"The Irish Question" will be the subject of the address which Dr. James I. Woodburn, of Indiana university will deliver before the Civics department of the Woman's club at the Morrison-Reeves library, Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. It will be an open meeting and men who wish to hear Dr. Woodburn are welcome to attend. Dr. Woodburn, who is head of the history department at Indiana university, is an authority on current problems of the day and the author of several books. Unusually large crowds have attended his lectures given before the civic department and it is expected that his address on the "Irish Question" will draw a record breaking crowd.

The Christmas program of the Music Department of the Woman's Club will be given Thursday at 2:30 p. m. in the First English Lutheran church instead of Tuesday as announced in the year book. The entertainment will be open to everyone. Mrs. Lewis C. King and Mrs. William Klenker will be in charge of the program. Other members on the committee are Mrs. Foss, Miss Helen Nicholson, Miss Marjorie Beck, Miss Edna Decker, Miss Alice Knollenberg, Miss Ruth Scott, Mrs. Klenker, Mrs. Fred Bartel, Miss M. Decker, Miss Corinne Nussbaum, Miss Elizabeth Marvel, Mrs. George Bartel, Mrs. Longnecker, and Mrs. L. E. Harter.

Christmas shoppers are asked to remember the 50 children at the North End Mission whose Christmas depends on the gifts which contributors leave at Romey's store or the residence of Mrs. Fred S. Bates, 76 South Fourteenth street. The gifts left at these places will be distributed to the children at a Christmas party. Gifts for both boys and girls are wanted and useful articles as well as toys will be acceptable. It is hoped, however, that it will be possible to give each child a toy or game. The mission will be unable to supply Christmas gifts for the children this year.

Among the holiday social activities for Country club members is a dinner dance on Monday evening, Dec. 27. Fryer's Jazz band of Eaton, O., will play for the dance. Open house will be held on New Year's day when there will be informal dancing for the younger people in the afternoon. The Evan Smith orchestra has been engaged to play for the dance to be given that evening. Mrs. Rudolph G. Leeds is chairman of the committee arranging the holiday entertainments. Other members of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire and Mrs. W. P. Robinson.

From all promises and indications old Santa is to visit the dance to be given at the I. O. O. F. hall Dec. 22, before he makes his usual rounds on the 25. Everything will be in readiness for him, a large Christmas tree and other decorations. He will have candy and presents for everybody. As to the music, The Syncopating Five will play for this occasion. This will be their last appearance in this city until spring as they are booked for the winter season at one of the favorite winter resorts in Florida. Two hundred invitations will be issued next week for this affair. Invitations must be presented at the door. The affair will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gottschall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Critchett, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. James Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Feining, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kinley, Mr. and Mrs. George Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Candler, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Wheelan.
