

Society

Among the notable social events of next week for the younger people will be the three parties, Mrs. Charlie Kolp is giving for her dancing club in the ball room of the Eagles club. The first for the children's class, will take place Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5. Pupils of Miss Elizabeth Kolp will give a short program of fancy dancing for the pleasure of the children during the afternoon. The solo dancers who will take part in the program are Miss Lucile Steers, of Greensfork, who will give two dances, "Hungarian Czardas" and "Roses and Butterflies." Miss Bettie Taylor will give recitation and dance, "Comin' Thru the Rye", and Miss Martha Ann Gennett will do the "Dance of Spring." A ballet "Vanity" by Miss Mary Louise Bunnell, of Hagerstown, will complete the program. A Christmas party for the Friday evening class will be given by Mrs. Kolp Wednesday evening from 7 to 10:30. A New Year's Watch party for the same Friday evening class will take place Friday from 8:30 to 12:30. Friends of Mrs. Kolp and of the pupils are invited to attend these holiday parties.

A special six piece orchestra will play for the Christmas dance Saturday evening in Odd Fellows' ballroom which Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp are giving. The hall has been elaborately decorated for the occasion. The affair will be semi-formal. As usual the balcony will be open to spectators.

The Country Club dinner dance Monday evening promises to be one of the biggest events of the holiday season. Over 100 reservations have been made for dinner that night. Pryor's orchestra of Eaton, will play for the dance. A still larger number it is expected will attend open house New Year's afternoon. Mrs. Charlie Kolp and Miss Elizabeth Kolp will assist in entertaining the children and have arranged several special features for them.

As a courtesy to Mrs. Raymond B. Nicholson of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. John H. Nicholson, Mrs. Edmund Blatt and Miss Helen Nicholson will entertain at the Country club from 4 until 6 next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Mather and Mrs. Fred J. Girty will receive informally Tuesday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Clyde Semler, a recent bride.

Mrs. Lewis G. Reynolds and Mrs. Edward V. Williams will be hostesses for a large bridge party at the Country club next Thursday afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Pauline Gieseking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gieseking, of Indianapolis, to Joseph Smith, son of Mrs. Mary Smith of North Eighth street, will take place Friday in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Myron Crane entertains the Delta Theta Tau with a Christmas party Tuesday evening.

The Loyal club will meet Wednesday evening at the Moose home. Every member is invited to come and bring a Christmas exchange and picnic lunch.

Miss Ruth Boyd, who is teaching school at Danville, arrived home Friday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Boyd, of South Fourteenth street.

Mrs. W. E. Bell and Miss Constance Bell of Wayne apartments, will have as holiday guests Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Scott McDonald, Miss Virginia McDonald, Miss Elizabeth McDonald and Malcolm McDonald, of Huntington, W. Va. Miss Virginia McDonald is coming from South Hadley, Mass., where she is attending Mount Holyoke college.

Miss Ellen Dickinson will arrive Saturday from Barnard college, New York City, to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Gaar. Russell Jenkins, attending Michigan university, returned from Ann Arbor Friday to spend his vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Doerr of Indianapolis, are holiday guests of their daughter, Mrs. W. A. Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cox of North Seventh street, will entertain Mrs.

Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Huffman, of Franklin, over the holiday season.

Miss Katherine Quigg is here from Madison, Wis., to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Addleman will
