A Christmas dance for Elks only will be the attraction at the Elks' club next Thursday evening, Dec. 23. During the evening special turkey plate lunches with all the trimmings will be served. The Evan Smith orchestra will play for the dance. Walter McWhinney and Will Jenkins are the committee arranging the party.

The dance at the I. O. O. F. hall Wednesday evening will open the holiday season for many of the younger set who have come home from school. There will probably be between 150 and 200 dancers present. The Syncopating Five will play. Paul Allen, Frank Critchett, Westcott Hanes, Ralph Englebert, Earl Hewitt and Herbert Bradley will be in charge of the affair. Several married couples will chaperon. The balcony will be open to spectators.

Beneath soft snow tinted by twinkling red and green lights and gay red and green streamers and bells, 100 dancers glided to and fro in the I. O. O. F. ballroom Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp gave a Christmas dance for the Cotillion club. The Kolp-Smith orchestra played the order of dances. Miss Harriet Thomas was hostess Tuesday evening for the annual Christmas party given for Natco girls at her home on East Main street. The evening was spent in needlework and presents were exchanged. The house was prettily decorated in Christmas colors. An artistic arrangement of red and green candles formed the centerpiece of the dining table. Smaller candles with place cards were at each place. Covers were laid for Miss Phyllis Sasser, Miss Rose Taube, Miss Helen Hill, Miss Blanche Gansoph, Miss Helen Lloyd, Miss Leon Hirschfeld, Miss Pearl Warner, Miss Leona Oesting, Miss Bessie Edwards, Miss Ruth Wickemeyer, Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Gladys Buzan, Miss Alice Scherman, Miss Lorraine Shissler, Miss Katherine Kamp and Miss Harriet Thomas.

The Ladies' Golden Rule class of First M. E. church entertained their families Tuesday evening with an elaborate chicken supper at the church. A surprise shower was given the Rev. Stoakes and family, and Mrs. Beckett, teacher of the class, was presented with a cut glass sugar and cream set. Over 40 persons were present.

Beautiful Christmas decorations marked the party given for the Ribacca club Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Davis on South Eighth street. A short program of Christmas music and a reading by Miss Ruth Menke formed part of the evening's entertainment. The fireplace was banked with Christmas decorations and a stuffed stocking was hung up for each guest. Following a grab bag a dainty Christmas luncheon was served. The guests were Miss Evelyn White, Miss Frances Mitchell, Miss Alta Jewell, Miss Addie Wright, Miss Evelyn Edwards, Miss Edna Voris, Miss Mabel Woodard, Miss Mary Krivel, Miss Esther Hill, Miss Lovi Mansfield, Miss Ruth Menke, and Miss Mary Davis.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Pauline Wrede, of Newcastle, and formerly of this city, to Forest M. Hall, of Dallas, Tex., was made Tuesday evening at a dinner party given by Mrs. Fred Sharp at her home in Newcastle for members of the Weddoso club. Clusters of holly and mistletoe and lights shaded in red and green made a lovely setting for the party. The announcement was made through a Santa Claus at each place, who held a card bearing the names, Polly and Forest. The wedding will take place next summer. Miss Pauline Wrede of Richmond, was a guest at the dinner.
