

News of the Counties

NEW PARIS, O.—Wednesday evening Mrs. Clara Sherer entertained the Live Wire Class of the Presbyterian Sunday School, of which she is teacher at her home on East Main street. The class members came dressed for a "kid" party, and a jolly evening was enjoyed. Mrs. Sherer was presented with a fountain pen as a farewell token, as she will leave soon to spend the winter in California.

Late in the evening the hostess served a delightful plate luncheon, with red carnations and sprigs of holly as favors. Guests were: Mrs. Ethel Reid, Mrs. Henrietta Hawley, Mrs. Louise Hawley, Mrs. Ruth Shinkle, Mrs. Lora Brandon, Mrs. Fern Ward, Mrs. Mary Schmaltz, Mrs. Fannie Aker, Mrs. Irene Welschberger, Mrs. Chloe Collins, Misses Ruth Wisman, Mary Melody, Evelyn Northrop, and Helen Biles.

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind.—Rev. Knowles of the Dublin M. E. church, was the principal speaker at the meeting of Wayne county Sunday-school officials held here Sunday. Other features of the program were addresses by the Rev. Mr. Sherman and the Rev. Mr. Wolfe of Pershing, the Rev. Mr. Reese of the Cambridge City Baptist church, and the Rev. Mr. Hogan of the Methodist church here. An excellent musical selection was given by Rev. Reese, who played the cello, and Mrs.

Edith Scott who played an organ accompaniment.

The Baptist Women's Union will hold a bazaar at Lee's meat market room, Dec. 22 and 23.

The Christian church entertainment will be given Sunday night, Dec. 19.

OXFORD, Ohio.—The many Oxford friends of Rev. Edgar McDill, D.D., of Cincinnati, for many years a resident of this village, are interested in his appointment as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of the Cincinnati district, succeeding T. M. Hare, appointed field organizer with headquarters in Columbus. Dr. McDill is a member of the board of trustees of Oxford College for Women.

MORNING SUN, Ohio.—Rev. E. A. Dowey conducted a series of services at his church here this week. Communion services will be conducted on Dec. 19. Rev. Mr. Dowey and C. C. McCreary attended a meeting of the First Ohio Presbytery in Hamilton, Tuesday.

BOLSHEVİK IN HOT WATER.—AMSTERDAM, Dec. 17.—Herr Van Louven, a Dutch communist who was one of the Communist Party delegates to the Moscow Third Internationale, was so ardently mobbed when he returned here and resumed his occupation as a banker on the Amsterdam course, that he police had to interfere. The other brokers wanted to know how he reconciled being a Bolshevik and a broker.
