

LYDD GEORGE'S PAY SUBJECT OF DEBATE IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Premier of Great Britain has a hard time of it trying to pay his bills on a salary of £25,000 a year and his pay ought to be raised, says the former Prime Minister, Herbert H. Asquith, who ought to know for he occupied that position for 11 years.

As far as known, Mr. David Lloyd George has not asked for a raise in pay but his remuneration has been the subject of an inquiry conducted by a committee of Parliament which is examining into the salaries of all the British cabinet ministers.

Office is Expensive.
Mr. Asquith told the committee that the office of the Premier of Great Britain is a very expensive one and his duties can not be properly discharged by an expenditure limited to that amount. The former Prime Minister added, that he, himself, was a much poorer man when he left office than when he entered it.

Mr. Asquith explained that the Premier had to do a great deal of entertaining and after his long hours of sorts of conditions of people, both at home and abroad but, under the existing arrangement, he had to defray this expense entirely at his own cost.

Even if a government hospitality fund should be provided for entertaining distinguished foreign hosts, Mr. Asquith was of the opinion that the Premier's salary ought to be advanced.

Mr. Asquith had few kind words to say about the privilege which the Premier has of occupying the official residence at 10 Downing street.

"It is quite true," he said, "that you live in the house free from rent, rates and taxes, but it is a very expensive house to keep up: it is very inconvenient house in many ways; it requires a large staff and I suspect myself that any Prime Minister who had experience of it as I had would, if he were offered the choice, rather not live in it at all."

The salary of the Premier of Great Britain at present rate of exchange is equivalent to $125,000. This compares with a salary of $75,000 and $25,000 expenses for the President of the United States; $600,000 francs salary and a similar amount for expenses for the President of France and of 100,000 marks salary and 600,000 marks expenses for the President of Germany.

Members of the cabinet of the President of the United States receive $12,000 a year.

Turkish Nationalists May Reverse Decision

(By Associated Press)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 7.—Indication that Mustafa Kamal Pasha and other Turkish Nationalist leaders had reconsidered their refusal to participate in the near east conference in London was given in a dispatch received here from Ankara. It was said the Turkish Nationalist delegates would leave Ankara on Monday for London, traveling by way of Adana and Brindisi.

The Theatres

WASHINGTON
Quinine was a drug of which the Southern hospitals were very badly in need during the latter days of the Civil war. The lengths to which the Southern spies went to obtain the precious drug, are shown in the new Paramount picture of William Gillette's play "Held by the Enemy," which is now showing at the Washington theatre.

How a young southern widow risks all to induce a Yankee to supply the medicine that she might send to her suffering countrymen, constitutes one of the high spots in this new big production.

MURRETTE
That Charles Ray is absolutely impartial as to the merits of the original story compared with those of successful stage plays and books for screen use is demonstrated by his latest production, "Nineteen and Phyllis," which will be the week's attraction at the Murrette Theatre, commencing Sunday. "Nineteen and Phyllis" is an original story from the pen of Frederick Stowers, and the film which has been made from it is declared to be one of the very best in which Ray is starred. "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway" and "Peaceful Valley," Ray's two preceding vehicles, were adaptations of famous plays. "Whether a screen story is an original or an adaptation does not matter," says Ray. "The main consideration is that it must have those qualities which are essential to the production of a good photoplay."

This photo, just received in the U. S., shows the new Premier Aristide Briand as he greeted around him in the hope of solving

France's problems. The collecting of the war debt from Germany, the stabilizing of the financial situation at home and the other problems of reconstruction are the most important ones which face the new premier and his colleagues.

JEWELS BUY FOOD OF AUSTRIAN PEASANTS

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Feb. 7.—The peasants of Austria are rapidly stripping the well-to-do residents of Vienna of their wealth by demanding payment for food in diamonds, jewels or other things of high value, say Red Cross men, who have visited that city. The farmers who suffered more severely than did the city people in the war now are having their inlinings and are becoming prosperous, selling produce to the starving Viennese.

Austrian paper money is not always welcome in the country and the peasants demand an exchange of goods through a system of barter with the city residents. This attitude is said to be adding to the growing antagonism between the country worker and the city dweller.

Directors of government pawnshops estimate that 15 per cent of the Viennese are living by selling or pawning the valuables, frequently heirlooms. As the cost of living continues to increase, it is considered only a matter of a short time until many of the families who were well-to-do before the war will have nothing more to offer for food.

NEW MEASURE WOULD PRESERVE PROPERTY

(By Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 7.—Widows who remarry may not dispose of the property left them by their first husbands, if they also have children by that union, under the provision of a bill introduced in the Indiana general assembly by Senator Lindley.

The bill provides that property left to a widow must be kept intact by her for the children by the same husband. The only exception is in case the children affected are more than 21 years old and sign a written consent to the disposition of the property.

"The bill is to protect children whose fathers have died," said Senator Lindley. "In many cases which have come to my attention, widows with children have remarried and the second husbands have obtained possession of the property of the former husband. In some of these cases the children by the first marriage have been left without any of the property which was rightfully theirs."

HOW FAT ACTRESS WAS MADE SLIM

Many stage people now depend entirely upon Marmola Prescription Tablets for reducing and controlling fat. One clever actress tells that she reduced two to four pounds a week by using this new form of the famous Marmola Prescription and now, by taking Marmola Tablets several times a year, keeps her weight just right. All druggists sell Marmola Prescription Tablets at one dollar for a large case. Or you can get them by sending price direct to the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. If you have not tried them do so. They are harmless and effective.—Advertisement.

SIAM PRINCESS STUDENT NEIGHBOR OF HARVARD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 7.—Pupils in the Cambridge Latin school are to have a princess companion for the remainder of the term. The school committee approved an application from Princess Mahidol Songkila, wife of Prince Songkila, half brother to the King of Siam, for permission to attend the school. Her husband recently began a course at Harvard. Under the city ordinances married women are not admitted as pupils, but after considering the case the committee voted to grant a special dispensation to the princess.

CO-OPERATIVE HOUSE SOLVES LIVING COST FOR COLLEGE GIRLS

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 7.—The house that Jack built has a rival in interest, at Ohio State University here. It's the house that Mary runs, in a fashion that all good Communists hope to see the world run some day, equal distribution of work and everyone satisfied.

Eleven co-ops operate the house, and the living expenses of each are just $7 a week. The co-ops are not trying to emulate the ideal Soviet, they said. They tried the experiment when the student body was small and it was almost impossible to secure, and they wanted to see if they couldn't reduce their living costs.

They believe they have made a success of the venture, and assert the establishment of such co-operative houses would solve many perplexing problems of college students at the university are confronted with in living conditions.

One Hour for Housework.
The housework is apportioned equally among the eleven girls, and one hour a day is set aside for its accomplishment. When the hour arrives, the girls throw aside their books, don dust caps and aprons, and cheerfully set about to make the house spick and span.

One will sweep; one mend; one wash dishes; one clean windows; another make the beds; and so on. The idea is Mrs. Eleanor Smith's, who is opposed to the plan of housing girls in big dormitories. She is the manager, buyer and chief executive of the establishment.

Practically all the girls are from rural districts. Their names are: Miss Alto DeHaven, Orient, president.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ-destroying properties, nothing has been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Menthosulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Menthosulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Advertisement.

SPRING DRESSES

The Spring Dresses haven't changed to any marked degree. The trimmings are a little more attractive than those shown in the Fall.

Crepe de Chine and Taffeta, with basque and long waistline, will be very good. Tricolette and Mignonette should be strong, because the prices are moderate and styles very appealing.

Eyetelet embroidery is used a great deal, especially on taffeta. Ruffles, Pleating and Self-Cording will also be used.

Space does not permit us to describe all the styles and trimmings, but a visit to our store will convince you that the spring styles are beautiful.

We are now showing the better kind of Spring Dresses.

Hawaii Will Entertain American Journalists

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 7.—Extensive preparations are being made by Hawaiian journalists for the entertainment of delegates to the 1921 meeting of the Press Congress of the World, which will be held in Honolulu, October 4 to 14, according to cable advices received by Dean Walter Williams of the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri, president of the congress.

Fifty editors of the Hawaiian Islands met Saturday and appointed a sub-committee to arrange accommodations for the delegates, the latest cablegram said. Island editors are taking a lively interest in the arrangements; it was reported. A Program of vital importance and
