

"WHITE CAPS" ORDER WOMAN OUT OF TOWN

OXFORD, O., Dec. 22.—Village officials, though they have made no effort to ascertain the identity of "white caps" who, on Sunday night, entered the home of Mrs. Ernest Basenback and ordered her to leave town, know who composed the crowd of 14. Officials say Miami university students, constituting a self-appointed "morale squad," are responsible for the affair.

It is claimed that numerous complaints have been received regarding Mrs. Basenback's house, but the village police never were able to discover anything wrong at the place. Mrs. Basenback vigorously denies that she has ever been guilty of any misdemeanor or indiscretion in her home, and just as vigorously denounces the town's officials for not attempting to run down men who forcibly entered her home and destroyed her property. It is not likely that the white caps will further molest the woman, and it is equally unlikely that she will leave town.

Ohio News Flashes

COLUMBUS.—James W. Faulkner, Columbus correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has been appointed chairman of the committee of newspaper men in the Capitol that will have charge of the press smoker to be conducted in connection with the inauguration of Governor-elect Harry L. Davis, on the night of Jan. 10.

TOLEDO.—Toledo citizens continue to be terrorized by bandits. Following the $16,500 robbery at the offices of the American Railway Express company in which 10 guards were overpowered by six masked men armed with shotguns, three automobile bandits kidnapped W. O. Baldwin, bookkeeper for the Ohio Dairy company. He was taken to the outskirts of the city and thrown from the machine after having been robbed of $650.

CADIZ.—Ferencz Maserski slept all night with the body of Bolenek Baca after having killed him in a quarrel over "raisin Jack." Maserski has made a plea of self-defense, the authorities say.

CLEVELAND.—An exceptionally large quantity of alcohol, empty whiskey bottles and government bond stamps and seals were found in a police raid at a pickle factory, on East Forty-sixth street. Among the equipment discovered were two one-hundred-gallon barrels of alcohol, four barrels of empty quart bottles, many labels of a popular brand of whiskey, and a large number of government bond stamps, dated 1913. Three men have been placed under arrest.

Cambridge University, in London, has refused to admit women to full membership in the university on equal terms with the men. Most of the other English universities, including Oxford, already have granted full membership to women.

Two Boys to Headquarters

Picking up a stranger proved costly to Henry Brown, who said his home was in Decatur, Ill. Brown said he arrived in Richmond Tuesday afternoon and while at the depot picked up William Hiller, who said his home was in Kentucky. The two spent the night at a hotel. Wednesday morning Brown claimed he was $100 shy.

Hiller was placed under arrest after he had purchased a round trip ticket to Cincinnati at the C. and O. depot. Brown had $200 in his possession at the police station and Hiller $142. It was a question of veracity and questions by police and Prosecuting Attorney Freeman failed to clear the matter. The boys were allowed in a room by themselves for a few minutes and a compromise affected, Hiller giving Brown $75. Both were advised to stay out of town and released.

Railroad Shops Are

Destroyed by Fire

(By Associated Press.)
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 22.—The machine shops of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Etowah, south of the city, were totally destroyed by fire early Monday morning, according to a long distance telephone message. All of the machinery in the plant was reported lost and the damage was unofficially estimated at several hundred thousand dollars.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT

INVITES HARVARD CLUB

(By Associated Press)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 22.—The French government has invited the Harvard Glee club to give concerts in Paris and other French cities next summer and the glee club has accepted the invitation, provided the expenses can be met, an announcement today said. A visit to Italian, Belgian and British cities is tentatively planned. In expectation of the tour, two of the leading French composers, Maurice Ravel and Eric Satie, are now writing special music.

Santa Claus Visits

Local Club Members

Santa Claus visited the Rotary club at their weekly luncheon in the K. of P. temple, Tuesday noon. He explained to the members of the club and their guests the meaning of Christmas and the Christmas spirit. Each member was presented with a useful souvenir. A committee was appointed by the club to work with other civic committees of the city who are contemplating appearing before the next legislature and urging the home rule measure that has been outlined by civic organizations over the state. The committee appointed consists of Fred Lemon and T. B. Jenkins.

The venerable clinic which has been in charge, and was originally started by the Rotary club, has been turned over to the social service bureau with sufficient funds to run it for another year.

Guests of the club were Roff Bowman, Benjamin Johnson, Frank Wessler and William Campbell.

The Massachusetts Minimum Wage Board has handed down a decision granting scrubwomen a minimum wage of $15.40 per week. This is at the rate of 37 cents an hour, fixed on a basis of 42 hours' employment weekly.
