Message"; 4 p. m., meeting of the Christian Fellowship Circle; 5 p. m., Vesper service. Thursday evening, 7:30, prayer meeting, led by Professor Lewis Jones.

Feud Case Dismissed—The charge of drawing deadly weapons which was filed against Fred Clark, 1140 Hunt street, by R. G. Wills, 203 South Eleventh street, was dismissed by Special Judge Richardson in city court Friday morning. The trying of the case brought out the fact that there was an old time feud between Clark and Wills. Clark was represented by Ray Shively.

Offender is Fined—Isaac Winburn, 711 South Eleventh street, was fined $1 and costs in city court Friday morning on an assault and battery charge filed by William C. Bass. Special Judge Richardson presided over the trial.

To Announce Appropriations—School appropriations for the coming year will be made out by Auditor Brooks and be ready for distribution the first of next week.

Reid Given Ring—Employees of the Elliott-Reid Fence company presented their manager, Walter Reid, with a costly ring as a Christmas gift Thursday evening. About 80 employees were represented in those presenting the gift.

Spiritualist Class Meeting — Members of the Science church of Spiritualists are notified that the study class which meets once a month, will hold its meeting Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in the Red Men's hall. Rev. Mary C. B. Austin, pastor, and Rose Baker, assistant.

Dolan Back Tuesday—J. L. Dolan, county agent, left Thursday for Albany, Ill., to spend Christmas with friends. He will return to Richmond Tuesday morning.

Xmas Program Planned—The Webster M. E. Aid society will meet with Mrs. Belle Wills, Wednesday, Dec. 29. A Christmas program has been arranged. Every member is urged to be present.

Lithographs on Exhibit—The Public Art Gallery will be open from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. Sunday afternoon so that those who did not get to see the Leigh exhibit of Lithographs Wednesday and Thursday may have an opportunity to do so.

School Children Entertained—Teachers in the grade schools and kindergartens of Richmond schools entertained their pupils with Christmas programs and parties Thursday before they left on their holiday vacation. One of the prettiest was that given the kindergarten class of Miss Mary Jay at Whitewater school. This class is unusually interesting because almost every nationality is represented in it.

A contribution of $10 was used to buy gifts for many of the children who will have no Christmas at home.

Christmas Services at Nazarene Church

Christmas services will be held at the Nazarene church at 7:30 p. m. Christmas eve.

Sunday school will be held at 9:15 a. m. Sunday; preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The holiday convention opens with the morning services Sunday. Preaching services will be held at 7:30 p. m. each day next week. The Rev. J. W. Crawford, pastor of the church, will be assisted by the Rev. John W. Thompson, just returned from Japan; the Rev. William Rice and the Rev. James W. Short, district superintendent of the Indiana district of the Nazarene church.
