Eggemeyer's Final Week

"Meet-the-Issue" GROCERY SELLING

These sales have met with phenomenal response from the people of this community, only vindicating our judgment that people WILL BUY if you offer the value. We are more firmly convinced than ever that the year 1921 will be a year of prosperity. The days of easy money for the business man, as well as the working man, died with 1920. Every dollar that is received must be earned. Every article that is sold must be worth the money that it costs. Once the majority of the people realize this, conditions will improve. There is enough FOOD, MONEY, CLOTHING and LABOR in the country to meet all necessities and many of the luxuries of the people, but all these things MUST BE EARNED. You will get exactly what you earn. Your merchandise will sell for EXACTLY what it is worth. You will obtain markets by working for them energetically and by giving better service than the man who still thinks he is back in the days of easy money.
