

COSTUMES, EQUIPMENT READY AT EARLHAM

Everything is in readiness for the opening production of the Earlham dramatic club, "Milestones," to be given Saturday at 8:15 p. m., in the chapel. Seats for the performance are practically all sold out, although a few are yet to be had at the Westcott Pharmacy.

The costumes have arrived and a dress rehearsal was held by the cast Thursday evening. The club has gone to considerable expense in producing the play in order that their first production will be one of the most complete ever given at the college.

Miss LaVerne Jones, of this city, who has had previous experience in producing plays, has been secured to assist with the make-ups and the costumes. Miss Jones has spent much in the employ of an Indianapolis designing house.

William Gaines Funeral Will be Held Monday

William Theophilus Gaines, 89 years old, colored, died at 5:30 p. m. Thursday, at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Samuel Weston, Greenwood avenue, Richmond. He had been a resident of Richmond for 56 years.

He is survived by one son, William A. Gaines, of this city, and four grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted from the Wesleyan church at 2 p. m. Monday. Burial will be in New Paris. Friends may call at any time.

Maggie Haas, Former Matron of Earlham, Died Thursday

Maggie Haas, 68 years old, at one time matron at Earlham college, died Thursday night at Reid Memorial hospital. She was born in Richmond in 1852 and had lived here all of her life. She practiced nursing. She was a member of the First Methodist church.

Funeral services will be conducted from the parlors of Doan and Son at 10 a. m. Monday. Burial will be in the Lutheran cemetery. Friends may call Sunday afternoon and evening. The Rev. R. W. Stokes will officiate.
