Mrs. Henry E. Long entertained in a delightful manner with a birthday party for her daughter, Miss Sara Kathryn Long, at her home, 136 South Thirtieth street, Tuesday afternoon. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. J. J. Owens, Mrs. Robert Hudson and Mrs. Sam Torrell. Appointments were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Music, games and contests were played during the afternoon, favors going to Miss Jean Grottenick, Miss Evelyn Carr, Miss Jane Rhee, Miss Kathleen Comstock, Miss Dorothy Swan and Miss Ellen Bartel. Dainty place cards marked the places at the dining table. A cake lighted by eight candles and surrounded by a mound of smilax and narcissuses formed the centerpiece. Kewpie dolls were tied with green ribbons and suspended from a chandelier over the table. Favors were green and purple baskets of candy and shamrock. The honor guest was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Those present were Miss Kathryn Comstock, Miss Ellen Bartel, Miss Nancy Jay, Miss Evelyn Carr, Miss Janet Thompson, Miss Sarah Copeland, Miss Jean Grottenick, Miss Marion Weeks, Miss Dorothy Swan, Miss Janet Rhee, Miss Virginia Youngflesh, Miss Anna Laura Bishop, Miss Elizabeth Allen, Miss Alice Jean Price, Miss Caroline Bond, Miss Eleanor Collins, Miss Martha Jane Waldriff of Streeter, Ill., houseguest of Miss Collins, Miss Sara Kathryn Long, Miss Jane Long, Miss Myra Dennis, Sam Torrell, Bobby Hudson and Jimmy Owens.

The Junior Luther League of Trinity Lutheran church was entertained by Miss Ethel Heithaus at her home on South Seventh street Tuesday evening. Six visitors and 24 members were present. Plans are being laid for presenting a play in April. During the evening a talk was given by the Rev. Oscar T. F. Tresselt on "Redemption is Universal." The rest of the time was spent informally and luncheon was served by the hostess. Roland Kemper will be host to the league at a party to be given next month at his home on South Sixteenth street.

Woodman was hostess at her home on College avenue Tuesday afternoon. Descriptive musical selections illustrating parts of the story were played by Mrs. George Hayes. A paper was read by Miss Mary Ann Stubbs and followed by a discussion in which many took part. Later refreshments were served by the hostess. Twenty-two members were present.

The Progressive Literary club elected the following officers when it met at the home of Mrs. Elmer E. Rice Tuesday afternoon: President, Mrs. Robert Thurston; vice-president, Mrs. Horace Kramer; secretary, Mrs. John Emalie; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Robinson; scrapbook keeper, Mrs. Charles Roland; press reporter, Mrs. E. E. Rice. Preceding the election a program was given. Responses to roll call were given from Jackson and Madison, and a paper read by Mrs. Robert Thurston on "The Constitution of the United States" was followed by a discussion by Mrs. Karl Wolfe of "Some Things We Have Inherited from the World War." Mrs. Thomas Robinson led parliamentary drill. Miss Gladys Longnecker played several numbers on the piano during the program. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Backus on March 15.

An informal musicale was given by members of the Trifolium society Tuesday evening when it was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver P. Nussbaum at their home on North Thirtieth street. Mrs. George Eggeneyer, Ernest Renk and Mrs. Fred J. Bartel arranged the program. The program was divided into two parts, the first composed of piano and vocal solos and several readings as follows: piano duet, Mrs. George Eggeneyer and Miss Alice Knollenberg; vocal solo, Mrs. F. W. Krueger, accompanist, Miss Marjorie Beck; piano solo, Miss Ruth Peltz; readings, Miss Florence Falch; piano solo, Miss Marjorie Beck. A quartette formed by Miss Fred Bartel, Miss Corinne Nussbaum, Ben Bartel and Ernest Renk, accompanied by Miss Alice Knollenberg, furnished the second part of the program.
