cleaned off nicely. My kidneys strengthened so that I sleep all night without getting up once. My bowels move regular without the aid of medicine as before. My nerves are quiet; have a fine appetite and everything seems to agree with me. I haven't had a dizzy spell since I took Drecto."

"Any remedy that restores the natural functions of the body, is a health-giving remedy. The use of Drecto, the great herb remedy, tends to restore the appetite, to procure natural digestion, which is followed by an increased circulation and nutrition of the whole body. Lean, haggard, bloodless people begin to gain weight, strength, and flesh at once from taking Drecto, as they themselves declare in signed testimonials."

Drecto is sold by all progressive druggists throughout the country and is highly recommended in Richmond by Thistlethwaite's 7 drug stores.—Advertisement.

gregational church in Maine. Ten days after that Miss Capitola B. Lochner was licensed by the Proctorsville, Vt. M. E. church, and in a week another Vermont woman, Miss Ellen H. Wagner, a public school teacher, was licensed at Nulton."

Miss Southard herself was the seventh woman preacher licensed. "It is not an easy task to keep informed on how many women have been licensed," she said, "when they are being licensed right along in so many sections."

"There is no doubt," Miss Southard added, "that ordination will be granted Methodist women when the next general conference meets in 1924.

Turkey Run, Playground, Is Now Community Center

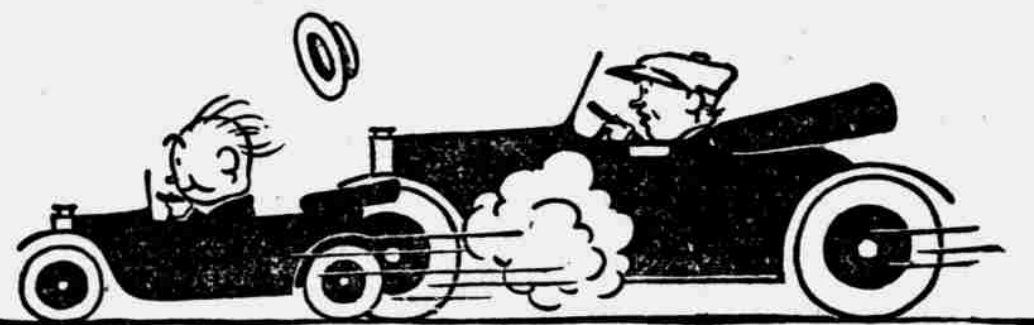

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—Turkey Run, one of the state's playgrounds, is now an all-season recreation and community center.

Richard Lieber, director of the Department of Conservation, announced today at the monthly meeting of the conservation commission, that a new heating plant had been installed in the hotel at Turkey Run, and that it offers all the comforts of the city in one of the few remnants of Indiana's virgin wilderness.

"Already reservations are being made for the festival holiday season," said Mr. Lieber. "Thanksgiving and Yuletide will find joyous and happy throngs at this Hoosier wonder-place."

Fifty thousand people paid admission to Turkey Run during last summer, the gate receipts and concessions bringing in a total of $6,377, according to reports made to the state commission. This amount, it was pointed out by Mr. Lieber, is above seven per cent on an $80,000 investment.

Silver Flash Gasoline

Straight Run High Test

Don't blame the engine when your car is slow and sluggish. Take most of the censure yourself for trying to tease efficient results from inferior grades of fuel.

Thousands of Hoosier motorists know that Silver Flash is best for their cars, and they buy only Silver Flash.

They have power to spare, even on the steepest hills and in heavy going. They enjoy a fast getaway. Their engines start easily, even on the coldest mornings. Silver Flash, too, is crowding more miles into the gallon than they got from other gasolines.

You can benefit from their experience. Like them, you'll buy nothing but Silver Flash after you've tried the first tankful.
