

EATON JUDGE RULES MILLER MUST SPECIFY ALIENATION CHARGES

EATON, O., Feb. 1. — Charles G. Miller, farmer, will have to specify times and places his former wife, Ona Miller, was met by Enoch Buchanan for alleged immoral purposes, in a $10,000 alienation suit filed some time ago by Miller against Buchanan. Judge A. C. Risinger, in common pleas court, sustained a motion by Buchanan to compel Miller to make his charges more specific.

Another request by Buchanan to compel Miller to state what means defendant used in allegedly meeting Mrs. Miller was overruled. Miller obtained a divorce some time ago from his wife. He named Buchanan in his complaint.

Attorney Makes Error. Error on the part of a local lawyer in preparing two divorce petitions was responsible for dismissal of both suits from common pleas court. New petitions have been filed and both cases reentered in the docket.

The case of Martin E. Fowler against Ada Fowler was one of the cases dismissed a few days ago in open court by Judge Risinger, upon contention of defense counsel that the petition was faulty.

The other case was that of Denver Cross against Iva Catherine Cross, which was pending trial. Cross's attorney withdrew the petition, had the case dismissed and then filed another suit. Cross alleges neglect.

Local Couple Wed. Charles Mann, carpenter, and Miss Cordie Lee Green, daughter of John Green, were married Monday by the Rev. A. J. Bussard of the Methodist church.

Retired Farmer Dies.

Charles Miller, 85, native of Germany, retired farmer, and resident of Preble county for upward of 70 years, died early Monday afternoon in the home of his son, John E. Miller, a mile southwest of Richmond, Ind. Death was due to paralysis, after an illness of two years or longer. Mr. Miller came to this country and to Preble county when a boy. He leaves a comfortable estate. He was a member of the Odd Fellow fraternity. Surviving him are three sons, at whose home he died; Frank, of Campbelltown; William of Kansas City, Mo.; three daughters, Mrs. Clarence McWhiney, of West Florence; Mrs. Joseph Stover, south of Eaton; a daughter in Walla Walla, Wash.; three brothers and one sister. One brother, Fred Miller, lives in Dayton, and another brother, Gus, lives in Buffalo, N. Y. Arrangements for the funeral have not been announced, but the services will be held here in the Christian church, probably Thursday afternoon. Burial will be in Mount Hill cemetery.

Foutz Funeral Wednesday. Senility caused the death of Jacob Foutz, 87, Monday morning at 10 o'clock in his home a mile east of West Alexandria. He was a native of Montgomery county. Surviving him are his wife and three sons, Elwood Foutz, residing south of West Alexandria; Joseph Foutz, of Kitchell, Ind.; and John Foutz, of Hamilton. Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Sugar Hill Dunkard church, east of West Alexandria, followed by burial in the cemetery at New Lexington, north of West Alexandria.

Mrs. Early Dies. Mrs. Nellie Early, 72, wife of Carl Early, died Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the family home at Seuflestown, eight miles northeast of here. Pneumonia was the cause of death. Surviving are the husband, two sons and two daughters, and the mother, Mrs. McBoe, of Hyman. Funeral services will be conducted Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the home. Burial will be a New Lexington, Preble county.

Old Suits Dismissed. Twenty-four cases were called for dismissal Monday by Judge A. C. Risinger in common pleas court, but only two of them were sent into the discard, as counsel in the other cases assured the court there would be hasty action in settlement or bringing the cases to trial. The suits dismissed were: Ed Moots vs. Emma Snyder and Harry Flory vs. trustees of Harrison township.

The list of cases called was prepared by Judge Risinger, under the head of "sick cases," and they were to be thrown out of court for want of prosecution. A number of the cases are rather aged.

THEY'LL BE VISITORS AT WHITE HOUSE

Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen and children, Emily (left), Lee and Victoria.

The interesting group above is of Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, wife of Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, and their children. The Frelinghuysens are expected to be frequent visitors at the White House when the Hardings move there, and the children will share with the Harding grandchildren the distinction of being able to play about the White House. The senator is now entertaining President-elect Harding on a houseboat cruise in Florida waters.

Earl C. Maddock, 29, farmer, and Lotha Waldo, 27, Jackson township; Ralph Waldo Shafer, 21, farmer, Lantier township; and Dorothy Iris Armstrong, 20, Eaton; Charles William Mann, 19, carpenter, and Cordie Lee Green, 17, both of Eaton.

Circuit Court

Two exceptional cases came to light in Wayne circuit court Tuesday morning when suit for divorce was filed by Clara Jordan against Burley Jordan; and Mary Sezo asked for a divorce from Harry Sezo.

In the Jordan case the couple have been married 24 years and the Sezos have been married 26 years.

Mrs. Jordan alleges abandonment and failure to provide and asks for the custody of their two children. Mrs. Sezo charges cruel and inhuman treatment and failure to provide, and asks for the custody of their one child.

Suit for divorce was filed by Claire Stanley, 22, Laurel street, against James G. Stanley, of Benton, Mo. Failure to provide was charged in the complaint. Custody of their one child was asked.

Complaint to quiet title was filed by Folmer P. Wilson and Hans H. Wagner against Charles Huber et al.

ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE BERGDOLL CAUSE OF APOLOGY TO GERMANS

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—Brig. Gen. Henry T. Allen, commander of the American Army of Occupation on the Rhine, has made a formal apology to both the Berlin government and the government of Baden for the recent attempt by men connected with the American forces to take into custody Grover Bergdoll, American draft evader, and his chauffeur, Isaac Stecker, says an official statement issued by the government here.

Submitted by Col. Stone. The statement says that Col. Stone, acting on orders from Gen. Allen, called on the imperial commission for the occupied Rhine area and declared Gen. Allen desired to make a formal apology to the imperial German and Baden governments for the attempt to arrest Bergdoll on Baden territory. Through his official representative, the communication states, Gen. Allen declared he had given no orders for the attempt against Bergdoll, which he greatly deplored.

The order for Bergdoll's arrest, Gen. Allen stated, was issued by the provost marshal in Coblenz, who only recently arrived in Germany, and who was under the impression that Bergdoll was sojourning in the French zone of the occupied area.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Secretary Baker announced that he had received a cablegram today from Mag. Gen. H. T. Allen, commanding the American forces on the Rhine, saying he had ordered investigation of the circumstances surrounding the attempt to abduct Bergdoll at Eberbach last week.

GOVERNOR FOR 25 DAYS.

MAINE EXECUTIVE DIES. AUGUSTA, Me., Feb. 1.—Governor Frederick Hale Parkhurst, of Maine, died Monday of pneumonia, which developed after his apparent recovery from a diphtheritic infection. He had been the chief executive of the state for 25 days, and was the third Maine governor to die in office. He was succeeded as governor by Percival P. Baxter, president of the senate, who took the oath of office late Monday.

The order for Bergdoll's arrest, Gen. Allen stated, was issued by the provost marshal in Coblenz, who only recently arrived in Germany, and who was under the impression that Bergdoll was sojourning in the French zone of the occupied area.

Nova Scotia Drinkers Take "Stitch in Time"

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 1.—Nova Scotia's drinking men took "a stitch in time," and are smiling today despite the fact that the order-in-council prohibiting importation of liquors into the province became effective last midnight.

Steamships which arrived just before the zero-hour brought hundreds of cases of intoxicants and consignees hastened to claim shipments to prevent their confiscation by temperance act inspectors.

Customs officials had a record day, issuing customary papers for disposal of a final shipment of 18,000 cases which were brought from Glasgow aboard the steamship Canadian Runner.

RED ARROW DIVISION TO MEET IN DETROIT

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 1.—Elaborate plans are being made here for the second annual convention of the Thirty-second or Red Arrow Division, to be held August 28, 29 and 30.

Pledges of co-operation in formulating the plans have been given Red Arrow veterans here by officers of the state national guard and regular army officers stationed in this district.

Although the program as yet is tentative, it is proposed that the following schedule be carried out: Sunday, August 28—Registration and

PILES

Can't Be Cured from the Outside. External treatments seldom cure Piles.

Nor do surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through the stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Quigley's Drug Stores and druggists everywhere, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.—Advertisement.
