Ropes of laurel wound and tied with pink ribbon, tall French baskets of Columbia roses, and pink shaded lights combined to make a beautiful setting for the marriage of Miss Mary Carr Huffman of Franklin, and J. H. Cox, social and membership secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, which took place Thursday at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Franklin. A program of bridal airs preceded the ceremony. Mexican Oil Shipments Have Doubled in Year
(By Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 17.—Figures showing that oil shipments from Mexico have doubled since the first of the year have been published by the department of industry and commerce which records October shipments of 17,301,000 barrels as against 8,061,289 barrels in January.

These figures are striking in view of the fact that in 1901 Mexico shipped out 10,345 barrels and in 1910, 3,634,080 barrels.

Shipments in 1919 totalled 87,072,954 barrels and there is reason to believe that this year's shipments will amount to more than 125,000,000 barrels.

Announcement was made recently that United States petroleum companies have just paid the Mexican government more than $8,000,000 pesos in taxes.

El universal has estimated that the petroleum industry in Mexico represents a value of $700,000,000 American gold.

Prominent Mexicans' Talk Anti-American
TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, Dec. 17.—Several Mexicans including a senator who have been recently making a propaganda tour in Central America have given to the press lengthy articles of an anti-American character.

Their presence in Central America has coincided with a renewal of bitter attacks on the United States and most of the Central American newspapers, especially in those of Salvador, Nicaragua and Costa Rica.

While this has been going on, Mexican diplomatic representatives invited Central American journalists to visit Mexico City as guests of the Mexican government to attend the inauguration of General Obregon, as President of Mexico. Some of the Mexican sympathizers accepted the invitation.

PUTTING THE "CAT IN DELI-CAT-ESSEN"
Dear Roy—I was walking on one of the business streets of Flushing the other day when I observed a cat walking through a big hole in a screen door in front of a delicatessen shop. Thinking to kid the proprietor of the shop I remarked: "Say, Henry, what's the use of having screen doors up when the cats can walk through?"

"Oh, dot's alright," says Henry. "I just got dem doors up to keep out der muskeeters." Was Henry kidding back, or are they that big over there?—J. L. Beers.

And just think, we used to worry about little things like microbes.

THE MESSENGER BOY
Farewell to the life of the messenger boy.

I'll hit the high roadway to ease and to joy.

Why should I pound the pave, Just to scrimp and to save, And be some rich broker's mechanical toy?

Those oodles of bonds that they hand me to lug Infect me and give me the traveling bug.

I'll cop out a few And I'll seek pastures new, And all the newspapers will publish me mug.

The Charlotte "Republican" says the story is told that during the period the Wheeler Bros. elephant was wrecking the garden of a West Seminary street lady, the gentle one, turning to one of the showmen, stated with some emphasis that unless the circus folk took their elephant out of her yard at once she would call a lawyer.

"My dear madam," said the showman, who caught the ridiculousness of the request, "if you know of any lawyer who can persuade the elephant to get out of your yard, for heaven's sake send for him."

Pershing Road Honors Famous Black Jack
CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Pershing Road, named in honor of General John J. Pershing, has taken its place with other roads and boulevards in Chicago named after famous American men.

Formerly known as 39th street, the new road extends from Lake Michigan to the west side boulevard system, six miles away. Many government warehouses are located on Pershing Road and the Army trucks, which use it for a highway lend significance to the new name.

A letter expressing appreciation of the compliment in naming the road for him has been received from General Pershing by the city council committee in charge. He also expresses the hope that he will be able to attend the opening of the new road, after it has been widened, for the greater part of its length, to 150 feet.
