

FARM SALE PRICES REFLECT INCREASE IN PROPERTY VALUE

Values reflected in farm sale prices continue to improve, as indicated by the administrator's sale held on the farm of Chester Fowle, deceased, one mile west of West Manchester, on Thursday. A horse which was blind in one eye, but a good worker, brought $149, and a 14 year old brood mare was knocked down for $172 to E. B. Creager. Fred Richter took a six year old sorrel at $173, Walter Crump a two year old colt at $91, and a 14 year old bay went to Kenneth Brunn for $160.

Second hand machinery sold for good prices again, a binder bringing $171 from Frank Ohler, while Virgil Emerick paid $71 for a manure spreader, and Warren Renner, $97 for a two-horse grain drill.

Grain is sold. Oats brought 49½ cents and corn 57 to 62 cents a bushel. John O'Dea, Jim Creech and Alva White took the corn and William Denlinger and Jesse Utz bought the oats. C. E. Howell took the clover hay at $16.25.

A sow with a litter of eight pigs sold to Harry Parks at $72, while two brood sows went for $39.75 and two for $40, all to Warren O'Dell. All were due to farrow soon. The whole went to him also at $9.15 to $12, while Albert Geeting also was a heavy buyer of hogs.

Fat cattle brought seven cents. Riley Foster bought a cow with calf at $89, and Mahoe Emerick took another, also with calf at her side, for $91. Five young calves, five months old, went to E. B. Creager at $31 apiece.

To Move on Farm. Warren Renner, who was a heavy buyer at the sale, will move on the farm, while Mrs. Fowle, widow of the former owner, will live with her father, John Waldren, Sr., in town. Ira A. Buhrman was the auctioneer for the sale and W. E. Gruber, clerk. The total of the sale was $4,219.

Luncheon was served at pre-war time prices, five cents for a quarter of a pie, and other prices accordingly, by the ladies of the U. B. church, who received high praise for the food from those attending the sale. The ladies in charge of the dinner were Mrs. Cora Leas, president; Mrs. Bessie Leas, secretary; Mrs. A. J. Myers, treasurer; Mesdames Inez Holtsmuller, Wolverton, Furry, Winthro, Foss, Smith, J. F. Radabaugh, Kate Studebaker, Shuman, Wehrley, Kate Holtsmuller and Miss Helen Shuman.

There was little food left as a record crowd was in attendance. In spite of the bad roads, bidders and spectators came in from a distance, using horse and buggy where roads were impassable. There was in fact, an unusual preponderance of horse drawn vehicles at this sale.

Horse Falls in Well; Rescued With Derrick

Many spectators watched the efforts of workmen to rescue a horse that had fallen into a well on South Fifth street, Thursday afternoon. The horse was one of a team being used in excavating for a building to be erected by Mrs. A. M. Weiss on South Fifth street between A and B streets. After working for about three hours, the horse was finally rescued by means of a derrick and the caving in of one side of the well so that the animal could be hauled out safely.
