

PREBLE GROWERS MAY ENTER EXHIBITS IN RICHMOND CORN SHOW

EATON, O., Feb. 2.—Among the more prominent personages from a distance in attendance here Tuesday at the sessions of the agricultural short course were F. P. Chaffee, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Richmond, Ind., and W. B. Fulghum, chairman of the corn show and community meeting, to be held the first of next week in Richmond. Mr. Chaffee had just assumed his duties as secretary of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday morning. He and Mr. Fulghum were present at the meeting here to boost the Richmond meeting next week. They made extensive distribution of programs and entry blanks for the corn and food show of their home city. They were especially busy among the exhibitors at the corn show here, which was feature of the short course. The Richmond show is open to the world, they declared. It is highly probable entries will be received from Preble county, as quite a few persons talked encouragingly about making entries.

Gilmore Trial Postponed.
Craig Gilmore, under indictment and in jail on a felony charge, entered against him by Miss Amy Von Kanel, local school teacher, will go on trial February 15, in common please court instead of February 14, as previously assigned. The one-day postponement was agreed to by counsel on both sides of the case and approved by Judge A. C. Risinger. One of the attorneys is compelled to be out of the city on the date originally fixed for beginning of the trial.

Grant Time Extension.

Extension of time, until February 15, has been granted by the county commissioners to owners of dogs in Preble county to secure licenses for their canines. Warning is given that after the date specified owners of dogs will be arrested and fined $25 and costs for failure to comply with the law. A rigid enforcement of the law is promised.

Art Exhibit Planned.

Exhibit of art and industrial work of students will be held Thursday evening in the north school building. A feature will be drawings of a Biblical nature, an innovation adopted by Miss Laura Hunt, art instructor, in study of the Bible.

Later in the evening the Rev. J. J. Rae, Richmond, Ind., will address a student-parents meeting in the courthouse auditorium.

Prison Wants Books.

Reading matter, such as papers, books and magazines for prisoners in the state penitentiary is sought by the Rev. T. O. Reed, chaplain of the prison, in a communication received here. He requests consignments to be boxed or barreled, the prison to pay the freight charges.

Funeral services for Charles Miller, 85, retired farmer, native of Germany, and a resident of Preble county since a young man, who died Monday in Wayne county, Ind., at the home of his son John E. Miller, formerly of Preble county, will be conducted here Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Christian church by the Rev. Hiley Baker, pastor. Burial will be here in Mount Hill cemetery.

Company Draws Recruits.

Indications are favorable for organization of a militia company in Eaton, according to C. M. Karnes, local overseas veteran, who has been laboring earnestly some time to effect an organization. Thirty-four recruits have been secured, with 50 as the number necessary.

It is hoped the company can be organized and mustered in in a meeting to be held Friday night in the armory. The company would be a unit of the 37th Division, First regiment. Captain Marx, Marietta, has been assisting Karnes with the recruiting work the last few days.

Grangers May Consolidate.

It is expected the farm bureau, the granges and other agricultural organizations of Preble county will form a county federation in a meeting here Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, in the courthouse auditorium. Mason Prugh, head of the farm bureau of Montgomery county, is expected to address the meeting.

Farm Bureau to Reorganize.

Reorganization of the farm bureau of Preble county will take place in a meeting here Saturday afternoon. The organization in a recent campaign boosted its membership to more than 900. L. J. Tabor, state grange master, will address the meeting Saturday, he to speak on "The Farm Bureau and Co-operation."

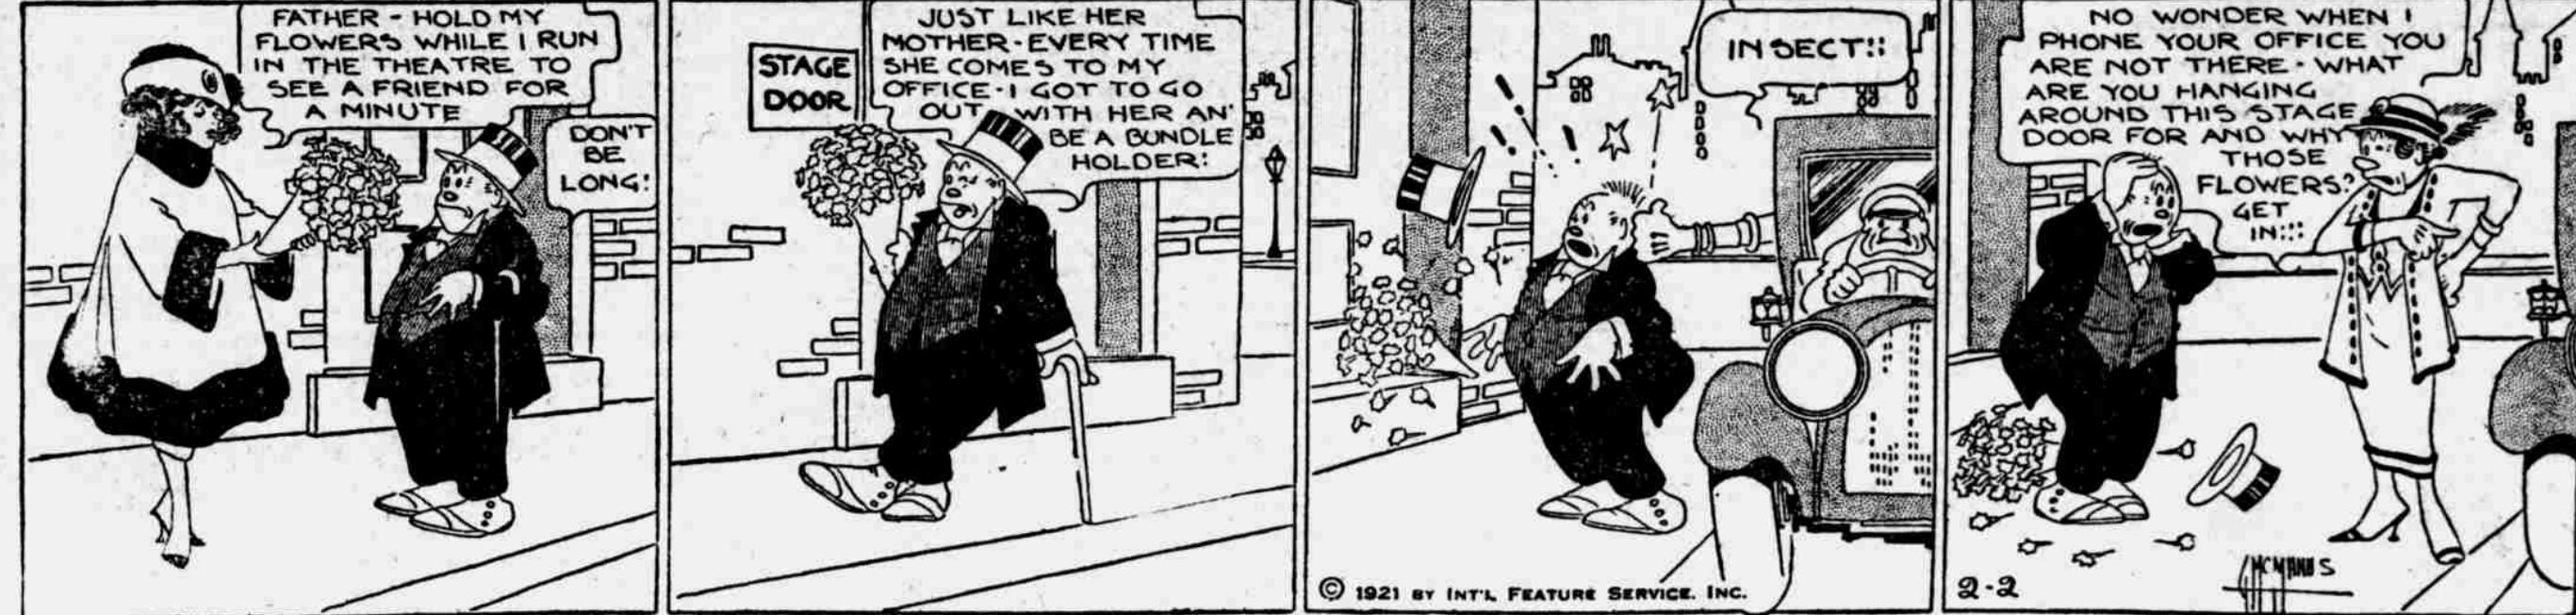

FISTS FLY IN FIGHT OVER UTAH CIGARETTE MEASURE

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 2.—The anti-cigarette bill introduced in the Utah legislature, which has caused many heated arguments, led to blows between two prominent Utah men. The blows were rained upon Mayor Leroy Dixon of Provo, Utah, by Church P. Castle, president of a box making company of Salt Lake City and ex-president of the Utah Manufacturers' association, according to eyewitnesses. The affray occurred following a public hearing on the bill at the capitol.
