

ANNOUNCE SPEAKERS FOR FARM INSTITUTE ELDORADO, FEB. 9-10

ELDORADO, O., Feb. 1.—J. L. Buchanan, of Alliance; W. H. Pew, of Ravenna, and Mrs. Thomas P. Pierce, of Harrison, will be the speakers at the annual farmers' institute to be conducted at Eldorado Feb. 9 and 10.

Three sessions are planned for the first day and two for the second. Music by the Eldorado concert orchestra will open and close each meeting, with numbers between the lectures. Buchanan will speak the first day on "Soil Needs," in the morning; "Success on the Farm," in the afternoon, and "Things that Count" in the evening. Pew will speak twice, in the morning on "Feeding Swine for Market," and in the afternoon on "Feeding Cattle for Profit." Mrs. E. A. Holcomb will give a reading in the evening. Sessions start at 9:30 a. m., 1:00 p. m., and 7:15 p. m.

Second Day

On the second day Buchanan will speak on the subject, "Live Stock Farming: Essential to Good Farming," and "How to Interest the Boys and Girls in Farming." Mrs. Pierce will speak on "The Community Spirit" and "Is it Worth While?" in the morning and afternoon, respectively. C. E. Beck will give a report of the National Farm Bureau convention at the morning session of the day. Rev. A. C. Barnhart will give the invocation the first day and Rev. F. W. Miller for the second day.

Dinner will be served by the ladies of the Universalist church. The officers of the institute this year are: Garfield Kimmel, president; E. P. Kyle, vice-president; Elmer Kimmel, secretary; H. E. Banfill, treasurer; Clarence Minnich, Clem McKee, T. Beard, Frank Schlosser, Harley Brown and C. M. Agler, executive committee.

ASKS $500,000 BALM FROM KINGDON COULD

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Existence of a $500,000 suit in which Kingdon Gould, youngest son of George Jay Gould is charged with breach of promise to marry Mrs. Richard Blum, of Arkville, N. Y., was disclosed today in a report of supplementary proceedings begun yesterday in the supreme court here.

Mr. Gould appeared in court yesterday and denied statements made by Mrs. Blum who asserted he employed detectives to gather evidence on which she obtained a divorce in June, 1917. They previously had agreed, she said, to marry when she was free and were on friendly terms until his marriage to Miss Annunziata Lucci in July, 1917.

She further charged that he offered $10,000 to settle the case after the suit was filed several months ago, and that she refused.

The court directed both sides to submit all papers in the case next Saturday.
