CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Wheat bears disappointed, corn and oats well discounted. Wheat firm on large export sales of 10 million in past two weeks. Liberal cash premiums, indifference of deliveries at Chicago, and attempts to revive foreign credits along with a bill at Washington to put a 60c tariff on wheat, 30c on oats, 30c on barley, etc. We do not regard these tariff and credit moves as serious. Chicago wheat stocks grow from 818,000 to 1,470,000; corn stocks today 1,720,000 vs. 1,837,000 last week. Overnight we expect another day of sharp shagging; would take the buying side for a turn if a closing dip. For the long pull can not figure any serious upturn. About half million wheat worked today.

DEALERS PREPARING FOR 1921 AUTO SHOW

So successful was the auto show of the Wayne County Automobile association, last week that already thoughts are being directed toward another such exhibit to be held in the spring of 1921.

If this is decided upon the next show probably will be held in the new building of Webb-Coleman, on North Ninth street.

Although the first day of the show was marred by inclement weather, the results of the show in the following two days were even beyond expectation. "Ladies Night" and "Carival Night" proved to be the features of the three-day exhibit.

"The purpose of the show was primarily educational," said Fred Behard, president of the auto dealers' association, Monday, "but it was also a success as an entertaining venture."

"We aim to keep the local public supplied with an up-to-date knowledge of the progress of the automobile industry. Without the show which we have just conducted, people would not know what big changes and improvements have been made in automobiles during the past five years. We have showed them the difference in workmanship and construction. The automobile of today is made along simpler lines than formerly. The lack of complication has been demonstrated."

Lynn Shaw, formerly of Richmond, now of Youngstown, O., addressed members of the association Saturday afternoon, at the show. He urged that they co-operate in their businesses, treating each other as partners, rather than as competitors. Mr. Shaw cited statistics to prove that 1,800,000 automobiles would be needed in 1921 to take the place of cars worn out.

LIVE STOCK, MEATS AT NEW LOW LEVELS DURING LAST WEEK

BY WILLIAM R. SANBORN

The last time that hogs sold as low as during the past week was in the second week of December, 1916. The average price at Chicago for that week in 1916 was $9.85 per hundred weight, while it was a nickel lower last week, at $9.80. What has happened at Chicago has been reflected all over the country. It is well to recall, in this connection, that last week's average price on all the hogs received during the week was $3.40 above that for the second week in December, 1915, that average being $6.40 per hundred. Remember, too, that the war had been raging for 16 months on above date in 1915, although it was a long time afterward that America took a hand in it.

Last week's general average was 40 cents below that of the week previous, which was $10.20. Cattle did a little better, the average price for the week was $11 against $10.75 for the week ending Dec. 4.

Comparative Prices.

For the same week in 1919 we find that hogs averaged $12.50 and cattle $14.65. For the corresponding week in 1918 hogs averaged $17.56 and cattle $14.50, and in 1917 hogs brought $17.10 and cattle $11.10, or practically last week's figures on cattle, while hogs were down $7.30, by comparison.

More hogs were received at Chicago last week, 217,800, than in any week since January. Moreover, the average weight was 230 pounds. A little figuring will give you the total weight of pork on foot.

Sheep and lambs closed at about the lowest prices in four years in all the central markets, last Saturday. Meat at wholesale is also down accordingly. This particularly applies to Chicago packing house products. Armour issues a public statement to that effect. He said on Saturday that "wholesale prices of frozen meat cuts, both beef and pork, in fact of all meats, are below the prices that were obtained on April 1, 1917."

In continuing Mr. Armour showed that fresh beef carcasses were sold to retailers last week at prices averaging between 14 and 15 cents per pound, "a price almost as low as in 1914." With reference to pork, he stated that "Fresh, light pork loins, the price of which is the index of all pork cuts, sold for 21 cents on Saturday, as compared with the pre-war price of 22 1/2 cents. Sweet, pickled and cured pork, at 17 cents per pound average on Saturday, was 3 cents under the price in April, 1917."

Indianapolis Live Stock

Compared with Saturday, December 4, hogs at Indianapolis were from 75 to 90 cents lower on the 11th. The bulk of all offerings was sold at $9.75 to $9.85, against $10.50 to $10.75 a week ago. Quality pigs brought from $9 to $9.50, with heavy hogs going as low as $9.60.

Only 300 cattle were yarded and no good or choice stock was on sale. Calves were in active demand at $12.50 to $13.50 for good ones and at $8.00 to $11.00 for ordinary grades. The small supply of sheep sold around $3 and a few fat lambs went as high as $9.00.

Grain Markets Lower

December corn on Saturday last sold at from 68 1/2 to 69 1/2, and the range for the week was 68 1/2 to 77 cents. The range for the week on December oats was 45 1/2 to 50 1/2.

Wheat had a range of 20 cents on December last week, the high being made on Monday, at $1.80 and the low at $1.60 on Friday. The range on Saturday being from $1.62 1/2 to $1.83 1/2 and the closing at $1.63 was practically on bottom.

Provisions broke during the week, with hogs on the slide. Mess pork broke $1.10 per barrel and lard from 50 cents to 95 cents per hundred, during the week.

GLEN MILLER MARKETS

They had a busy week at Glen Miller, a total of 710 hogs, 30 head of cattle and 24 veal calves coming in.

Hogs were received early in the week, selling mostly at 10 cents, but at the close on Saturday they had declined to as low as 8 1/2 cents. Cattle ranged at 4 to 7 cents during the week and veals ranged at 5 to 11 cents, according to Rome Shurley, who claims that the market "is still rather soft."

Mr. Shurley says: "With the approach of the holidays, when poultry and game is in season, the prospect of an advance on hogs is not very bright. As thousands of hogs have been held in the country, in the expectation of a higher market, and should receipts continue as heavy as of late, it is predicted that hogs are likely to sell as low as 8 cents, possibly lower."

The list of local shippers to Glen Miller, who are a quite large, a number of small bunches of hogs and odd veals coming in.

Grace M. E. to Show Motion Pictures Tuesday

Nine reels of motion pictures will be shown at the Grace M. E. church, "Community Night," Tuesday night, "The Story the Keg Told Me," a photoplay, said to contain a great lesson, will be the feature of several films to be presented.

Other attractions include "Little Red Riding Hood," "Royal Gorge and Colorado Canyons" and probably another picture. One of the big events of the night will be the big "sing," which is to be conducted by Lee B. Nussbaum. Admission is 15 cents for each individual.

Dublin Lodge Entertains 50 Local Odd Fellows

Fifty members of Whitewater lodge of Odd Fellows were guests of the Odd Fellows at Dublin Saturday night, the local members of the fraternity making the trip to and from Dublin on a special interurban car. Whitewater degree team exemplified the high degree on a class of candidates. A supper was served the visitors by the Dublin lodge.

On next Friday night at the regular meeting of Whitewater lodge a class of candidates will receive their first degree and there will be visitors present from many lodges in Wayne and adjoining counties.

The Farm and Farmer

By WILLIAM R. SANBORN

Fifteen head of Chester White hogs won prizes totaling $233, the Chicago International for W. E. Harton, of Shelbyville, Ind. The grand champion barrow at the show was a Chester White and the grand championship pen award was taken by the Poland Chinas.

Shelbyville also is boasting the sale of a racing filly by Wm. L. Brown, who realized $5,000 on the sale. This is admittedly a good price, and is the most money ever paid for a Rush county yearling. W. J. Johnson, of New York, is the purchaser.

Something to Think About.

"It is vital to every workman in the United States that Europe shall recover her exchange, her production, shall recover her standard of living; or we shall be dragged down to European standards."

This was the statement of Herbert Hoover before a gathering of bankers, business men, farmers and manufacturers at Chicago last week. The meeting was called as a preliminary to the organization of giant corporation for the financing of American foreign trade. All indications are that this corporation will be in action shortly after the first of the year.

Britain Still to Buy Wheat.

Word comes from London that the British Government will continue to buy wheat until the interests of the people warrants the cessation of such purchases. The food minister's transactions during past three years has amounted to five billion dollars, and it is estimated that a profit of but one
