The marriage of Miss Marjorie L. Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Morgan of 44 South Second street, and Lloyd H. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson of 218 Southwest Third street, was solemnized Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents. The home was beautifully decorated with Christmas decorations and the service was read before an altar of potted plants over which a wedding veil was suspended from a canopy of pink and white. As the bridal party entered the wedding march was played by Mrs. Ralph M. Tice, who played during the ceremony.

The bride wore a lovely braided white wool gown and carried a bride's bouquet of white carnations and narcissus. Miss Ruth Jarret, the bridesmaid, wore pink orquid and a corsage of sweet peas and violets. Archie Blunk was best man.

Following the ceremony luncheon was served, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in all the appointments. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. The bride is well known here having graduated from the Richmond high school in 1915 and worked at the conscription office during the war. Mr. Wilson is a veteran of the World War and served overseas two years in Company K, 16th Infantry, First division. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have gone to Indianapolis where they will reside.

A quiet wedding took place Thursday at 8:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Marlett on South Seventeenth street, when Miss Ruth Marlett, daughter of Charles E. Marlett, and John Bailey Robbins of Pittsburgh, Pa., were married in the presence of members of the immediate family. Dr. J. J. Rae of the First Presbyterian church officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins left for the east immediately after the ceremony. They will reside in Pittsburgh.

Miss Martha Kenny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Kenny of 26 Southwest Third street, and Robert Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunt, were quietly married Thursday evening at 8 p. m. at the residence of the Rev. Clement Zepf of St. Andrew's church. The bride wore a becoming suit of peacock blue broadcloth and a modish black hat. The attendants were Miss Mary Fisher and Raymond Green. Miss Fisher wore a suit of dark blue broadcloth. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt left on a short wedding trip after which they will reside at 438 South Fourteenth street.

The A. O. F. club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Schattell at her home in the Westcott block. Cut flowers and baskets of bittersweet in colors suggestive of the Yuletide season were arranged throughout the rooms. During the afternoon Miss Norma Meloy did a butterfly dance for the pleasure of the guests and Miss Beatrice Arden gave a reading. The afternoon was spent informally and luncheon was served at small tables prettily arranged with centerpieces of cut flowers. Miss Norma Meloy and Miss Beatrice Arden assisted the hostess. The guests were Mrs. Myron Klute, Mrs. John Meloy, Mrs. Charles Trimble, Mrs. Roy Clark, Mrs. George Perkins, Mrs. Harry Lang, Mrs. Keith Arden and Mrs. Warren Stanley. Mrs. Trimble will entertain the club in two weeks at her home on North Twentieth street.

Mrs. Myron Crane was hostess for a beautiful Christmas party given for the Delta Theta Tau sorority members at her home Thursday evening. The rooms were attractively arranged with poinsettias, holly and Christmas bells. Clusters of holly leaves, ribbon and holly hung in the entrance and the guests were suspended from the light domes in the center of the room. Gifts for the members were placed under a Christmas tree lighted with red and green lights. Master Jack Crane distributed the presents among the guests. The luncheon appointments were red, green and white. Three members were pledged at the party. They were Miss Mary Reinhardt, Mrs. Glen Whitesell and Mrs. Paul Beckett. Those present were Miss Hazel Mashmeyer, Miss Agnes Cain, Miss Mabel Roser, Miss Carolyn Bradley, Miss Mary Thomas, Miss Beulah Bowers, Miss Mary Williams, Miss Frances Roser, Miss Mary Chenoweth, Miss Ruby Cavanaugh, Miss Ruth Edgerton, Miss Mildred Townsend, Miss Loraine Starr, Miss Maude Watts, Miss Florence Cummins, Miss Elizabeth Starr, Miss Marie Connell, Mrs. Herbert Bradley, Mrs. Park Anderson, Mrs. Guy Gotshall, Mrs. Omer Whelan, Mrs. Roscoe Candler, Mrs. Myron Crane, Mrs. Paul Beckett, Mrs. Glen Whitesell and Miss Mary Reinhardt.
