

BILL BRENNAN TO ASK FOR ANOTHER MATCH; DENIES SUPERIORITY

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Bill Brennan, who was knocked out in the twelfth round by Jack Dempsey, the heavy weight champion, in Madison Square Garden last night, said today he intended to ask for another match. "I am not satisfied that Dempsey is my superior," he declared.

The challenger, while saying that he had vindicated himself, asserting he was "surprised" when the referee motioned him to his corner, believing that he had beaten the count in the twelfth round.

Dempsey said, "Brennan was tougher than I expected. He stood up longer than I thought he would. His blows did not hurt me at any time, but I found him a hard man to hit properly."

Dempsey's manager said the champion was not in the best of condition, having trained too hard.

Leaves for Coast.

Dempsey expects to leave for the Pacific coast tomorrow, to remain until late in February, when he will come back to New York to train for his match with Jess Willard on St. Patrick's day.

The match last night broke all records for receipts for an indoor affair in this country, according to unofficial estimates today. The 11,956 seats brought in $209,852.50. This does not take into account the receipts from about 1,000 temporary bleacher seats and 2,000 persons who obtained standing room. The match between Dempsey and Willard, which was fought in the open air netted $452,522, the high water mark.

Profitable Fight.

Deducting Dempsey's share of $100,000 and Brennan's guarantee of $35,000 last night, the promoters' estimated profit, after paying taxes and expenses probably will be about $13,000, it was unofficially estimated. The federal tax will be approximately $21,000 and the state tax $10,500.

Last night's fight round by round, follows:

ROUND ONE.—The men got into the center of the ring, Dempsey landing first, a right chop to the head. They exchanged lefts and rights to the body at close quarters and clinched frequently. Brennan worked left hooks to the head while Dempsey sent two rights to the face, one of which narrowly missed Brennan's chin. Both worked fast at close quarters and Dempsey scratched Brennan's right eye with a left hook. Dempsey's round by a shade in this round.

Dempsey Draws Blood.

ROUND THREE.—They rushed into a clinch and then exchanged body blows. Both landed short right uppercuts. Dempsey missed a left hook to the head, Brennan hooked left to stomach. Short lefts and rights were exchanged at close quarters and Dempsey sent a half arm left to the body and brought it up to the face with a great deal of steam behind it. Dempsey was short with right to the head and Brennan got in two half arm uppercuts over the heart. They were in a lively mixup at the bell. Brennan had a shade in this round.

ROUND FOUR.—They exchanged body blows with both hands and then landed light left and right hooks at close quarters. Dempsey blocked a left lead for the face and sent a short right over the heart. There was a good deal of ineffective work at close quarters. Brennan sent his right twice to the head. The champion came back with a stiff left to the face and a short right cross to the ear. Then Dempsey met Brennan with a left hook and shot two vicious rights to the head. Dempsey was putting more steam into his blows and hooked lefts and rights to the face and head. Brennan was bleeding from the mouth when he went to his corner. Dempsey's round.

ROUND FIVE.—After some short arm exchanges and a clinch, Dempsey was cautioned for touching his man lightly on the face in the breakaway. Dempsey dodged from a right hook and sent three hard rights to stomach and ribs. Forcing Brennan into a neutral corner, he hooked his right twice in the stomach and when they came to the center of the ring again drove a hard right into Brennan's mid-section. Brennan sent two rights to the body just before the gong rang but it was Dempsey's round by a good margin.

ROUND SIX.—They fiddled for half a minute, tapping each other lightly. Then Dempsey hooked his right to the head and Brennan retaliated with two rights body blows. They exchanged hard body blows with both hands and Dempsey hooked a stiff left over the heart. In a mixup Dempsey hooked his right to the wind, and blocked many attempts by Brennan with short arm uppercuts. Dempsey's round.

ROUND SEVEN.—Dempsey jabbed left to the face and hooked two hard lefts to the body. Dempsey kept jabbing with his left and missed a right hook. Brennan's returns were very light. After some sparring Dempsey drove his right hard to the body, and hooked a short left to the ear. Brennan sent his right to the head but received a stiff punch on the nose from Dempsey's right in return. Dempsey put two rights to the head just before the bell. Dempsey's round.
