

CITIZENS CONSIDER RELIEF OF CHILDREN STARVING IN EUROPE

A number of Richmond business men representing various local organizations, and Mrs. Paul Comstock, representing the Woman's club, met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 4 p. m. Monday, to consider raising money for relief of suffering children of Europe. The meeting was called by S. E. Nicholson, of this city, who is interested in the work of the European Relief Council, which is endeavoring to provide for starving people in the war ravaged countries. Herbert Hoover is chairman of the organization.

It is the plan of this body to raise $33,000,000 in the United States, with which to carry on the enterprise. To do this it is evident that every county and state in the union must be fully prepared to make an effort in the work. Of this $33,000,000, 25 per cent is to go to the Red Cross, five per cent to general relief work, and the remaining 70 per cent toward the feeding of the three and a half million starving people in Poland, Austria, Hungary, Germany, Czechoslovakia, and the Baltic provinces, according to Mr. Nicholson.

Banded together in the European Relief Council are the following: American Friends Service committee, American Red Cross, American Relief administration, Federal Council of the Churches of Christian America, Jewish Joint Distribution committee, Knights of Columbus, Young Men's Christian association, and the Young Women's Christian association.

It was decided by those attending the meeting Monday that the work in this community in the interest of relief, should be carried on under the direction of the heads of the old Wayne County War Work council.

Moonshiners Arraigned After Pitched Battle

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 7.—While deputy United States marshals served warrants on 20 or more men wanted on charges of moonshining in the "South America" section of Whitley county today, four members of the band with whom revenue officers fought a pitched battle Saturday were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Rollins at Pineville.

School Teacher Needs Brains

"I never have had such a 'God-send' come to me as when I took the first dose of May's Wonderful Remedy. I was afraid I would have to give up my school because of severe stomach trouble which caused such a pressure of gas that I could not use my brain at times, and my heart would palpitate awfully. Since taking a treatment of May's Wonderful Remedy a year ago, all this has disappeared. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. ### "MY GOLDEN GIRL"

"My Golden Girl," Victor Herbert's latest and best musical show, is announced at the Washington for Tuesday night only.

Surely Victor Herbert's name needs no introduction, for he is without doubt, America's foremost composer of music and has to his credit such well-known successes as "The Velvet Lady," "Princess Pat," "The Red Mill," "Mile Modiste" and many others. Mr. Herbert's scores are noted for their delightful melody and swing, and "My Golden Girl" easily surpasses any other that this brilliant composer has turned out in recent years.

Frederic Arnold Kummer is responsible for the book and lyrics and has worked into the libretto a highly interesting and humorous plot, and for those who have read any or all of this brilliant author's books or short stories, appearing each week, or month in the magazines, "My Golden Girl" will naturally contain an additional interest. A truly wonderful combination—this Kummer-Herbert play.

"My Golden Girl" promises a strictly high class company of excellent singers and dancers, a large and pretty chorus, whose gowns will cause a furor among the women. Elaborate scenery and lighting effects are carried. You surely cannot afford to miss this Kummer-Herbert musical gem.

MURRETTE

Caution and love are a very poor combination.

Louis Martinot, a young Frenchman, thought he loved Susanne Bergomat, but his conventional French soul hesitated at proposing to her before he knew what her family was like.

So he deputed his friend, Paul Blythe, to investigate and, if the girl was found to have worthy parentage, to propose marriage for him.

Right then and there began the complications which local playgoers will see when "Her Beloved Villain" comes to the Murrette theatre for two days beginning Wednesday. For it happened that Blythe was an enterprising American and when he fell in love with the girl himself he had no complications about writing his cautious friend that the Bergomat family were notorious high-steppers, loved intoxicants, and that Susanne inherited the parental traits! Then he promptly married the girl himself and took her to live in another city, hoping his friend would never discover his deception.

Susanne loved Blythe devotedly and was rather amused at his deception when she discovered it, but determined to punish him for it. The ensuing incidents make it one of the best comedy vehicles seen on the screen in some time.

A new way to light a cigar is demonstrated in "Nonsense," latest of the

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little, and is pleasant to take. Anyone losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advertisement.

DOCTOR SAYS WAR REACTION CAUSED MODERN PAINT FAD

Dr. Rosalie Slaughter Morton.

Dr. Rosalie Slaughter Morton of New York, chairman of the American Women's hospital and founder and chairman of the international Serbian committee, who recently returned from four years of gratuitous war service in Europe, says she is impressed by the contrast between the sincere suffering there and the flippant social attitude of many people here, which expresses itself in the prevalence of make-up, scanty attire and jungle dances.

Two reel Mermaid comedies at the Murrette theatre, Wednesday in a manner that is promised to bring a roar of laughter. In this picture Jack White, producer of "A Fresh Start" is said to have introduced more novelties than have ever been included in a two reel film. It is a burlesque on life in the country and in a western dance hall, with heroines, heroes, villains and all.

Jimmie Adams is the featured player and opposite him is Marvel Rea, while the cast includes Sydney Smith, Frank Coleman and the girls who attracted so much attention in the first of this comedy series.

Moran are seen in the overalls of honest toil. They are two plumbers who are anxious to find a quicker way of getting rich than by plumbing (if such is possible). They think they find it when they are elected president and secretary of a copper mining company. They find that the duties of the president and secretary consist of wearing jazzy sport clothes, drinking lots of gin rickeys, and being vamped by a duo of pleasing experts.

A little later detectives arrive and the plumbers find that another of their duties is to be the goats for the fraudulent promoters of a fake company. Instead of finding a quick way to get in a palace, they find that it is a quick way to get in jail.

"Once a Plumber—" is Lyons' and Moran's third big comedy feature for Universal. Like the first one, "Everything But the Truth," it was written by Edgar Franklin.

MURRAY VAUDEVILLE.
Better, and still better, seems to be the vaudeville policy at the Murray theatre. During the past few bills especially, the public has seen one or two acts that have been far above the average, but a complete trick is turned at the offering the first of this week. Every act is first class.

Not only is each act a top-notch of its kind, but each act is also something different in its line. Leaving the show, one has the feeling of having seen something worthy of vaudeville presentation.

A comedy playlet was presented in the sketch, "Pinched," which was put over in great style by three men and a girl. The scene took place in Chicago's moral courtroom. It had feeling and comedy intermingled. The girl was arrested on charge of stealing. The plaintiff was evidently more of a crook than the girl, and the way the old farmer from Dakota told the smooth accuser a "thing or two," was the delight of the evening.

Harry Kahne, "The Incomparable Mentalist," baffled and astonished the audience by his miraculous mental powers. Before the unbelieving audience, he demonstrated that he could do two or three distinctive things at once. Then as a "curtain," ended by doing five things at the same time.

People held their breath when the Casting Campbells, aerial performers, accomplished startling feats. Their offering was marked by the ability to throw one another a-whirling in the air at a dizzy height.

The line of jokes, songs and clever wit exhibited by Davis and Chadwick curdled the best that has been in the habit of appearing here. Originality in dancing steps and jokes marked their act throughout.

WINTER MOTORING Requires Good Gasoline

IF there are any flaws in the chain of boiling point fractions, they are sure to show up in winter. Your car will start hard, or you are short of power.

A steady flow of power is essential to safe winter driving.

Use RED CROWN

The High-Grade Winter Gasoline

It has a perfect chain of boiling point fractions with an initial of about 100 degrees Fahrenheit, 40 degrees better than Government specification, and an end point of about 427 degrees Fahrenheit.

It starts easily, gets away quickly, accelerates smoothly, and delivers tremendous power.

These factors are not only highly desirable but they influence to a marked degree your operating cost.

The correct range of boiling point fractions means perfect combustion, and that means maximum mileage per gallon.

Better switch over to Red Crown if you have not been using it. It is the high-grade winter gasoline.
