A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grimm, south of Alquina, Wednesday, at 6 p.m., when their daughter, Miss Ruby Maude Grimm, and Rice U. Pyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pyle, of Boston, were married. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played for a processional by Miss Elsie Van Ausdall. The service was read before an altar of palms and pink and white chrysanthemums over which was suspended a wedding bell of chrysanthemums and ferns. The Methodist Episcopal single ring service was used, the Rev. J. W. McFall officiating. The bride wore a brown tailored suit and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Seella Grimm, who wore a suit of navy blue and carried pink roses. Mark Pyle, brother of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony dinner was served to the wedding party. The table was beautifully arranged with ribbons and clusters of chrysanthemums carrying out the colors of pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Pyle left on a short wedding trip. They will be at home in Cloverdale after Dec. 1. Mr. Pyle is connected with the Lexington Automobile company at Connersville. Both young people have a wide circle of friends.
