

SHIFTY QUAKER FIVE ON EDGE FOR GAME WITH ANTIOCH FRIDAY

The lid of the Earlham basketball season will be lifted tonight when the Quaker five meets the Antioch quintet from Yellow Springs, O., at the coliseum. From the standpoint of hope the game will be closely fought and local fans are looking forward to a royal battle from the beginning whistle to the closing one.

Both teams will take the floor composed almost entirely of veteran material. The Antioch aggregation have already annexed one game this season, defeating the Wilmington team by the one-sided score of 29-4. They will also have the advantage of several weeks' practice over Mow's men since they had no football season.

Coach Mow as usual would make no prediction as to the outcome but made the following statement, "If it isn't a good game I will be just as disappointed as the fans." The Earlham five will, with one exception, be composed entirely of last year's men, who have as a matter of fact played together for the last three years. Beck who will start the game at floor guard has fitted into the Quaker machinery without slowing it up in the least. The probable line-up for Earlham will be Lawler and Hall forwards, Carey, center, Beck and Johnson, guards.

Fast Forward. In Lawler and Hall, Mow has a forward combination that few Indiana colleges can equal. Both are fast, shifty men that can work the floor or ring up markers with exceptional ability. Carey, the lanky center is rarely outplayed by the opposing center and has a long reach that makes him a valuable man. In Johnson Earlham can boast of one of the best back guards in the state. Weighing around 200 pounds he presents a discouraging outlook to visiting forwards. Beck, also has plenty of weight and speed and may be counted on to hold his own in the floor guard job in a creditable manner. The entire squad, which will take the floor tonight will consist of Lawler, Hall, Carey, Beck, Johnson, Gaar, Hadley, Townsend, Eades, C. Kellum and Beasley.

There will be no curtain-raiser and the game will commence promptly at 8 p. m. Admission will be 50 cents, with reserved seats selling at 65 cents. Seats cannot be reserved after 6 p. m. Coupon books will admit.

BOSTON INDEPENDENTS VICTORS OVER K. OF C.

BOSTON, Ind., Dec. 10.—Boston Independents scored through a 13 to 10 victory on the K. of C. team from Richmond here Thursday night in a well played game before the largest crowd of the season. Strong defense was exhibited by both sides and the three fouls pitched by J. Stanley enabled the locals to carry off the victory.

Samuels, the star of the Boston team, was unable to hit his natural stride because of the close guarding of Dillon in the first half. Stanley, played a fast game, but was forced out in the last few minutes because of a sprained ankle which probably will keep him out of the game for a few weeks.

Geier tickled the draperies for 6 points for the K. of C. and played the end game as did every man on the team. The refereeing of Rev. Harris, of Boston, was complimented by players on both sides.

Boston is backing its team to the limit and turned out in good numbers to witness the contest. The brand of ball played by both teams was much above that generally seen in independent clubs. Both showed the effect of good coaching.

The line-up and score follow:
Boston, (12) K. of C. (10)
Ballinger.....F.....Klinger
J. Stanley.....F.....T. Fitzgibbons
Samuels.....G.....Geier
Kitchell.....G.....C. Fitzgibbons
Davis.....G.....Dillon
Field Goals—Stanley, 2; Samuels, 3; Geier, 3; Fitzgibbons, Poul Goals—Stanley, 3. Referee—Rev. Harris.

HIGH NET TOSSERS FIND BASKET EYES

An hour of schimmage occupied the high school basketball candidates on the coliseum floor Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the personnel of the squad and a creditable team seems to be coming around for the opening game which is a week distant.

Roland Loehr, who has been out of practice for the past two weeks because of an infection, received in the last football game of the season, was out again last night and was taking care of the center job for the Red and White in great style.

The scrimmage showed that several of the men were getting their eyes on the basket from all angles and would be able to score against any team if given the least chance.

Brehm, Amick and Harkins were alternated at the forward jobs, with Loehr at center, Rost at floor guard, and Lovin and Graff at back guard. Green, who has been guarding the basket, was not out last night.

The boys out for the team are looking forward to the first game of the season next week. After this game the squad will be reduced, to give those standing the best chance for making the team a chance to get in some practice. Coach Null has contented himself with the dropping out of candidates by their own accord, but some big cut will have to be made soon if any team is to be developed that will do justice to the school.

MCGRAW SAYS FRISCH WILL NOT BE DISPLACED

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Reports that Frank Frisch would be displaced as third baseman on the New York Giants next season were denied today by Manager John J. McGraw, who has returned from Cuba to attend a conference of major league officials here tomorrow. McGraw said he considered Frisch one of the best third basemen in the business.

"Joe Ryan," a recent third baseman obtained from St. Paul, will be tried out at second, McGraw said.

Pin mauling by virtually every man on a team furnished plenty of amusement at the City League Bowling Thursday night at the Twigg alleys. The Wilson Cleaners went into third place by their unprecedented hitting of the maples which gave them three straight wins over the Feltman Tramps.

All the bowling was above the average as a rule although some of the supposed stars failed to come into their own. Harry Haner got all that was coming to him when he cracked off a 243, which brought his average up to 198. King of the Cleaners was second with a 220 and a 191 average.

Maier Meats retained their lead by copping two games from the Lee Tires. The Tires were considerably off their stride. Hill Laddies and the I. H. C. fought out a bitter series, the Laddies copping the third game by a narrow margin. The scores were as follows:
